PREFACE

ACCORDING to the census of 1790, there were in the United States 518 heads of families bearing the name West. Considering that they formed so marked a percentage of the early population, it would seem that the West family has long been neglected, since this is the first time that any great amount of material under this name has been put into one volume.

Manifestly it would be impossible to attempt to confine within the covers of one book a compendium of the entire 518 families, but nearly 250 of them have been definitely placed herein. Years of exhaustive research, constant correspondence, and extensive travel have been required for the assembling and verifying of the facts concerning their descendants. The author has drawn upon library reference books, genealogical magazines, county histories, vital statistics, court records and other public documents, tombstones, family Bibles, and personal narrative for the material.

The Government census lists have been invaluable and have furnished many of the dates presented here. It should be explained that a variation of one year in accuracy is likely to occur when the year only is given; since the person recorded may have had a birthday just after the census was taken, in which list the age and not the date of birth appears. Possibly there will be other slight variations in birth dates because even family Bibles mentioning the same person sometimes disagree.

The distribution of the West families in 1790, which was the date of the first general U. S. census, is a fascinating study. North Carolina led with 83 and Massachusetts followed with 79. Those in Massachusetts are largely the descendants of the early immigrant, Francis West, of Duxbury. Those in North Carolina came from widely scattered sections of the country due to circumstances easily understood. The large patentees of Colonial days had secured great tracts of land in the New World, but by the time this land was distributed among the second and third generations, large plantations had dwindled into small farms. Consequently, the younger scions, while well brought up, had little inheritance.

As early as 1750 they began to migrate from the older settlements to the wilder and less populated parts of the country. After the Revolution a still greater migration took place and the natural trend from Virginia and Maryland was into North Carolina. Pennsylvania, also, and even New England, sent their settlers there. This state was the great colonizing point for many years. Distribution in the other states in 1790 was: Virginia 77; New York 52; Maryland 44; Pennsylvania 37; South Carolina 43; Rhode Island 33; Connecticut 30; Vermont 24; New Hampshire 13; Maine 12.

A glance at the census lists reveals at once the extreme difficulty in tracing certain individuals. Too often their identity is masked behind such constantly recurring names as John, William and Thomas. Thanks to the originality of some parents of two centuries ago, however, unalloyed joy fills the genealogist who happens upon such distinctive names as Salathiel, Zephaniah, Theophilus, Onesiphorus, and Eleazar.

The West family has furnished a long line of notable men to public life, including divines, statesmen and professional leaders. There have been several governors, many congressmen, and at least one Cabinet officer, a Secretary of the Interior. The present governor of Virginia is a West descendant, and the lieutenant governor of that state bears the family name. A deputy governor of Rhode Island in Revolutionary times was William West; an early Colonial governor of South Carolina was Joseph West; and a territorial governor of Utah was Caleb Walton West, of Kentucky.

Benjamin West, of Rhode Island, was a famous mathematician and astronomer, and Charles Edwin West, of Brooklyn, was the first scholar to devote himself to the higher education of women, writing many textbooks for use in women's colleges. The annals of New England are full of records of early ministers of the gospel renowned for their eloquence, Rev. Stephen West and two Reverends Samuel West gaining the most enviable distinction. In the Congressional Library the great number of cards cataloguing West authors tells the tale of their success in the field of literature.

From 1326 in England to 1928 in America, members of the West family have never shirked their duty in peace or war, the Revolutionary roster comparing more than favorably with that of any other family. The very name West had its origin in the wartime valor of some shadowy ancestor who emerged from obscurity in Devon and caught the eye of his sovereign. From that time he was dubbed, for the sake of distinction, "Thomas de West," meaning "of the west country," a fashion of nomenclature introduced after the Norman Conquest.

While much space, necessarily, has been devoted to purely statistical data, the pictorial side of events transpiring in the early period of West emigration should not be lost sight of. Properly to reconstruct those early days one must recall the history of the times. The boats in which Sir Thomas West (Lord De La Warr) crossed and recrossed the Atlantic were small but sturdy; for they were built by the same men who had constructed those famous destroyers of the Spanish Armada but a few years before.

King James the First was still sending out his philippics against the "weed" Sir Walter Raleigh had introduced from Virginia, when Anthony West set sail from England; and Francis West migrated from Wiltshire in the very midst of the Puritan exodus to the Colonies about 1636. The second generation of Wests in the New World was just attaining maturity when the names of Isaac Watts, Joseph Addison and Jonathan Swift were on every tongue in Europe; while Daniel Defoe and Captain Kidd were household words on both continents. And it was in 1698 that Peter the Great made his first European tour "unconducted!" Five years later he was laying the foundation stones of St. Petersburg.

In 1695, when Joseph West bought his plantation in Prince George's County, there were only 30 or 40 houses in Annapolis, the largest town in Maryland, and the charter of William and Mary College in Virginia had been granted only two years previously. Fear of Indian attack, even after 1700, was still the chief anxiety of the planters. As late as 1704 John West of Stafford County could not attend court because he was short of men to guard his household from the stealthy foe. In Maryland where Stephen West was living, the settlers were divided into small companies and took their turn for a week at a time in scouting the woods for Indians. In spite of all their precautions, they often suffered dearly at the hands of their adversaries. The desire for wealth and personal freedom had its price.

CHAPTER I

COATS OF ARMS OF THE DE LA WARR AND WEST FAMILIES

THE coat of arms of the Earl De La Warr is described in terms of heraldry, below:

Arms, Quarterly: first and fourth, argent, a fesse dancettee, sable, for West; second and third quarterly, gules, a lion rampant, argent, armed and langued azure between a semé of cross-crosslets (eight).

Crest, Out of a ducal coronet, or, a griffin's head, azure, beaked and eared, gold.

Supporters, Dexter, a wolf coward, argent, gorged with a plain collar, or; sinister, a cockatrice, or, shadowed and scaled, azure.

Motto, "Jour de ma vie."

The great houses from the west of England were the first to display arms upon their shields. These early armorial bearings were usually very simple, the colors in strong contrast so that they could be readily distinguished in the confusion of battle. Many reasons guided the choice of armorial bearings by their first owners. Quite often there was a play upon the name, as in the case of Barnard who had a ramping bear upon his shield; Piriton, who had a pear tree; Horsley, horses' heads, and Bower, who depicted bent bows on his escutcheon. Three capital T's were borne by Toit of Cheshire, and it is possible that the choice of a fesse dancettee by the Wests originally suggested a capital W. The earlier drawings of their shield show the points of the fesse much higher and deeper than the later designs, making, as it did, a bold dash across the center. This black jagged figure on the silver background would be unmistakable wherever the shield was displayed.

The original arms of the De La Warr family are quite like those of William de Mowbray, who was one of the twenty-five barons appointed to enforce the Magna Charta. The silver lion on the red shield is the same, the only difference is in the eight small crosses in the background (semé of cross-crosslets). Medieval wisdom gave every noble quality to the lion; therefore this animal was chosen by many knights as well as by the royalty of England and Scotland. When Lord West married the heiress of Lord De La Warr, the West arms were quartered with those of the De La Warr family.

The West crest, the head of a griffin, was retained. Nearly all records of West arms in England show the "fesse dancettee" on the shield and the griffin's head as the crest, suggesting the relationship to the Wests from Devonshire. The fabled creature, the griffin, is an emblem of a valiant hero, unyielding to the enemy; in heraldry symbolizing strength and vigilance.

The right to supporters of a shield is limited to the sovereigns, peers of the realm (in England), Knights of the Garter, Knights of the Bath, etc. They descend through the male line. Therefore, the supporters on the coat of arms of Lord De La Warr are those of Lord West. The wolf "coward" on the dexter side suggests a wolf subdued to serve his master, the bearer of the shield. On the sinister side the ancient creature, the cockatrice, was supposed to strike terror to beholders and indicates that in warfare it would be difficult to be interfered with.

The motto on the West coat of arms is: "Jour de ma vie" (Day of my life). This was formerly the motto of the La Warrs. It was adopted to commemorate the capture of King John II of France in the battle of Poitiers by Roger La Warr.

The "manteling" in an armorial achievement is the ornamental design representing the drapery first worn about the helmet as a protection from the sun during the Crusades. With the ancient arms the colors are usually specified in the grant as "gules, lined with argent."

After the marriage of the Earl De La Warr to Elizabeth Sackville, heiress of the Duke of Dorset, he (West) and his sons in 1843 took the name of Sackville-West. The present Earl De La Warr has his shield quartered with that of the house of Sackville, and has also included the Sackville crest in his armorial achievement. Thus two crests are shown, the griffin's head head of the Wests and the star (estoile, argent) of the Sackvilles. It is interesting to note that the older son of the Earl De La Warr, who was born 1921, is called Viscount Cantelupe. This holding was acquired by Sir Thomas West, early in the 14th Century, when he married Eleanor, daughter and heiress of Sir John de Cantelupe of Hempston, Devon.

CHAPTER II

WESTS IN ENGLAND DATING BACK TO FIFTEENTH CENTURY

THE following notes may be helpful to those who are interested in tracing their ancestry to England. They have been taken mostly from visitations made by heralds to the various counties. The majority of these visits were made in the 1500's and early 1600's, and while dates in many cases are lacking, still they may be placed, approximately, as to century. The name of the county or shire heads each list of notes. It should be explained that these visitations were made to ascertain what families were entitled to coats of arms, since there were many cases of fraudulent assumption of armorial bearings.

BERKS

Mary West, daughter of James West of County Berks, married John Hyde, living in 1677. (Perry's Berkshire, Bucks, and Surrey.)

Thomas West, of Wallingford, Berks, married Elizabeth Stampe. (Visitation of Oxford.)

BUCKS

In this county are the holdings of the Wests of Braywick Lodge presumably descended from some member of the De La Warr family. The lineage given in Burke is as follows:

Charles West of Aylesbury, living in the time of Henry VI, had a son, Thomas West of Aylesbury, whose son, Thomas West, of the same place, married Joane Wilson, of Brill. One of their children, Alexander West, the second son, moved to Cotton End, Northamptonshire. He will be treated under that county. Other Wests, however, remained in Bucks and we have some notes concerning them.

Margery West, daughter of ——— West of Wicombe, was the first wife of John Lane of Hertford. (Mundy's Middlesex Pedigrees.)

Roger West, of Marsworth, married Eleanor Knatchball of County Kent. (Berry's Pedigrees of Kent Families.)

Nicholas West, one of six Chantrey clerks, married the widow, Joane Hantrey. (Berry's Berkshire, Bucks, and Surrey.)

Nicholas West, of Marsworth, had a daughter, Hester West. (Mundy's Middlesex Pedigrees.)

Edmund West, of Marsworth, was buried September 12, 1618. His widow, Theodosia, married Gregory Pratt. (LeNeve's Pedigrees of the Knights.)

Frances West, of Marsworth, sister of Edmund West, Sergeant-at-Law, married Sir Charles Cotterell. He was living at Oxford in 1644. He died in 1701 in County Lincoln, where he was born.

DEVON

Shirley says in his "Noble and Gentle Men of England" that the Wests are remarkable not so much for the antiquity of the family as for the early period at which they attained the honor of the peerage. Thomas West of Devon, the first peer of his family, was so created in 1326. His marriage took place in 1328. (Worthy's Devonshire Wills.) Other early references include the following:

John West married Elizabeth Larder of Upton, whose father died in 1521. (Vivian's Visitations of Devon.)

John West married Catherine Bodley of Dunscombe. They had children and both were living in 1562.

John West, Sr., of Tiverton, was made one of the trustees of a school established by a will made in 1599. John West was a clothier, as were John West, Jr., and Peter West. Tiverton was inhabited by a large merchant class, and the Wests were found here for a long period of time. (Prince's Worthys of Devon.)

John West was present in Tiverton at the visitation. (Colby's Visitation of County Devon.)

William West was reported during one of the visitations of Devon in 1531-1564 or 1620 as the second husband of Elizabeth, the daughter of Sir Richard Crofts. She died in the eighteenth year of Henry VIII.

Johanna West, daughter of John West of Tiverton, married John Bennett of Whiteway in 1627. (Vivian's Visitations of Devon.)

James West, of Down St. Mary, married in 1691 at Powderham, Margaret Southcote, born in 1666. (Vivian's Visitations of Devon.)

Baldwin West, of Whitstone, married in 1703 Dorothy Corindon, baptized at Bratton-Clovelly in 1672. (Vivian's Visitations of Devon.)

Mary West and her children, sons and daughters of Mathew West: Richard, Mary, John, Elizabeth and Robert West were the recipients of a bequest by the terms of the will of John Tucker of Broad Clist proven in 1692. (Vivian's Visitations of Devon.)

William and Mary West were mentioned in the will of their grandfather, Ralph Tucker, proven in 1693. (Worthy's Devonshire Wills.)

Dorothy West, daughter of Peter West, married in 1727, Sir Thomas Carew of Haccombe.

Peter West, of Tiverton Castle, married Elizabeth at some period near this. (Vivian's Visitations of Devon.)

Temple West, of West Wickham, County Kent, married Jane Drake of Devon. He died in 1783 and she died in 1800. (Vivian's Visitations of Devon.)

ESSEX

The Wests of Howfield House, County Essex, and of Pinner, County Middlesex, will be treated under Essex.

Thomas West, of Ash, County Essex, is traditionally connected with the house of De La Warr. He was born some time after the middle of the sixteenth century, and his son, Thomas West, was baptized in 1606. This Thomas had a son, Rowland West of Ash, who also had a son Rowland West. The latter was baptized in 1653, and married Mary Draper. They were the parents of Rowland West, baptized in 1675, who married Anne Brown. Their son, John West, was one of several children. He married Sarah Jarratt and their oldest son, George West, born in 1734, married 1st, Mary Novell and had one son only, Rev. George West, Rector of Stoke. George West married 2d, Anne Knowles and they were the parents of two sons, John, the Rector of Chettle, Dorset; and William West.

GLOUCESTER

The Wests of Alscot Park. This family is descended from Leonard West, youngest son of Thomas, Lord De La Warr by his second wife, Eleanor Copley. He received by the will of his father, dated 1524, the Manors of Sutton, Mandeville and Hasilden in Wiltshire, and the Manor of Brodele, in Dorsetshire. He married Barbara Gascoigne and left one son, John West, who resided at Banbury, County Oxford. John West married Mary Throckmorton and had Aholiab, who died in 1628 leaving a son, Richard West. He (Richard) married Elizabeth Hill of Warwick County and had James, John, Richard and Aholiab West, none of whom left descendants except Richard. He married and left James West who died in 1799, leaving a son, James West.

Hannah West married William Trotman of Trotworth on March 6, 1701. (Camden's Visitation of Gloucester.)

Catherine West married Richard Hungerford. (Camden's Visitation of Gloucester.)

Thomas West married Joan, the widow of Ralph Willington, son of Sir John de Willington. (Rudder's Gloucestershire.)

HERTFORD

Robert West, the eldest son and heir apparent of Lord De La Warr, married Elizabeth Cocke, the daughter of Sir Henry Cocke, Sheriff of Herts, and Ursula Bury of Oxford. Robert West and Elizabeth had no children. He preceded her in death. She married again and died in 1645.

Mr. West of Hales Owen married a daughter of John Baker and Margery Madestard of Hertford.

A daughter of Mr. West, of Hertford, married John Goodyear, of Hadley, County Middlesex, who was living in the second year of the reign of Henry VI.

KENT

The Wests of Postern Park, County Kent, are of later date than many of these given and may be found in Burke's Landed Gentry.

William West, of Boston, County Nottingham, married Elizabeth Plumptre of County Kent, baptized May 31, 1611. (Berry's Pedigrees of Kent Families.)

Margery West, daughter of Sir George West, of Warwick, married Humphrey Clark of Kingsworth, County Kent. (Berry's Pedigrees of Kent Families.)

Dorothy West, daughter of Rev. Marcus West, who was living in 1828, married Rev. Thomas Toke, who was baptized 1772 at Barnston. (Berry's Pedigrees of Kent Families.)

Piercy West, granddaughter of Lord De La Warr, married William Hill of Walsingham, Norfolk County. (Berry's Pedigrees of Kent Families.)

Owen West, second brother to Thomas, Lord De La Warr, married Mary Guildefore.

Barbara West, daughter of Thomas, Lord De La Warr, married Mary's brother, Sir John Guildefore of Kent.

LINCOLN

Dom. John Weste, a clerk in the chantry of Lincoln cathedral, died in 1546. (Lincoln Record Society, Vol. 13.)

William West, of Middlesex County, married Dorothy Arthington. (Mundy's Middlesex Pedigrees.)

Edward West of London, married Elizabeth Banes June 19, 1655. (Harleian Publication, Vol. 16, Register of the Parish of Kensington.)

John West married Sarah Watkins October 15, 1637. (Same reference.)

William West was buried February 28, 1667. (Same reference.)

Evan West was buried January 4, 1668. (Same reference.)

Sarah West was buried November 7, 1668. (Same reference.)

NORTHAMPTON

The Wests of Northampton, at least those living at Cotton End, sprang from the West family of County Bucks. Alexander West, of Cotton End, had two sons, Alexander and John. The son, John, had a son Thomas West, Gentleman of Cotton End, who married Dorothy Lane, of Courtenhill. After his death, she married William Randolph, who was born in 1572 and died 1660. (Harvey's Visitation of Northampton.) Thomas West and Dorothy Lane had a son, Rev. Richard West, Rector of Arthingworth, who married Elizabeth Pike. Their son, Venerable Richard West, Prebendary of Durham, married Marie Temple. The children of this marriage were: Gilbert West, who died without issue in 1756; Temple West; and Maria West. Temple West, the second son, was Lord Commissioner of the Admiralty, and died at West Wickham, County Kent, in 1757. He married Frances Balchen and their children were: Thomas West, who died unmarried; Temple West, who married Jane Drake of Devon and died in 1783, (whose descendants may be traced in Burke); and Balchen West.

The second son of Alexander West of Cotton End was Alexander, who had a son, Thomas West. He married Susan Wilson of Biceter, County Oxon, in 1618, and they were the parents of: 1. Thomas West, born about 1619; 2. John West; 3. Edward West, who died without issue; 4. Margery West, who married Edward Russell of Banbury. (Harvey's Visitations of Northamptonshire.)

Elizabeth West, daughter of Richard West of Hulcott, Northampton, married William Knight of Apthorpe. (Perry's Berkshire, Bucks and Surrey.)

Anne West, daughter of Robert West of Cotton End, married Edward Langham of Gullesburg, Northampton. (Camden's Visitation of 1619.)

NORTHUMBERLAND

Elizabeth West, daughter of Thomas West of Long Houghton, was baptized August 10, 1646.

Elizabeth West married Roger Gog, July 12, 1670.

Thomas West of Long Houghton was buried, March 29, 1677. (References from Wood's Register of Births of Houghton, Northumberland.)

SUSSEX

The following notes are taken from Berry's Sussex Pedigrees:

The ancestry of the West family of Sussex leads back to County Oxford where lived Richard West. In the early part of the sixteenth century, his son, Richard West of Comner, County Berks, had a son, William West of More and Stanlake, County Berks, who married Arford ———. They were the parents of William West of Stanlake, who married Jone Collyer of Burford, County Oxford. William and Jone were the parents of:

The following note is from Virginia Magazine. Vol. 26, p. 381:

William West, of Slynfold Parish, County Sussex, Gentleman, died 1616 in Virginia. He bequeathed his estate to Mary Blunt, wife of Richard Blunt, of Dedsham, County Sussex.

WARWICK

Eleanor West, daughter of Sir Thomas West, of Snitterfield, County Warwick, and of Roughcombe, County Wilts, a member of the Lord De La Warr family, married Sir Nicholas de Clifton about 1380-5. (Burke's History of Commoners.)

Edward West was the husband of Anne Holt of Warwick County in 1619.

Robert West, of Warwick, married Elizabeth Cocke, of Hertfordshire.

Thomas West, of Kenesey, County Warwick, married Elizabeth Ludford of the same county.

Margaret West, daughter of Sir George West, a De La Warr of County Warwick, married Humphrey Clark of County Kent.

John La Warre received the Manor of Wickwar in Warwick in the reign of Richard III. This remained in the family until about 1530, when Thomas Lord De La Warr, who died 1554, received a grant of the Abbey of Whorwell in Hampshire. This then became the family seat and Wickwar was sold. When Thomas, 3rd Lord De La Warr, entered Oxford, he registered from Hants.

James West, Esq., who died in 1772, had a handsome seat at Alscot, in the Parish of Preston-upon-Stour, about two miles from Stratford.

YORK

Denby, in his Visitations of the North, Vol. II, p. 60, gives a brief sketch of the Wests of Aighton, in the Parish of Aston, Yorkshire.

Glover, in his "Visitations of Yorkshire," gives a more complete outline of the family of Aughton and Rotherham, which are the same line. From both references we have the following facts: John West married Anne Aighton in the time of Henry IV, about 1406, and had a descendant, Thomas West, who was living in 1445. He married Margaret Skyres. Their son, Thomas West, living in the time of Henry VII, married Anne Sims or Joan Simons of Wales. They were the parents of:

1. Sir William West of Essex
2. John West
3. Jerome West d. s. p. in time of Henry VIII
4. Isabel West m. Richard Eyre

1. Sir William West, of Essex, was given a crest in 1525 by Henry VIII for brave conduct as a sea captain. He married Frances Fitz-Lewis, a widow of Fyndorne. They were the parents of:

5. John West
6. Lewis West of Essex m. Mary Hales
7. Edmund West
8. William West had a son Edmund.

5. John West, the son of Sir William West and Frances, left a will dated 1541. He married Anne Eyre, of County Derby, and they were the parents of these children:

9. John West d. s. p.
10. George West
11. Thomas West
12. Elizabeth West m. Roger Wombevell

10. George West married Joan Trigott, and had:

13. John West

11. Thomas West was living in 1587 and was a parson of Hoton. He married Anne Bradbury and had three sons, one of whom was:

14. William West

13. John West, the son of George West and Joan, married Anne Moore, of Hertford, and had:

15. Godfrey West
16. George West
17. Jane West
18. Anne West

14. William West, the son of Thomas West and Anne Bradbury, married 1st, Winifred Eyre; 2nd, Audrey Mann. He was the parent of:

    19. William West of Firbeck

    21. Edith West
    22. George West
    23. Gilbert West
    24. Mary West
    25. Robert West

15. Godfrey West, the son of John West and Anne Moore, was living in 1585. He married Catherine, the daughter of Thomas Revell. Flower's Visitation of Yorkshire, 1563-4, gives this son as Jeffrey or Geoffrey.

19. William West, son of William West, was the father of William West who married Catherine Darcy, and had a son, John West.

Another branch of Wests in County York is sketched in Glover's Visitation of Yorkshire. This family had holdings at Hunshelf. Thomas West, of Little Bretton, York, had a son, John West, who married Elizabeth Hurst. They were the parents of:

1. Francis West
2. Lewis West
3. Thomas West
4. William West
5. Jane West
6. Mary West

1. Francis West, son of John West and Elizabeth Hurst, married Elizabeth West, the daughter of Thomas West of Upton, York. They were the parents of:

5. Jane West, the daughter of John West and Elizabeth Hurst, married a Mr. Webster.
6. Mary West, daughter of John West and Elizabeth Hurst, of High Holland, York, married Thomas Skyres, who was born in 1572.

The first three of the following notes are from Glover's Yorkshire:

IRELAND

The Wests of County Kildare, Ireland, may be found in Burke's Genealogical and Heraldic History of the Landed Gentry of Ireland, p. 644. The early ancestor is Matthew West, who later moved to Dublin. A descendant, Digby Brooke West, settled in the United States at Berryville, Arkansas, before the Civil War. He was the father of eight sons, one at least of whom, Digby John West, was a member of the Confederate Army.

CHAPTER III

LINEAGE OF THE DE LA WARR FAMILY

AMONG the families of noble descent who were represented in this country in its early days, none was of more distinguished lineage than that of the De La Warr. Royal blood flowed in its veins, albeit somewhat thinned by the passage of time, and the family tree is traced from Alfred the Great, through thirteen generations, to Edmund, Earl of Lancaster, the son of Henry the Third. Henry Plantagenet, the son of the Earl of Lancaster, had a daughter, Joan, who married Lord Mowbray; and their son, John, Lord Mowbray, had a daughter, Eleanor, who married Roger La Warr.

The earliest La Warr recorded, is John La Warr, who, during the reign of King John (1199-1216), received ratification of a grant of the lordship of Bristolton, Gloucestershire, which had been given him prior to John's coming to the throne. Six years later he died, and was succeeded by his son,

Jordan La Warr. He, in turn was succeeded by his son,

John La Warr, who in the reign of Edward I was sheriff of Herefordshire. Following him came his son.

Roger La Warr. He was created Baron in 1299 and married Clarice, daughter of Baron Tregoz. Dying in June, 1320, he was succeeded by his son,

John La Warr, the 2d Baron, who took part in the wars of Edward I and III and was with the Black Prince at Crecy. He married in 1294 Joan, sister and heir of Baron Gresley of County Lancaster and had one son, John, who died before 1345, preceding his father in death. He and his wife, Margaret Holland, were the parents of two sons and one daughter: 1. Roger; 2. Sir John of Bokampton in Berks, who died without issue; and 3. Catherine, who married Sir Warine Latimer. When the second Baron De La Warr died in 1347, he was succeeded by his grandson,

Roger La Warr, the third Baron, who took part bravely in the victory of Poictiers. He married 1st, in 1338 Elizabeth, the daughter of Lord Welles, having: 1. John, the 4th Baron, who died 1398 without issue; 2. Thomas 5th Baron De La Warr, a priest who died 1426. He married 2nd in 1358 Eleanor, daughter of Lord Mowbray, and died in 1370 aged 43 leaving one daughter only, Joan, who married Sir Thomas West, Lord West, whose descendants succeeded to the title of La Warr.

Sir Thomas West, the earliest one traced of this line, was knighted in 1326 in the reign of Edward II. He served in Flanders and Brittany in the reign of Edward III and for his services was created a Baron. He was known as Thomas de West and was probably from County Devon where Wests have been found down to the present time. In 1328 he married Eleanor (Alianore), the daughter of Sir John de Cantelupe of County Devon, and they were the parents of a son, Thomas West, who succeeded him when he died in 1344.

Sir Thomas West, 2d Baron, had his holdings at Hempston, Cantelupe. He fought at the battle of Crecy, and served both Edward III and Richard II. He married Alice, daughter of Reginald Fitz-Herbert of County Worcester and had a son,

Sir Thomas West, who was knighted in 1399. He married Joan, half-sister and heiress of Thomas 5th Baron De La Warr, and daughter of Roger 3d Baron De La Warr. From this point the two lines are merged into one, the West family taking the title Baron De La Warr. The eldest son of Joan De La Warr and Sir Thomas West,

Thomas, Lord De La Warr, was fourteen when his father died in 1405. He would have been the 4th Baron West but was known as the 5th Baron De La Warr. He served in the Agincourt campaign in the reign of Henry V. He married Ida, daughter of Almaric de St. Amand but died Sept. 30, 1415, without issue. He had two brothers, Reginald and John West, and was succeeded by

Reginald, Lord De La Warr, his second brother. In the reign of Henry VI, Reginald, the 6th Baron, made two pilgrimages to the Holy Land. He was twice married: 1st to Margaret Thorley who died in 1433; 2d to Eleanor, the daughter of Henry Percy, Earl of Northumberland. He was the father of: 1. Richard West: 2. John West, who married Agnes Iveson and had children: 3. Margaret West, who married Sir Thomas Erpingham of Sussex; 4. Anne West, who married Sir Thomas Berkeley of Gloucestershire, whose descendant, John Berkeley, came to Virginia in 1620; 5. Mary West, who married Roger Leuknore of Sussex; and 6. Catherine West, who married Roger, Lord Hungerford. The eldest son succeeded to the title on the death of his father, Aug. 27, 1451.

Richard, Lord De La Warr, the 7th Baron, fought for the House of Lancaster in the War of the Roses. He married: 1st Catherine, daughter of Robert, Lord Hungerford, and was the father of: 1. Thomas West; 2. John West; 3. Reginald West, a sub-deacon in Wells Cathedral; 4. Edward West; 5. Richard West, a Franciscan friar; 6. Francis West; 7. Margaret West who married Sir Nicholas Strelly; 8. Margery West, a nun; 9. Alice West, a nun. On his death, Mar. 10, 1475/6 at the age of 45, Richard was succeeded by his eldest son,

Thomas, Lord De La Warr, who was born about 1457 and died 1525. He was created Knight of the Bath in the reign of Henry VII and Knight of the Garter by Henry VIII and attended the King at the Field of the Cloth of Gold. This 8th Baron De La Warr married: 1st Elizabeth, the daughter of Hugh Mortimer of Southampton County; and 2d Elizabeth, the daughter of Sir Roger Copley of Sussex. He and Elizabeth Mortimer were the parents of: 1. Thomas, who succeeded to the title; 2. William, who died childless; 3. Eleanor West, who married Sir Edward Guilford of Kent and was the grandmother of Earl Leicester (Elizabeth's favorite); 4. Dorothy West, who married Sir Henry Owen; 5. Elizabeth West, who married Charles Somerset, Earl of Worcester; 6. Anne West, who married

Thomas, Lord Clinton. By his 2d marriage to Eleanor Copley, he was the father of: 1. Sir Owen West, who married Mary, the daughter of Sir George Guilford and had Mary and Anne West only; 2. Sir George West of Sussex who died 1588; 3. Leonard West, the youngest, of Gloucester County who married Barbara, daughter of William Gascoigne of Sussex. The children of Leonard West and Barbara were: Thomas, William, John, Marie, Simon, Margaret and Anne. All these died young except John who lived in County Oxford. (See Burke's Landed Gentry for the Wests of Alscot Park.)

Thomas, Lord De La Warr, who succeeded his father in 1525 and became the 9th Baron, married Elizabeth, daughter of Sir John Bonville, and died childless in 1554. He was succeeded by his nephew, the son of Sir George West,

William, Lord De La Warr, who had been named as heir by his uncle but who was debarred from the succession for attempting to poison him. Later, however, for services to the King, William was created anew Lord De La Warr. His brother was Sir Thomas West of Seltwood and his sister was Margaret West who married Thomas Arundel. William married Elizabeth Strange and was the father of: 1. Thomas who married Anne Knolles or Knollys (her mother was first cousin of Queen Elizabeth); 2. Jane West (who married, 1st Thomas Weynman, 2d James Cressy, 3d, Sir Thomas Tasburg, and 4th, Rolph Sheldon); 3. Elizabeth West who married Richard Blount, of Suffolk County; 4. Mary West, who died unmarried. William, the 1st Lord De La Warr of the new line died in 1595 and was succeeded by his eldest son,

Thomas, Lord De La Warr, the 2d Baron, who was born in 1577 and died 1601/2. He and his wife, Anne Knollys became the progenitors of a large number of descendants, many of whom claim America as their home. They are said to have had twelve children, ten of whom are known: Thomas West; Robert West (no issue); Capt. Francis West; Letitia West who married Henry Laidlow; Capt. Nathaniel West; Elizabeth West who married Sir Robert Pelham; Penelope West who married

Herbert Pelham; Eleanor West who married Sir William Savage; Anne West who married John Pelott; Capt. John West. Thomas West was succeeded by his eldest son,

Thomas, Lord De La Warr, first governor of Virginia. He was born July 9, 1557 and was married at St. Dunstan's in the West, Nov. 25, 1596 to Cecily, daughter of Sir Thomas Shirley of Sussex. This 3d Lord De La Warr was made Governor of Virginia in 1609 and he owned large grants called Shirley and Westover but these had passed out of the possession of his descendants long before the colonial mansions of these names, now in existence, had been built. He died on his third voyage from England, off the coast of Delaware, and was succeeded by his eldest son, Henry who became 4th Lord De La Warr. Thomas' children remained in England.

Henry, Lord De La Warr was born Oct. 3, 1603 and died June 1, 1628. He married Isabella, daughter of Sir Thomas Edmunds in March, 1624/5. He was succeeded by his son,

Charles, Lord De La Warr, 5th heir to the title, who was born in Feb., 1625/6. He died Dec. 22, 1687. His wife was Anne Wild whom he married Sept. 25, 1642. He was succeeded by

John, Lord De La Warr, who married Margaret Freeman in June, 1691. He died May 26, 1723 and was succeeded by

John, Lord De La Warr who was created an Earl. He was born Apr. 4, 1693 and married in 1721 Charlotte McCarthy. He was Governor of New York in 1737. He had three sons: John, George Augustus and Harry; and two daughters. At his death in 1766, he was succeeded by

John, Lord De La Warr, the 2d Earl who was born in 1729 and married Mary Wynyard Aug. 8, 1756. They were the parents of three sons: William Augustus, the 3d Earl, who died 1783 without issue; John Richard, the 4th Earl who married Catherine Lyle in 1783; and Frederick, born in 1767, who had one daughter only. John Richard was succeeded by George John West, 5th Earl. This line can be traced to the present time in Burke's Peerage. Lord

Sackville-West, once British Minister to the United States belonged to this line of the De La Warrs.

CHAPTER IV

AMERICAN DESCENDANTS OF THE DE LA WARRS

THOMAS WEST, 3rd Lord De La Warr and first Governor of Virginia, was born July 9, 1577. He had several children who remained in England, but it is not unlikely that some of their descendants came to the Colonies at a later date. From 1608 to his death, Lord De La Warr was active in promoting settlements in the New World. He died June 7, 1618, while making his third voyage to America, and was buried at sea.

Capt. Francis West was born October 28, 1586, and came to Virginia about 1608. He was a member of the Council in 1609 and again served from 1619 to 1633. He was living on his plantation at Westover, about a mile from Berkeley Hundred, in 1622, but he seems to have been in New England for a few months the next year. However, in 1624, he was again living in Virginia at "West and Shirley Hundred Island." The next year he was at Elizabeth City, where the widow of his brother, Nathaniel, and her infant son were living (Virginia Magazine, Vol. 2, p. 308.)

Capt. Francis West first married in England, Margaret, the widow of Edward Blayney; and during the time he was Governor of Virginia, from 1627 to 1629, he married, as his second wife, Temperance Flowerdew, widow of Sir George Yeardley. They had no children, but she was the mother of Argoll, Francis, and Elizabeth Yeardley. (Virginia Magazine, Vol. 25, p. 208.) She died 1629/30 and Captain West married Jane, the daughter of Sir Henry Davey.

Captain West died in 1634, leaving a wife, Jane, in England, and a son, Francis, of whom nothing further is known. (Virginia Magazine, Vol. 11, p. 359.) However, there will be included in this book an account of a New England line of Wests who are thought by some to be descended from this Francis.

Capt. Nathaniel West, also connected with the early history of our Colonies, was born in 1592 and came to America about 1620. He established himself near his brother and in 1622 had a plantation in Westover Hundred. He married Frances Hinton who after his death in 1623 married, as her second husband, Francis Piersey. This was about 1635 and after his death she married as her third husband, Col. Samuel Matthews. (Tyler's Hist. Mag., Vol. 2, pp. 115-16.)

Capt. Nathaniel West and Frances Hinton had one son, Nathaniel West, of whom nothing is known. It is an interesting fact, however, that some of the West families living in Norfolk County and in the counties adjoining have a family tradition of descent from one Nathaniel West, an early Colonist of the Lord De La Warr line.

Capt. John West, the twelfth child of Sir Thomas West and Anne Knollys, was born December 14, 1590. Like his brothers, he came to the Colonies early and occupied a plantation in Westover Hundred. He was a member of the Colonial Council in 1631 and served as Governor of Virginia from 1635 to 1637. Capt. John West married Anne ——— and they were the parents of one child only, who was later known as Lieut. Col. John West, Jr., the first white child born at Chiscayach on the York River. Because of this fact, Captain West received a grant of two thousand acres of land. Later he received 1,550 acres in York County and two large grants in Gloucester County. One of these was regranted to his son.

The early records of Virginia are filled with mention of Governor John West and he left more impression on the Colony than any of his brothers. (Virginia Magazine, Vol. 1, p. 423.) Governor West died in 1659 in that part of New Kent County, which is now King William County.

Lieut. Col. John West, Jr., of West Point, the son of Governor John West and Anne, was born in what is now King William County, in 1633, and died in 1689. He gradually ascended in military rank and was made a captain in 1662, a major in 1667, and a lieutenant colonel in 1673. Ths may help to identify him in different years, as there were many John Wests at this time, but a different military title did not necessarily signify a different John West. He sat as colonel in the Court Martial which tried Bacon after his rebellion.

Col. John West married Unity Croshaw, of St. John's Parish, in New Kent County, about 1667. He and his family were released from tax paying on account of the great service rendered Virginia by the noble family of West. We find land patented to one John West in Charles City County in 1669. This was probably our Col. John West. He and Unity Croshaw were the parents of four known children:

1. Capt. Thomas West, b. about 1670
2. Capt. Nathaniel West, b. about 1672
3. Col. John West of West Point, b. about 1676
4. Anne West

1. Capt. Thomas West, the son of Col. John West and Unity Croshaw, was born about 1670. The name of his wife is not definitely known but it is sometimes given as Agnes ———. They were the parents of several children but the names of the following only are known:

5. Nathaniel West
6. Col. Francis West
7. Thomas West of West Point
8. Agnes West

2. Capt. Nathaniel West, son of Col. John West and Unity Croshaw, was born about 1672 in New Kent County, and was still living in 1723 in King William County, Virginia. He married Martha Woodward, the widow of Gideon Macon, and she, after the death of Captain West, married Mr. Bigger, as her third husband. Capt. Nathaniel West and Martha were the parents of one child only. (Tyler's Historical Magazine, Vol. 6, pp. 116-19.)

9. Unity West

3. Col. John West, of West Point, the son of Col. John West and Unity Croshaw, was born about 1676 in what is now King William County. He appears on the quit rent rolls of this county in 1704, as do his brothers Capt. Nathaniel and Capt. Thomas West. The names of Nathaniel and Giles West also appear on the quit rent rolls of New Kent County for 1704. (Wertenbaker's Planters of Colonial Virginia, pp. 220, 224.) The marriage of John West to Judith Armistead, of Elizabeth City County, Virginia, took place October 15, 1698. She later married Thomas Butts. John West and Judith were the parents of one child only:

10. Charles West

William County and married Henry Fox. They were the parents of one child:

11. Anne Fox

5. Nathaniel West, the son of Capt. Thomas West and Agnes ———, had a daughter, Martha, who married Orlando Jones in 1707 in King William County. Nathaniel's will was dated 1727. (Henning, Vol. 5, p. 297.)
6. Col. Francis West, the son of Capt. Thomas West and Agnes ———, of King William County, married Jane Cole, the daughter of Col. William Cole, of Warwick County, Virginia. She had married 1st, Col. Nathaniel Claiborne and 2nd, Stephen Bingham. (Virginia Magazine, Vol. 2, p. 383.) Col. Francis West and Jane Cole were the parents of:

12. Col. William West b. about 1735
13. Agnes West
14. Susanna West b. 1744
15. Daughter

7. Thomas West, of West Point, the son of Capt. Thomas West and Agnes ———, married Martha Cole, the sister of Jane Cole, and was the father of one known son, Col. John West, of West Point. In the family book, "Winston of Virginia and Allied Families," by Clayton Torrence, p. 254, is the statement taken from the Bible of Richard Gregory that Mary Cole married a Mr. West, by whom she had two sons, John and Thomas West. We have no record of the later history of Thomas.

After the death of Thomas West, of West Point, his wife, Martha or Mary Cole, married Ferdinand Leigh. Thomas West and Martha were the parents of:

16. Col. John West of West Point b. 1720/25

8. Agnes West, the daughter of Capt. Thomas West and Agnes ———, was born about 1705. She married Richard Gregory and the following children are given in the Winston Family book:

17. Roger Gregory b. 1729
18. Richard Gregory
19. West Gregory
20. Frances Gregory
21. Christiana Gregory
22. Agnes Gregory
23. Unity Gregory

9. Unity West, the daughter of Capt. Nathaniel West and Martha Woodward, was born about 1695 and died before 1754. She married William Dandridge, who died in 1719, and they were the parents of several children who became the ancestors of the well-known Dandridge families of Virginia. Their children included:

24. Nathaniel West Dandridge
25. Martha Dandridge
26. Elizabeth Dandridge
27. Mary Dandridge

10. Charles West, the only child of John West and Judith Armistead, died without issue. By his will of 1734, he left the plantation of West Point to his cousin, Thomas West. (Virginia Magazine, Vol. 8, p. 385.)

11. Anne Fox, the only child of Anne West and Henry Fox, married Capt. Thomas Claiborne as his third wife. Their descendants can be found in a history of the Claiborne family.

12. Col. William West, the son of Col. Francis West, of King William County and Jane Cole Claiborne, was born about 1735 and married in 1755, Letitia Martin. There has been some discussion in early days of the identity of Letitia Martin. (Richmond Despatch of 1907 and Stanards' Critic of 1889.) An old family Bible is said to contain the following data: George Martin b. 1708 m. Susanna West. Their children were George Martin b. 1731, Elizabeth Martin b. 1733, Lotis Martin b. 1735, and others. This "Lotis" has been the subject of question. The present writer has no information whatever upon the subject, but merely suggests that if "Lotis" is to be read "Letitia," the difference in spelling may arise from the fact that in olden times, the name "Lettice" rather than "Letitia" was common, and "Lotis" might easily be misread or miswritten for "Letis." Also, it is not at all certain that Capt. Thomas West and Agnes had only four children, and there may have been another, Susanna West, who did marry a George Martin. The children of Col. William West and Letitia Martin were:

    28. Robert West
    29. Thomas West
    30. George West
    31. William West

14. Susanna West, the daughter of Col. Francis West of King William County, and Jane Cole Claiborne,

15. It has been said that Col. Francis West and Jane Cole Claiborne were the parents also of another daughter who married General Langhorne.

16. Col. John West, of West Point, was the son of Thomas West and Martha Cole. He was a member of the House of Burgesses from 1756 to 1759 and was a vestryman of St. John's Parish in King William County. It is thought he married Elizabeth Seaton about 1750, though there is some discussion about the identity of his wife. (Stanard's Critic, p. 96, and Virginia Magazine, Vol. 25, p. 432.) Col. John West moved to a plantation along the James River about 1771 and he, as an ardent Tory, was very much irritated with his sons, who took sides with the Patriots during the Revolution. It is also said that younger members of the West family withdrew from the Episcopal Church about this time, as a protest against England. Col. John West and his wife were the parents of:

From the latter was descended Westmoreland Davis, his grandson, the Governor of Virginia. (Burgess' Virginia Soldiers of 1776, Vol. 2, p. 680.)

144. Richard Evelyn Byrd, the son of Eleanor Bolling Flood and Richard E. Byrd, was born in Winchester, Virginia, October 25, 1888. Commander Byrd has a long list of achievements to his credit in exploration, and was in charge of the second airplane to cross the Atlantic Ocean. His record for daring, ingenuity, and initiative calls to mind the exploits of his early ancestors, the De La Warrs. Commander Byrd made his first voyage around the world, alone, at the age of twelve. On January 20, 1915, Richard E. Byrd married Marie D. Ames, of Boston, Mass. and, they are the parents of:

149. Eva Byrd
150. Catherine Byrd
151. Richard Byrd, Jr.

Much of this material was taken from the Critic of June 2, 1889. The same matter may be found in Burgess' Revolutionary Soldiers, Vol. 2, p. 877, and is much easier of access. New material has been added.

CHAPTER V

DESCENDANTS OF ANTHONY WEST OF ACCOMAC COUNTY, VIRGINIA

ANTHONY WEST, the progenitor of this line came to the Colonies in 1622, in the "James," according to Hotten; but the land patent taken out by Capt. Randall Herle for the transportation of Anthony, John, Catherine, and Ann West, bears the date of 1649. This, however, may be the date of its recording, which was sometimes delayed two generations. Whether this Anthony came by himself to the Eastern Shore of Virginia, or had relatives in the nearby sections of Maryland, has not been established, but undoubtedly the John and Thomas West, who are found in Somerset County, Maryland, in the early years of 1700, were either descended from a son of his whose name is not recorded in his will, or they were nephews or cousins, for the name Anthony occurs in this Somerset branch.

The will of Anthony West was probated in May, 1652. The names of only three of his children are definitely known:

1. Catherine West
2. Ann West
3. Lieut. Col. John West

1. Catherine West, daughter of of Anthony West and his wife, Ann, married 1st, Ralph Barlow; 2nd, Col. Charles Scarburgh, who was born in 1702. She was his third wife.

2. Ann West, daughter of Anthony West and his wife, Ann, was the second wife of Col. Charles Scarburgh.

3. Lieut. Col. John West, son of Anthony West and his wife, Ann, was born in 1638 and died May 27, 1702. He married Matilda Scarburgh, who died Jan. 3, 1721. His will was filed in Northampton County in 1703, and in it he mentions his children by name. He gave his three daughters, Matilda, Mary and Jean, the "ridge land without the neck where son Anthony lives."

He devised to his son, Benoni, one-half of "Deep Creek Mill," and the other half of this mill he gave to his three sons, John the Elder, John the Younger, and Jonathan. He mentions some of his grandchildren and names his wife, Matilda, executrix. Lieut. Col. John West and Matilda Scarburgh were the parents of:

4. Anthony West
5. Alexander West
6. John the Elder
7. Benoni West
8. Jonathan West
9. Matilda West
10. Frances West
11. John the Younger
12. Sarah West
13. Catherine West
14. Mary West
15. Anne West
16. Scarburgh West

4. Anthony West, son of Lieut. Col. John West and Matilda Scarburgh, was born in Accomac County, Virginia, and died there in 1717. He resided on Nandua Creek and owned half of Tangier Island, in Chesapeake Bay, which had been devised him by his father. By his will he gave to his son, John, the home plantation on the south side of Nandua Creek and to his son, Anthony, the other half of his Nandua land. To each one of them he also gave one-half of his part of Tangier Island. He married Elizabeth Rowles, who died in 1753, and they were the parents of:

17. John West
18. Anthony West
19. Matilda West
20. Mary Scarburgh West
21. Jane West

5. Alexander West, son of Lieut. Col. John West and Matilda Scarburgh, was born in Accomac County, Virginia, in about 1670. His will was probated Jan. 3, 1727. The land which descends through this branch lies at Metomkin. In 1726 Alexander had given his son, Major West, 200 acres of land at Metomkin, and in his will he left 100 acres at Metomkin to his wife, Mary Hurtley, who was a widow when he married her. His children are those by his first wife:

22. John West
23. Scarburgh West
24. Major West
25. Mary West
26. Edmund West

6. John West the Elder, son of Lieut. Col. John West and Matilda Scarburgh, was born in Accomac County, Virginia, and died in 1706. He left bequests to his nephews, Anthony and John West; and others. He speaks of his deceased father as Col. John West.

7. Benoni West, son of Lieut. Col. John West and Matilda Scarburgh, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. He married Sarah Snead and died without issue. His name does not appear in succeeding generations in the male line in Accomac, but a Benoni West does appear in Garrard County, Kentucky, in the census of 1820 and 1830.

8. Jonathan West, son of Lieut. Col. John West and Matilda Scarburgh, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. He married Rachel ———, and died in 1727 without issue. His widow married Samuel Spooner, a surgeon of Gloucester County, Virginia. In 1724 Jonathan had made gifts to various relatives, and by his will he left his wife, Rachel, Pumico Island containing 500 acres; and 50 acres called the Prizeing house on Checonesseck Creek. He had inherited from his father one-sixth of Deep Creek Mill, and another one-sixth from his brother, John the Elder. This one-third of the mill he sold in 1723 to John West, of Accomac.

9. Matilda West, daughter of Lieut. Col. John West and Matilda Scarburgh, was born in Accomac County, Virginia, and died there in 1722. She married Hon. John Wise, who died in 1717. They were the parents of Mary Cade Wise and John Wise, whose descendants are fully traced in a Wise Family book by Hon. Jennings Cropper Wise.

10. Frances West, daughter of Lieut. Col. John West and Matilda Scarburgh, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. She married Mr. Kellam and they were the parents of a son, Saram Kellam.

11. Maj. John West the Younger, son of Lieut. Col. John West and Matilda Scarburgh, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. He is perhaps the best known of the early descendants of Anthony and Anne West. To distinguish him, he was spoken of as Maj. John West of Northampton. He disposed of his land at Pungoteague which he owned at the time of his grandfather's death, and took up his residence at Checonesseck. His will was probated in Northampton County in 1719. To his son, Argoll Yeardley, he left the home plantation of 350 acres. To his son, John, he gave 150 acres in Accomac County; and to his son, Thorogood, two plantations in Accomac, containing 250 acres. He made bequests to his wife and the rest of his children. He was twice married, 1st, to Frances Yeardley, the daughter of Argoll Yeardley. His father was said to be a cousin of Governor John West of Virginia, and there is abundant evidence of the intimacy of the two lines though no one has seemed to find actual proof of blood relationship. However, Maj. John West the Younger, the grandson of Anthony West, married the step-granddaughter of Gov. John West, her grandmother being Lady Frances Yeardley, wife of Governor West. Connection with the De La Warr line was claimed many years ago when a tombstone, found over Maj. Charles West's grave in Onancock, was said to bear the De La Warr arms, but the writer has been reliably informed that if that were the case, the symbol has now disappeared due to the ravages of time. Maj. John West and Frances Yeardley were the parents of:

27. Anthony West
28. Argoll Yeardley West
29. Joseph West
30. Matilda West

By his second marriage to Josepha Maria Godwin, Maj. John West left the following heirs:

31. John West
32. Thorogood West
33. Sarah West
34. Ann J. West
35. Jemima West
36. Charles West

Maj. John West inherited from his father, Lieut. Col. John West, one-sixth of Deep Creek mill. This descended to his son, John West, of Northampton, who sold it in 1724 to John West of Accomac.

12. Sarah West, daughter of Lieut. Col. John West and Matilda Scarburgh, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. She married Col. Tully Robinson, and they were the parents of:

37. West Robinson
38. Elizabeth Robinson
39. Scarburgh Robinson
40. Sarah Robinson
41. Susanna Robinson

13. Catherine West, daughter of Lieut. Col. John West and Matilda Scarburgh, was born in Accomac County, Va. She married Charles Snead.

14. Mary West, daughter of Lieut. Col. John West and Matilda Scarburgh, was born in Accomac County, Va. She married 1st., Robert Snead; and 2nd., William Burton, Sr.

15. Anne West, daughter of Lieut. Col. John West and Matilda Scarburgh, was born about 1688 in Accomac County, Virginia. She married 1st, Thomas Sparrow. They had a daughter, Anne, and a son, Scarburgh Sparrow, who lived in Anne Arundel County. The latter bought his mother's interest in her Accomac lands. Anne West married 2nd, William Sellman, of Anne Arundel County, who was born in 1689.

16. Scarburgh West, daughter of Lieut. Col. John West and Matilda Scarburgh, was born in Accomac County, Virginia, about 1690. She married Thomas Harding and they moved to North Carolina where they both died. Their children were brought back to relatives in Princess Anne County, where they made their home with William Robinson Smith.

17. John West, son of Anthony West and Elizabeth Rowles, was born in 1696, in Accomac County, Virginia. He is known as John West of Andua, and the name of his wife is unknown. His will was probated Nov. 30, 1773, by the terms of which he gave his son, Anthony, a plantation on Deep Creek; and his son, John, land on Merry Branch. His part of one-half of Tangier Island, which he inherited, was evidently given to Anthony, who bequeaths it to his three sons, but it is not mentioned in the will of John of Andua. He was the father of:

    42. Anthony West
    43. John West
    44. Agnes West
    45. Rachel West
    46. Nancy West
    47. Susanna West
    48. Daughter
    49. Abel West

18. Anthony West, son of Anthony West and Elizabeth Rowles, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. He married Comfort Rodgers. In his will, which was probated Nov. 24, 1778, he mentions both children and grandchildren. To his son, John, he gave the dwelling plantation of 300 acres at Andua; to Richard, the plantation where he (Richard) was then living. Anthony and Comfort were the parents of:

50. John West
51. Ann West
52. Matilda West
53. Comfort West
54. Elizabeth West
55. Richard West
56. Jeremiah West

19. Matilda West, daughter of Anthony West and Elizabeth Rowles, was born in Accomac County, Virginia, and married Jacob Rodgers, probably a relative.

20. Mary Scarburgh West, daughter of Anthony West and Elizabeth Rowles, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. She married Nathaniel Bell and among their children was:

57. Mary Bell

21. Jane West (Jean), daughter of Anthony West and Elizabeth Rowles, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. She married Nathaniel Rodgers.

22. John West of Accomac, eldest son of Alexander West, of Metomkin, was born about 1690. He had inherited from his uncle, Benoni, one-half of Deep Creek mill. In 1723 he purchased one-third of the mill from his uncle, Jonathan, and in 1724 he had bought from his cousin, John West, of Northampton, one-sixth of the mill, so that finally he was in possession of all of it. In 1737 he sold one-half of the mill to John Smith. His will was probated Jan. 28, 1755. His wife, Agnes Burton, who died in 1760, mentions a daughter, Agnes Willett. John West and Agnes Burton were the parents of:

58. John West
59. Major West
60. Agnes West
61. Ann West
62. Scarburgh West
63. Catherine West
64. Elizabeth West
65. Comfort West
66. Susanna West

23. Scarburgh West, son of Alexander West, of Metomkin, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. His will was probated Apr. 29, 1760, and he left the following children:

67. Elizabeth West
68. Mary West
69. Daughter
70. Edmund West
71. Alexander West
72. Philip Parker West
73. Parker West
74. Ada West
75. Benjamin West

24. Major West, son of Alexander West, of Metomkin, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. He received 200 acres of land from his father as a gift in 1726. In case he had no heirs this was to descend to his sister, Mary, and then to his brother, Scarburgh. He was under 21 in 1714 and he may have just reached his majority in 1726. We have no further record of him but he may have been the father of Benjamin West, who has been placed in the family of his brother, Scarburgh.

26. Edmund West, son of Alexander West, of Metomkin, is mentioned just once in the records, and that is in a chancery suit brought in 1714 by his oldest brother, John, against their grandmother, Matilda.

Alexander West entered into this suit, also, in behalf of his sons, Major and Edmund, who were under age. In 1762 an Edmund West, of Sussex County in Pennsylvania, gave bond to Bartholomew Taylor that he would give the said Taylor possession of a tract of land during Edmund's lifetime. This may have been Edmund West of Metomkin, which lies very near Sussex County, now in Delaware.

27. Anthony West, the son of Major John West, the Younger, and Frances Yeardley, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. His name does not appear in his father's will but he had been mentioned by his grandfather and he had received a bequest from his uncle, John the Elder. The name of one child only is known:

76. John The Younger

28. Argoll Yeardley West, son of Major John West the Younger and Frances Yeardley, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. He married Comfort ———, and lived at Pungoteague. This was the plantation received for that inherited from his father. He died in 1736 and left these children:

77. John West
78. Sarah Yeardley West
79. Anne West

29. Joseph West, son of Maj. John West the Younger and Frances Yeardley, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. He does not appear in the court records and was left one shilling by the terms of his father's will. He either had already received his portion, had inherited from a relative, or possessed a goodly estate of his own. The theory that he may have been the Joseph West who appeared in Prince George's County, Maryland, in 1695, has some slight grounds for consideration.

31. John West, Sr., of Northampton, son of Major John West the Younger, and Josepha M. Godwin, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. He later moved to Northampton County where he died. His wife was Anne Powell, who married Daniel Cutler as her second husband. John West appears several times in court records. He sold his share of Deep Creek mill to his cousin, John West, of Accomac; he exchanged with his brother, Argoll Yeardley West, in 1726, 250 acres on the north side of Pungoteague for 350 acres in Northampton County; and in 1727 he conveyed to Isaac Smith 80 acres on the north side of Pungoteague. In 1729 he disposed of 200 acres more at the same place, inherited from his brother,Thorogood. His will was probated in 1730 and he gave his son, Jonathan, land at Checonnesseck, which was to pass to Jonathan's wife for life if there were no heirs. This son seems to have been the only child.

    80. Jonathan West

32. Thorogood West, son of Major John West the Younger and Josepha M. Godwin, was born in Accomac County, Virginia, and died unmarried in 1729.

33. Sarah West, daughter of Major John West the Younger and Josepha M. Godwin, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. She married Isaac Smith and they were the parents of:

    81. John Smith
    82. Sarah Smith
    83. Anne Smith
    84. Thorogood Smith

34. Anna J. West, daughter of Major John West the Younger and Josepha M. Godwin, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. She married 1st, Thomas Clapton and 2nd, Mr. Chambers.

35. Jemima West, daughter of Major John West the Younger and Josepha M. Godwin, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. She married a Mr. Booth.

36. Charles West, son of Major John West the Younger and Josepha M. Godwin, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. He married Elizabeth ———, who survived him. He died in 1757/8, without issue. A long list of legatees appears in his will.

37. West Robinson, daughter of Sarah West and Col. Tully Robinson, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. She married George Smith of Princess Anne County, Virginia.

38. Elizabeth Robinson, daughter of Sarah West and Col. Tully Robinson, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. She married John Smith, of Princess Anne County. They later moved to Accomac County.

39. Scarburgh Robinson, daughter of Sarah West and Col. Tully Robinson, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. She married John Wise of the same county.

40. Sarah Robinson, daughter of Sarah West and Col. Tully Robinson, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. She married Benoni Smith, of Princess Anne County.

41. Susanna Robinson, daughter of Sarah West and Col. Tully Robinson, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. She married William McClanahan, of Princess Anne County.

42. Anthony West, son of John West of Andua, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. He married Eleanor ———. His will was probated Feb. 23, 1795, and by its terms he devised to his brother, Abel, 500 acres on Andua Creek, and also his interest in the land which Susanna West had received from Henry Gascoigne. To his son, Revell, he gave his home place on Deer Creek with the stipulation that he was to pay a sum of money to each of his brothers and sisters. He left his part of Tangier Island to his three sons, George, John and Isaac. His wife died in 1804. They were the parents of:

85. Revell West
86. George West
87. John West
88. Anthony West
89. Anne West
90. Elizabeth West
91. Agnes West
92. Susanna West
93. Margaret West
94. Rachel West
95. Isaac West

43. John West, of Andua, son of John West, of Andua, died in 1805, in Accomac County, Virginia, where he was born. He was unmarried and bequeathed to his brother, Abel, land on Deep Branch and gave 200 acres on Merry Branch to his ~~sister~~ niece, Margaret, and brother, Isaac, which land was to go later to Isaac's son, John West.

44. Agnes West, daughter of John West, of Andua, was born in Accomac County, Virginia, and her will was probated there in 1804. She made a bequest to her brother, Abel, and gave the balance of her estate to her other brothers and sisters.

45. Rachel West, daughter of John West of Andua, married Mr. Gascoigne. She spent her life in Accomac County and was named a legatee in the wills of her sisters, Agnes and Nancy.

46. Nancy West, daughter of John West of Andua, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. Her will was probated there in 1806. She made her brother, Abel, residuary legatee of her estate. She left her clothing to be divided among Rachel Gascoigne, Anne Kellam, Elizabeth Harmanson, Anne Joynes and Charlotte Bayley.

47. Susanna West, daughter of John West of Andua, was born in Accomac County, Va. There is no record of her will but she may have married Matthew Harmanson as Elizabeth Harmanson; the daughter of Matthew, is repeatedly mentioned in the wills of this family, and seems to be a niece.

48. A daughter of John West of Andua, married Mr. Rowles. The children of this marriage were:

    96. Jonathan Rowles
    97. Anne Rowles
    98. Elizabeth Rowles

49. Abel West, son of John West of Andua, spent his life in Accomac County, Virginia. He was not mentioned in his father's will and seems to have been the youngest in the family. He received 500 acres on Andua Creek and land on Merry Branch from his brother, Anthony; and his brother, John, left him land on Deep Creek. He also inherited from his sisters. It is thought he married a Miss Bayley. They had no children. When he died in 1816, he left a large tract of land on Deep Creek to the heirs of Revell West, his nephew. They were the direct descendants of his brother, Anthony, from whom he had inherited this land.

50. John West, son of Anthony West and Comfort Rodgers, made his home in Accomac County, Virginia. He inherited his father's home plantation of 300 acres at Andua and evidently part of Tangier Island, for he bequeaths these two pieces of land to his son, Anthony, by his will which was probated in 1799. The name of his wife is unknown. He left these children:

    99. Anthony West
    100. Catherine West
    101. Comfort West
    102. Daughter

    104. Nathaniel Fosque

54. Elizabeth West, daughter of Anthony West and Comfort Rodgers, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. She married Mr. Riley. Two of their children were:

108. William Riley
109. Thomas Riley

55. Richard West, son of Anthony West and Comfort Rodgers, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. In 1778 he inherited from his father the plantation upon which he was then living, but it may not have been the same one where he died. This latter he gave to his son, Salathiel West, by his will which was probated in 1787. Richard West married Anne Milby and they were the parents of:

110. Salathiel Milby West
111. Comfort West
112. Rachel West
113. Charles West
114. Abel West
115. Solomon West

56. Jeremiah West, son of Anthony West and Comfort Rodgers, was born in Accomac County, Virginia, and died there n 1793. An account was rendered of his estate in 1800 and the following children shared in the division:

116. Polly West
117. Fannie West
118. Sarah West
119. Anne West
120. William West
121. John West

57. Mary Bell, daughter of Mary Scarboro West and Nathaniel Bell, born in Accomac County, married Eyre Stockley. Anne Stockley, born in 1739, was their daughter. She married, in 1761, Capt. Thomas Upsher, and died Oct. 22, 1817. A daughter of this marriage was Anne Stockley Upsher, who married John Teackle. Their son, Thomas Upsher Teackle, married Emma Jane Wilson and the daughter of this marriage, Mary W. Teackle, married James Upsher Dennis. Their son, James T. Dennis, was born in 1865. (Society of Colonial Wars of Maryland.)

59. Major West, son of John West of Accomac, and Agnes Burton, born in Accomac County, Virginia, was under 21 in 1754 when his father died. There is no record of his estate but that of his son, John, was divided in 1814. What other children he had, if any, we do not know. He left:

122. John West

60. Agnes West, daughter of John West, of Accomac, and Agnes Burton, married Jonathan Willett.

61. Anne West, daughter of John West, of Accomac, and Agnes Burton, married Smith Bunting.

62. Scarburgh West, daughter of John West, of Accomac, and Agnes Burton, married Garrett Topping.

66. Susanna West, daughter of John West, of Accomac, and Agnes Burton, married Mr. Scott.

67. Elizabeth West, daughter of Scarburgh West, lived in Accomac County, and married Mr. Miles.

68. Mary West, daughter of Scarburgh West, lived in Accomac County, and married Mr. Bunting.

69. A daughter of Scarburgh West married Mr. Dunton and they were the parents of the following:

124. Leah Dunton
125. Dealy Dunton
126. Edmund Dunton

70. Edmund West, son of Scarburgh West, is not mentioned in Accomac County records, but according to McWhorter, in "Border Settlers," p. 141, one Edmund West, Sr., came to Lewis County, Virginia, from Accomac County in 1773. He is also mentioned in the "History of Lewis County," by Edward Smith, p. 56. He built West's Fort, was a great Indian fighter and stalwart pioneer. He had a number of children, among them Edmund West, who married Anne Hacker, Feb. 15, 1787; Charles West, Alexander West and several daughters. Alexander West was born in Accomac County, Aug. 11, 1760, and died in Lewis County, Virginia, Dec. 14, 1850. He married in June, 1834, his second wife, Mary Straley. He had a son, John West, who married Sallie Hurst. (History of Harrison County, Virginia, p. 382.) Marriage records of this family include Elizabeth West, married to John Reger, June 19, 1788; Eleazer West, married to Anne Davison, Oct. 29, 1789; Edmund West, married to Catherine Ellsworth, June 29, 1791; Ada West, married to William Hacker, Feb. 25, 1791; Olive West, married to George Seldon, in 1795.

If it was Edmund West, the son of Scarburgh, who went to Accomac County in 1773, he must have retained property in Accomac because there was an administration of the estate of one Edmund West in Accomac in 1792. It is possible that the Edmund who went to Lewis County was the grandson of Scarburgh.

71. Alexander West, son of Scarburgh, lived at Metomkin, in Accomac County, Virginia. He inherited one-half of his father's land in 1760, and he himself died the next year, 1761. He left to his wife, Judith, who died in 1767, this land during her lifetime, and then it was to descend to their daughters:

127. Anne West
128. Rachel West
129. Abigail West

72. Philip Parker West, son of Scarburgh West, lived at Metomkin, Accomac County, Virginia. He married Elizabeth ———, who is mentioned in his will, probated in 1796. They were the parents of:

130. Scarburgh West
131. Alexander West
132. Philip Parker West
133. John West
134. Leah West
135. Ada West
136. Mary West

73. Parker West, son of Scarburgh West, died at Metomkin, unmarried. He left his estate to his sister, Ada, and brothers, Alexander and Philip Parker West.

75. Benjamin West, who died in 1775 in Accomac County, appears in the records without definite connection with any ancestor, but taking into consideration all internal evidence he seems to be the son of Edmund, John, Major, or Scarburgh West because he belongs to the line at Metomkin. Of these four men, Edmund probably went to Sussex, Delaware; and no further record is obtainable of Major; thus leaving the placing of Benjamin in the family of either John or Scarburgh. The Parker name appears frequently in the Scarburgh West family and also in the Benjamin West family, a fact which makes a strong argument for the relationship. Though Benjamin West is not mentioned in any will, it may be that he was the oldest child and had received his inheritance before his father's death, or had received a bequest from his mother's family. His will was probated in 1775 and in it he mentions his living children, and his grandson, Thomas. These children were:

137. John West
138. Benjamin West
139. Comfort West
140. Elizabeth West
141. Abigail West

76. John West the Younger, was the eldest son of Anthony West and the grandson of Maj. John West the Younger. He is mentioned in a court record of 1761. The names of his brothers and sisters are unknown.

80. Jonathan West, son of John West, Sr., of Northampton, and Ann, was born in Accomac County, Virginia, and was under 10 when his father died in 1730. John Wise was his guardian in 1742. In 1751 he and his mother, then the wife of Daniel Cutler, presented a petition to court in regard to an estate. Jonathan was heir to his Uncle Charles' property. In 1782, Jonathan gave his son, Thorogood, 100 acres in St. George's Parish, Accomac County. He married 1st, Anne Smith, his cousin, and 2nd, a widow, Anne (Simpson) Rodgers. At his death in 1787, he left to his son, John, (Great John), land on which he was then living; and mentioned his other children in his will, including Isaac, deceased. Two chancery suits in 1788-89 disclosed two more children not mentioned in the will. Jonathan West and Anne were the parents of:

142. Charles West
143. John West
144. Thorogood West
145. Jonathan West
146. Thomas West
147. Kendall West
148. Robinson West
149. Edmund West
150. Bridget West
151. Elizabeth West
152. Sallie West
153. Isaac West
154. Anne West

81. John Smith, son of Sarah West and Isaac Smith, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. He married Kezia ———. The name Kezia appears at intervals in the West family.

82. Sarah Smith, daughter of Sarah West and Isaac Smith, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. She married Mr. West.

83. Anne Smith, daughter of Sarah West and Isaac Smith, married a cousin, Jonathan West, in Accomac County.

85. Revell West, son of Anthony West and Eleanor, was born in Accomac County, Virginia, Mar. 15,

1755, and died there Dec. 26, 1802. He was buried on the "West Farm" at Deep Creek. He had inherited his father's home plantation on Deep Creek and his children inherited 400 acres on Deep Creek from their uncle, Able West, who died in 1816. Revell West married Susanna Andrews who was born in 1766 and died in 1806. They were the parents of:

155. Revell West
156. John Rowles West
157. Annamariah West
158. Edward Revell West

86. George West, son of Anthony West and Eleanor, died in Accomac County, Virginia, in 1795, unmarried. He inherited one-third of his father's part of Tangier Island which he willed to his brothers, Isaac and John. His other brothers and sisters, nieces and nephews, shared in the rest of his estate.

87. John West, son of Anthony West and Eleanor, was a mariner. He died in Accomac County, Virginia, in 1800, unmarried. In 1799, he sold that part of Tangier Island left him by his father.

88. Anthony West, son of Anthony West and Eleanor, was born in Accomac County, Virginia, Aug. 29, 1760, and died there Feb. 2, 1796. This date was taken from his tombstone at the burial place on "West Farm" at Deer Creek. He is not mentioned in the wills of any of his relatives, but he died about the same time as his father and preceded his mother in death. His descendants, if he had any, are unknown.

89. Anne West, daughter of Anthony West and Eleanor, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. She married John West, the son of Philip Parker West, and their descendants appear under her husband's name.

90. Elizabeth West, daughter of Anthony West and Eleanor, died unmarried in 1811. She mentions numerous relatives in her will.

91. Agnes West, the daughter of Anthony West and Eleanor, married Capt. Henry Parker of Accomac County. They had at least two children:

159. Anne Parker
160. Sarah Parker

92. Susanna West, daughter of Anthony West and Eleanor, married Jacob Lillaston, of Accomac County, Virginia. Among their children was a daughter:

161. Nelly Lillaston

94. Rachel West, daughter of Anthony West and Eleanor, married Revell Twiford, of Accomac County, Virginia. They had a daughter:

162. Elizabeth Twiford

95. Isaac West, son of Anthony West and Eleanor, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. He married Nancy ———, and their names appear in various court records. He inherited one-third of his father's share of Tangier Island and also part of his brother, George's share, and fell heir to 200 acres on Merry Branch. In 1799 he sold part of Tangier Island; in 1800 he sold still more of it; and in 1804 he disposed of his negroes. In 1817 he sold his right to the Deep Creek land left by his uncle, Abel. These transactions are of interest because one Isaac West, from Virginia, appears in Greenville County, South Carolina, about this time. Isaac West and Nancy were the parents of one child, at least:

163. John West

99. Anthony West, son of John West and grandson of Anthony West of Andua, inherited the home plantation and his father's share of Tangier Island, in 1799. In 1824 he sold the land on Tangier Island. One Anthony West appears in the census of 1830, aged 60-70, the father of two girls and one boy, but we do not have a record of his will. Also an Anthony West married Elizabeth Fosque.

100. Catherine West, daughter of John West of Andua, married John Garrison. They lived in Accomac County, Virginia, and were the parents of:

164. Samuel Burton Garrison
165. Catherine Garrison

101. Comfort West, daughter of John West of Andua, married Mr. ~~Vaer~~ Vear, and lived in Accomac County, Virginia.

102. A daughter of John West, of Andua, married Mr. Fosque. They lived in Accomac County, Virginia, and were the parents of:

166. John Fosque

103. Abel West, son of John West, of Andua, does not appear in the census lists of Accomac or Northampton Counties, Virginia, but he may have died young or moved to some other state.

110. Salathiel Milby West, son of Richard West and Ann Milby, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. By the will of his father he received the home plantation. This plantation he devised by his will, which was probated in 1800, to his son, Salathiel West. To his son, Mitchell, he gave the land where he (the father) was then living. He mentions his brother Abel in his will also, and the following children:

167. Mitchell Scarboro West
168. Susanna West
169. Elizabeth West
170. Hester West
171. Salathiel West

111. Comfort West, daughter of Richard West and Ann Milby, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. She married Elisha Mears.

112. Rachel West, daughter of Richard West and Ann Milby, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. She married Levin West. This name, Levin, occurs in the West family in Frederick County, Maryland. We do not have the names of the descendants of Rachel and Levin West.

113. Charles West, son of Richard West and Ann Milby, was born in Accomac County, Virginia, and died there in 1804. He left a will, and mentions his wife, Rachel, and children, but does not name the latter.

114. Abel West, son of Richard West and Ann Milby, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. He died in 1805, probably unmarried, and Mitchell West was the administrator.

115. Solomon West, who has been placed in this line, was not named in the will of Richard West, but the names in his family indicate a close relationship with the descendants of Salathiel Milby West.

Solomon West died in 1809, and in his will mentions his sons, James and Zorobabel. He also mentions Agnes West, who was probably a daughter. His witnesses were Robin Rew, William Fitchett and John Mears. We assume that the following were his children:

172. Agnes West
173. Zorobabel West
174. James West

122. John West, son of Major West, died about 1814 in Accomac County, Virginia. His estate was divided in that year, being distributed to his widow, Mary, and his two children:

175. George West
176. Margaret West

130. Scarburgh West, son of Philip Parker West and Elizabeth, was one of the line at Metomkin, in Accomac County, Virginia. He married Comfort Copes before 1793. His will was probated in 1799, and in it he mentions his two children:

177. Tabitha West
178. Kezia West

131. Alexander West, son of Philip Parker West and Elizabeth, was born in Accomac County, Virginia, and married Esther ———. When he died in 1804, his children were under age. The witnesses of his will were John A. Bundick, John West, and Patience Parker; and the children named were:

179. Isaac West
180. Philip Parker West
181. Nancy Scarboro West

132. Philip Parker West, son of Philip Parker and Elizabeth West, was under age when his father made his will in 1793. He, himself, died in 1803, unmarried, and left the whole of his estate to his sister Mary Satchell.

133. John West, son of Philip Parker West and Elizabeth, was born in Accomac County, Virginia, and was under 21 in 1796. He died in 1828, and mentions in his will his son-in-law, Capt. Raymond Riley; and his grandsons, John West Stott, John Custis and Thomas Riley. He left the following children:

182. John West
183. Elizabeth West
183a. Cassy West
184. Susan West
185. Margaret West
186. Sarah West
187. Tabitha West
188. Anne West

137. John West, son of Benjamin West, died in 1772, two years before his father. He left to his son, Randall, one-half of the mill on Back Creek Branch. This is the first time that the name Randall appears in the Accomac branch of the name West, but it is a familiar name in Somerset County, Virginia. John's son, Benjamin, was an infant heir-at-law, and Zorobabel Rogers was his first guardian. In 1773, however, Benjamin West, probably his grandfather, became his guardian.

138. Benjamin West, son of Benjamin West, died in 1796. He had received land on Hill's Branch from his father which he was to hold for life and then it was to go to Thomas. It isn't known whether this Thomas was the son of Benjamin who died in 1796 or the son of his brother, John, who died in 1772.

Thomas is not mentioned anywhere else except in his grandfather's will. Benjamin married Elizabeth ———, and they were the parents of:

189. John West
190. Parker West
191. Benjamin West
192. Tabitha West
193. Thomas West

139. Comfort West, daughter of Benjamin West, who died in 1774, married Mr. Collins.

142. Charles West, son of Jonathan West and Anne Smith, was born in Accomac County, Virginia, about 1750, as he was an infant in 1758. He inherited a tract of land from his father's uncle, Maj. Charles West. He died in 1797, leaving a widow, Tabitha, and a son, Charles, residuary legatee.

194. Charles West

143. John West, of Deep Creek, son of Jonathan West and Anne Smith, was known as Great John. He died in 1805, willing all his land on Tobacco Island to his daughters, Yeardley and Anne. In 1800 he had sold land on the north side of Chesconnessex to his son, John Custis West. He left these heirs:

195. Elizabeth West
196. Anne West
197. Frances Yeardley West
198. John Custis West

144. Thorogood West, son of John West and Anne Smith, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. He married Susanna Eshorn, Jan. 14, 1786. He died in 1808. In 1800, Thorogood and Susanna had sold some land, and in 1811 Susanna had given her son, Nathaniel, land adjoining the home place on which he had built a house. When Susanna died in 1834, their two sons, Samuel and Isaac, were already deceased without heirs. Thorogood West left five children:

199. Nathaniel West
200. Samuel West
201. Isaac West d. s. p., 1817
202. Susanna West
203. Mary West

145. Jonathan West, son of Jonathan West and Anne Smith, was under age in 1787. In 1795 he sold part of Tobacco Island, held jointly by him, his brother, John, of Deep Creek, and sister, Anne. He had inherited other land on which his stepmother was living in 1796. By his will, which was probated in 1837, he left his share of Tobacco Island to his wife, Susanna, for life; then to three of his nephews. He died without issue.

146. Thomas West, son of Jonathan West and Anne Smith, appears in the 1820 census with a family of four boys and one girl. He must have died in that year, however, because he was not living in Dec., 1820, when James West, his son, made his will. His wife was Anne, and they were the parents of:

204. John West d. s. p. before 1820
205. James West
206. Thomas West
207. Charles West
208. Elizabeth West

148. Robinson West, son of Jonathan West and Anne Smith, appears in the Accomac County census of 1830 with a family of two boys and two girls. We only know the name of one. In 1821 Robinson West sold his interest in slaves belonging to his father's estate, but still held as dower by his stepmother, Mrs. Anne West. One son of Robinson West was:

209. William West

149. Edmund West, son of Jonathan West and Anne Smith, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. He may be the Edmund West who died in 1792, probably unmarried. His administrator was John Simpson.

150. Bridget West, daughter of Jonathan West and Anne Smith, gave slaves to Isaac and Nathaniel West, sons of Thorogood West, in 1791. In 1819 she sold her interest in her brother John's estate to John Smith Snead, of Lexington, Kentucky; and by her will, probated in 1831, she made bequests to Mary Snead, daughter of John S. Snead, of Louisville, Kentucky, and to Elizabeth Smith Snead, wife of Tully Snead.

151. Elizabeth West, daughter of Jonathan West and Anne Smith, married Mr. Snead.

152. Sally West, daughter of Jonathan West and Anne Smith, probably married Mr. Bayley, and had a son, John Bayley.

153. Isaac West, son of Jonathan West and Anne Smith, died in 1799, without issue.

154. Anne West, or Nancy, daughter of Jonathan West and Anne Smith, married Mr. Simpson, and they were the parents of:

210. Southey Simpson

155. Revell West, son of Revell West and Susanna Andrews, was born in Accomac County, Virginia.

He married Mary Anne Coleburn, June 16, 1824. There were so many Revell Wests, that this writer is not sure to which one all the data belongs. One Revell West married Elizabeth Parker, Nov. 11, 1831. In William and Mary Magazine of Jan. 1, 1928, p. 37, information is given on one Revell West who is probably the son of Revell West and Mary Anne Colburn. The census of 1850 gives a Revell West, born 1803, with wife, Elizabeth. He is missing in the 1860 census, but Margaret C. West appears with part of the family. The children given in both censuses are: Henry R., Richard W., Ewin P., E. Agnes, Elisia, Leah, Thomas, Sally, William W.

156. John Rowles West, son of Revell West and Susanna Andrews, was born in Accomac County, Virginia, but moved to York County, Virginia, later. He married Elizabeth H. and in 1818 they sold land on Deep Creek, being his share of the estate of his father. He also sold his interest in the land of his father's uncle, Abel West. He was probably the father of:

211. Revell West

157. Annamariah West, daughter of Revell West and Susanna Andrews, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. She married Flavius S. Noel, Feb. 22, 1814, and they had at least one son:

212. Charles Edwin Revell Noel

158. Edward Revell West, son of Revell West and Susanna Andrews, does not appear in the court records nor the census lists of Accomac or Northampton Counties.

163. John West, son of Isaac West and Nancy, received 200 acres of land on Merry Branch.

167. Mitchell Scarburgh West, son of Salathiel Milby West, was born about 1790 in Accomac County, Virginia. He received the home plantation of his father, and married Margaret Rodgers, June 1, 1814. They were the parents of:

213. Gen. Mitchell Wellington West b. Mar. 13, 1815
214. John West
215. Solomon West b. 1821
216. Susanna West d. 1842
217. George West b. 1825

171. Salathiel West, son of Salathiel Milby West, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. He inherited the plantation of his grandfather, Richard. One Salathiel West married Elizabeth Nock, widow of Samuel Nock, Jan. 3, 1822. They appear in the census of Accomac County of 1830 with two boys and one girl in the family, but do not appear again.

173. Zorobabel West, son of Solomon West, was born about 1780 in Accomac County, Virginia. He is given as J. Zorobabel West in one record. In his will, probated 1823, he gave his son the plantation where he was living; and his daughter, Mary, the Rew land. He married Hester Savage, June 13, 1810, and they were the parents of:

218. William West
219. Mary West
220. Hester Anne West

174. James West, son of Solomon West, married Tabitha Young in Accomac County, Virginia, July 15, 1809. When his will was probated in 1818, his children were all under sixteen. To Solomon he gave all his land. The three children were:

221. Solomon Albert West b. 1811
222. Samuel West
223. Elizabeth West

175. George West, son of John West and Mary, was born in 1789. He married Susan Nelson, Nov. 10, 1813. The census of 1840 lists one George West with a family of five boys and four girls. In his will, however, only seven children are mentioned, and a Juliet West, who may be a granddaughter. George West died in 1860, leaving these known children in Accomac County, Virginia:

224. George West b. 1823
225. Edward Thomas West b. 1826
226. Catherine West
227. Susan West
228. Harriet West b. 1832
229. Elizabeth West b. 1829
230. Frank West

176. Margaret West, known as Peggy West, daughter of John West and Mary, married 1st, McKiel Bedoe; and 2nd, Mr. Budd; at least she is given as Peggy Budd in a land transfer of 1823.

179. Isaac West, son of Alexander West and Esther, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. He married Sally Tunnell, daughter of William Tunnell, before 1818. Both were under age at the time. They appear in a number of land transactions in 1820. At one time they, with Isaac's mother, Esther, sold land to John Snead. In 1831, Isaac bought negroes from his mother, but in 1825, Isaac had been in Muskingum, Ohio, with his brother, Philip Parker West. In the census of 1840 he appears with a family of eight children. Probably Sally Tunnell had died, because Isaac West, widower, married

Sarah S. Finney, May 31, 1837. Isaac does not appear in the 1850 census, and had evidently died before this. The will of Sarah Finney West was probated in 1858. The names of these children, only, of Isaac West are known:

231. Sarah West
232. Fanny West
233. Parker West
234. Catherine West
235. Esther West

180. Philip Parker West, son of Alexander West and Esther, moved to Muskingum, Ohio.

182. John West, son of John West, and grandson of Philip Parker West, died in 1817 without issue. He had land near Franktown, Northampton County. This land had been deeded to him by his father, John I. West.

183. Elizabeth West, daughter of John West, married John Leatherbury.

183a. Cassy West, daughter of John West, married George Scarburgh.

184. Susan West, daughter of John West, married Kelly Stott.

185. Margaret West, daughter of John West, was 78 in 1860. She was living in the home of her brother-in-law, Capt. Raymond Riley, in Accomac County, Virginia.

186. Sarah West, daughter of John West, married Raymond Riley. He was 82 in 1860.

187. Tabitha West, daughter of John West, married Henry Custis, Dec. 23, 1813.

188. Anne West, daughter of John West, married George Scarburgh.

189. John West, son of Benjamin West and Elizabeth, died in 1807. William Riley was his administrator. He had two children only, who were to inherit land from their grandfather after their father's death:

236. Arthur West
237. William West

190. Parker West, son of Benjamin West and Elizabeth, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. He married Catherine ———. In 1798 they sold land which Parker had inherited from his father, to John West. It is not stated who this John West is, but he may have been their son. Parker West died intestate and an inventory was made of his estate in 1799. He left two children:

238. John West
239. Benjamin West

191. Benjamin West, son of Benjamin West and Elizabeth, was born in Accomac County, Virginia, about 1770. He married Margaret Russell, daughter of Sarah Bonwell Russell, June 7, 1800. (See Virginia Biography, Vol. IV.) They moved to Hampton Roads, Virginia, where Benjamin West died in 1836, leaving the following children:

240. William West d. s. p.
241. Parker West
242. George West
243. Margaret Anne West

192. Tabitha West, daughter of Benjamin West and Elizabeth, married Caleb Melson, May 2, 1779.

193. Thomas West was the grandson of Benjamin West who died in 1774. It is not known definitely whether he was the son of John or Benjamin West. A Thomas West appears in the 1810 census of Accomac County, Virginia, with a family of five boys; and we find Thomas West in the census of 1820 in Northampton County, Virginia, with a family of four boys and one girl. It is not known whether one of these is Benjamin's grandson. One Thomas West married Leah Bundick before 1805.

194. Charles West, son of Charles West and Tabitha, was born in Northampton County, Virginia. He married Joanna Dunton, Feb. 16, 1798. He died in 1835, leaving a detailed will, describing his land and naming the following children:

244. Anne Custis West
245. Sally West
246. William W. West
247. Tabitha S. West
248. Elizabeth C. West
249. Charles J. B. West

195. Elizabeth West, daughter of Great John West of Deep Creek, married George Warner, Dec. 28, 1784.

196. Anne West, daughter of Great John West of Deep Creek, married George Poulson.

197. Frances Yeardley West, daughter of Great John of Deep Creek, married Robinson Custis, Nov. 30, 1775. The name Yeardley looks like Yearby in some records. If it is intended to be this, it may occur from the fact that there was an early intermarriage in this Accomac branch with the Earby family.

198. John Custis West, son of Great John of Deep Creek, received from his father about 1800, land on the north side of Chesconnessex. One John West, of Chesconnessex, married Rachel Guy, widow, June 24, 1802.

199. Nathaniel West, son of Thorogood West and Susanna Eshorn, was born in Northampton County, Accomac, Virginia. Two marriages appear in this county which may be a first and second one for this Nathaniel. Nathaniel West married Mary Smith Dalby, Nov. 20, 1810; and a Nathaniel West married Mary Turner, Aug. 29, 1812. In 1813, Nathaniel West sells to John Eyrd, land inherited from his father, Thorogood West. He was the father of the following children:

250. William West
251. Nathaniel S. West
252. Louisa West
253. Sarah Anne P. West

200. Samuel West, son of Thorogood West and Susanna Eshorn, was born in Northampton County, Virginia. He married Margaret Fitchett, Sept. 12, 1815. His will was probated in 1819, and since he left no issue, his estate descended to his wife and two sisters.

202. Susanna West, daughter of Thorogood West and Susanna Eshorn, married Abel Belote, Nov. 24, 1818.

203. Mary West, daughter of Thorogood West and Susanna Eshorn, married Mr. Fitchett.

205. James West, son of Thomas West and Anne, was born in Northampton County, Virginia. His will was probated in 1820 in which he speaks of his daughters-in-law, Betsy and Margaret Spiers. He probably means his stepdaughters, for a James West married Nancy Spiers, widow, Dec. 18, 1813. There was no issue.

206. Thomas West, son of Thomas West and Anne, was born in Northampton County, Virginia. His will was probated there in 1839, and he left a wife, Molly, and one daughter. One Thomas West in Northampton married Margaret Nottingham, Apr. 7, 1814. Identification is not definite. Thomas and Molly had one daughter:

254. Elizabeth West

209. William West, son of Robinson West and Margaret Singleton, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. He married Margaret Bonwell and they were the parents of:

255. Polly West

211. Revell West, who married 1st, Sarah Burwell Nelson, of Yorktown, would appear to be the son of John Rowles West though it is not so given in the William and Mary Magazine of Jan. 1928. He married 2nd, Oct. 15, 1846, Mary Wason. He died Oct. 28, 1852, leaving of his first marriage, Sarah West, who married her cousin, W. H. Parker, whose mother was a Miss West; and of the second marriage, Mabel West, born June 29, 1850.

213. Gen. Mitchell Wellington West, son of Mitchell Scarburgh West and Margaret Rodgers, was born Mar. 13, 1815. He married Margaret Anne Smith, daughter of John Smith, Dec. 6, 1836. He was an officer in the Confederate Army, and died July 17, 1899. His burial took place at "St. George's," Pungoteague, and he left the following children:

256. Otho Ker West b. 1838
257. Margaret Indiana West b. 1842
258. Hester J. West b. 1845
259. John West b. 1848

214. John West, son of Mitchell Scarburgh West and Margaret Rodgers, was born in Accomac County. One John W. West, Jr., appears in the 1850 census of Accomac County with wife, Nan, and daughter, Catherine, one year old.

217. George West, son of Mitchell Scarburgh West and Margaret Rodgers, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. He married Margaret ———, and they were the parents of:

260. Thomas West b. 1850
261. George G. West b. 1855
262. John E. West b. 1857
263. Susan West b. 1859

219. Mary West, daughter of Zorobabel West and Hester Savage, married Mr. Wise.

220. Hester Anne West, daughter of Zorobabel West and Hester Savage, married Thomas S. White, Oct. 13, 1841.

221. Solomon Albert West, son of James West and Tabitha, was born in Accomac County, Virginia, in 1811. He married Margaret, and they were the parents of:

264. Margaret West b. 1835
265. Mary West b. 1837
266. Elizabeth West b. 1845

224. George West, son of George West and Susan Melson, was born in 1823 in Accomac County, Virginia. He married 1st, Jane, born in 1831; and 2nd, Virginia, born in 1831. He was the father of one child by his first marriage, and the others are of his second marriage:

267. Georgianna West b. 1849
268. Ella West b. 1854
269. Alice West b. 1857
270. Lorenzo b. 1859

225. Edward Thomas West, son of George West and Susan Melson, was born in 1826 in Accomac County, Virginia. He married Margaret ———, and they were the parents of:

271. Mary Ann West b. 1851
272. George West b. 1855
273. Emma West b. 1853

237. William West, son of John West, and grandson of Benjamin West, who died in 1796, was an heir to his grandfather through a long line of preferred heirs, and was deceased before the estate came to him. Therefore, his four children, who will be named later, inherited half of the property, and their uncle, Arthur, of Elizabeth City County, who had no heirs, received the other half. The four children of William were:

274. Robert A. West
275. John A. West
276. William T. West
277. Anne E. West

238. John West, son of Parker West and Catherine West, appears in the census of Accomac County in 1810, and not after that. Whether he died soon after or moved away cannot be ascertained through the records. A number of circumstances, however, seem to indicate that he was the father of John Parker West, who moved to Washington, D. C., before 1825. Parker West sold, in 1798, land to John, which had been inherited from Parker's father, Benjamin. There is a question as to whether this John was the son of Parker West. In 1814, a Patience West of Accomac County, widow of John West, died, and in her will devised her estate to her "last two children, John P. West and Harriet Petit West." She had either been married before or her husband, John West, had made provision for their older children. The only John West in the census of 1810 with two young children is John, the son of Parker.

In 1804, a Patience Parker, John West and John Bundick were witnesses of the will of Alexander West. The theory of this writer is that Patience Parker was a widow in 1804, and shortly afterward married John West. John Parker West, of Washington, D. C., was born in 1806, which would fit in with the theory here developed. In 1831, John Parker West sold in Accomac County, 70 acres of land in Metomkin. Undoubtedly he had inherited this from some member of his family. It places him rather definitely in this line of Wests near Metomkin. Further data will be given under:

278. John Parker West

239. Benjamin West, son of Parker West and Catherine, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. In 1819 he sold land, formerly belonging to his father, Parker West. He does not appear in the census records of Accomac County, and evidently moved away. There died in Baltimore County, Maryland, in 1848, a John West who had inherited land in Accomac County, Virginia, from his father, Benjamin West. This John West left a wife, Harriet, and children: Samuel, Lydia Anne, and Susanna West.

241. Parker West, son of Benjamin West and Margaret Russell, lived in Hampton, Virginia. He was born in 1803, and died in 1872. He married Mary Drummond Bell in 1827, and they were the parents of:

279. Mary West b. 1831
280. Sarah Jane West b. 1832 d. 1844
281. William West b. 1833 d. 1862
282. George Benjamin West
283. Elizabeth West b. 1835 d. 1885
284. Missouri West b. 1841

242. George West, son of Benjamin West and Margaret Russell, was born in 1789, and died in 1860.

243. Margaret Anne West, daughter of Benjamin West and Margaret Russell West, was married in Hampton, Virginia, to Robert Davis. They were the parents of:

285. Robert Davis
286. Anna Davis

244. Anne Custis West, daughter of Charles West and Joanna Dunton, was born in Northampton County, Virginia. She married 1st, John Bundick, Nov. 19, 1811; and 2nd, Samuel Taylor. She was the mother of:

287. Elizabeth S. Bundick
288. Mary Anne Bundick

245. Sally West, daughter of Charles West and Joanna Dunton, was born in Northampton County, Virginia. She married John W. Leatherbury, Nov. 30, 1818.

246. William W. West, son of Charles C. West and Joanna Dunton, was born in Northampton County, Virginia. He married Vianna Godwin. His death occurred about 1836, and he left one child only:

289. Joanna Clara West

247. Tabitha S. West, daughter of Charles West and Joanna Dunton, was born in Northampton County, Virginia. She married Thomas J. Nottingham, Nov. 28, 1831.

248. Elizabeth C. West, daughter of Charles West and Joanna Dunton, was born in Northampton County. She married Edward W. Addison, Oct 11, 1826.

249. Charles J. B. West, son of Charles West and Joanna Dunton, was born in Northampton County, Virginia. He married Elizabeth R. Pitts, Mar. 14, 1833. Their children:

290. William Major West b. 1837
291. Margaret Catherine West b. 1840
292. Mary Isabella West b. 1843
293. Joanna Tabitha West b. 1849
294. Ella Sarah West
295. Charles Edwin West b. 1845

250. William West, son of Nathaniel West, was born in Northampton County, Virginia. A William West lived next to Nathaniel S. West in 1830, but he does not appear in the census of 1840. Since one William died in 1836, this may be the one. The family of William W. West in the census of 1830 contains two girls and one boy.

251. Nathaniel S. West, son of Nathaniel West, was born in 1817 in Northampton County, Virginia. He married Eliza Anne Harrison, daughter of James Harrison, Sept. 18, 1843. He married 2nd, in 1860, Mary Anne Nottingham. Nathaniel West died in 1870, leaving these children:

296. Susan West b. 1846
297. Olivia N. West b. 1842

252. Louisa West, daughter of Nathaniel West, was born in Northampton County, Virginia. She married Thomas H. Berry, Aug. 9, 1841.

253. Sarah Anne P. West, daughter of Nathaniel West, was born in Northampton County, Virginia. She married Thomas B. Williams, May 30, 1836.

256. Lieut. Otho Ker West, son of Gen. Mitchell West and Margaret Anne Rodgers Smith, was born Nov. 26, 1838. He was wounded in battle at Petersburg and died July 23, 1864. He was buried at St. George's at Pungoteague, Accomac.

278. John Parker West, whose ancestry has been discussed under Number 238, was born in Accomac County, Virginia. He moved to the District of Columbia about 1825, where he married Annie E. Byrd, also of Accomac County. His death occurred in 1859, and his will was probated on Apr. 30. He appears in three land transfers in the Accomac County records: once Jan. 1, 1831, when he sold land near Metomkin, and again in 1831, when he bought land of William and Hester Byrd, of Washington; and in Mar. 1834, he bought four acres adjoining the latter piece. Apparently, he was residing in Accomac County at the time of the 1840 census, but it is the understanding of his family that he moved to Washington, D. C., in 1834. It would seem then, that he had returned to Accomac County shortly after he became of age, sold some of the land he had inheritd, and settled there after his marriage for a few years. John Parker West and Annie E. Byrd were the parents of:

298. William H. West b. 1837
299. John Thomas West b. 1838
300. Hester A. West b. 1841 d. unm.
301. Elizabeth West b. 1843 d. unm.
302. Henry Parker West b. 1846 d. s. p.
303. Albert C. West b. 1855

279. Mary West, daughter of Parker West and Mary Drummond Bell, was born in 1831 in Hampton, Virginia, and died there in 1898. She married Philip Marrow, and they were the parents of:

304. William Marrow
305. Elizabeth Marrow

282. George Benjamin West, son of Parker West and Mary Drummond Bell, was born in Hampton, Virginia. A sketch of his life and antecedents is given fully in Volume IV of Virginia Biographies, p. 215.

284. Missouri West, daughter of Parker West and Mary Drummond Bell, was born in Hampton, Virginia, in 1841. She married Mortimer Smith.

298. William H. West, son of John Parker West and Annie E. Byrd, was born in 1836. He was in business with his brother for some time in Alexandria, Virginia. His will was probated in the District of Columbia, Apr. 1, 1873. He married Mary Linton, and they were the parents of:

306. Clara Hoover West
307. Mamie West
308. Elizabeth West
309. William H. West

299. John Thomas West, son of John Parker West and Annie E. Byrd, was born 1838. He died Mar. 11,

1896, and in his will made generous bequests to Methodist institutions. He married 1st, Elizabeth Cassell, and 2nd, R. Carrie Shands. Mr. West was the father of:

310. J. Thomas West, Jr.
311. Henry Parker West

313. William D. West
314. Mary E. West
315. Laura Vivian West
316. Leonard Perry West

308. Elizabeth West, daughter of William H. West and Mary Linton, married 1st, Mr. Brandenburgh; and 2nd, Frank Essex. There are children.

309. William H. West, son of William H. West and Mary Linton, was born in Washington, D. C., where he has always made his home. He is head of an old and well established bonding firm which bears his name. He married Mary Margaret Fields, and they are the parents of:

317. Mary Margaret West
318. Billy Burke West

310. J. Thomas West, Jr., son of John Thomas West and Elizabeth Cassell, was born in Washington, D. C., where he died in April 1900. He married Gertrude Phelps, and they were the parents of:

319. Ralph West
320. Gertrude West

311. Henry Parker West, son of John Parker West and Annie E. Byrd, was born in Washington, D. C., where he died Feb. 7, 1926. He married 1st, Emma Marshall; and 2nd, Sue Eaton. Mr. West was the father of:

313. William D. West, son of John Thomas West and Elizabeth Cassell, was born in Washington, D. C. He is a wholesale manufacturer of hardware, being a partner in a firm which is one of the oldest in the city. Mr. West is a member of various clubs and has taken a prominent part in the civic life of the city. He married Catherine Putnam, and they are the parents of:

325. Catherine Rudolph West

Mr. Stratton Nottingham, of Onancock, Accomac County, has very generously contributed to this chapter, notes which he has been collecting for years. He is professionally engaged in historical research and is an authority on the county records of the Eastern Shore.

CHAPTER VI

ORIGIN OF JOSEPH WEST OF PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY, MARYLAND

ONE of the most puzzling tasks confronting this writer has been the attempt to clarify the mystery surrounding the origin of Joseph West. He was the progenitor of a mighty host of descendants and yet efforts to wrest the secret of his own nativity from historical documents have been repeatedly baffled—often by seemingly inconsequential circumstances.

A meticulous search of records of many of the counties in Maryland fails to show any trace of him before 1695. In that year he arrived in Prince George's County with 5,500 pounds of tobacco in his pocket, so to speak, and therewith bought a plantation. Obviously he did not come from Old England or New England if he brought tobacco instead of currency; and by the same inference he did probably come from Virginia or Maryland where tobacco was mostly raised. That he arrived in Prince George's County with so much purchasing power gives rise to the theory that he had either just sold a plantation, inherited his share of an estate, or received a gift from his father or other relatives.

The record of his purchase, to which one would naturally turn in search of information on the subject, is exasperatingly silent. The deed reads somewhat in this fashion: "Joseph West, of ——— County, bought from Ninian Bealle, of Calvert County, Province of Maryland,"—and the clerk, with one of those lamentable oversights, which at times amount to a tragedy, failed to insert the name of the county! The supposition is that Joseph West came from elsewhere in Maryland. Calvert County would be a natural assumption but all the records of that county were destroyed by fire years ago, and there are no West entries in the parish books, though a Henry West was in Calvert County and died without heirs in 1685.

Joseph West may have come from the adjoining county of Anne Arundel but the only West found there in the early records is Francis West. He married Sarah Harry in 1696 at St. James Church, Herring Run Parish, but she died in 1698 and he must have married Sarah Davis, because Thomas Davis of that county left a plantation to his sister, Sarah, the wife of Francis West. (Maryland Calendar of Wills, Vol. II, p. 166.) This Francis West doesn't appear again in the records. He, too, is as much of a mystery as Joseph West. They may have been related but the name Francis does not appear in the Joseph West line, although in those days it was customary to retain family names.

Both these names occur in the New England line of Francis West of Duxbury, Massachusetts. The name Joseph occurs often in the Quaker line related to Benjamin West, artist. Very positive statements have come from widely separated branches of Joseph West's line in regard to their relationship to the artist's family and these claims cannot be lightly disregarded though no proof has yet appeared. However, Joseph West was in Maryland some time before the other family arrived from England. Furthermore he seems to have been a Cavalier, because his affiliations were with the Episcopal Church; while the relatives of Benjamin West, artist, fought with Cromwell and later became Quakers.

On the whole the Wests were Cavaliers rather than Puritans or Quakers, although there was of course an occasional breaking away. A number of Wests were said to have come to America with Penn and the name occurs often in Quaker records in some localities. One argument for the connection of the Benjamin West line with a Maryland line is the fact that Benjamin's father John West, is said to have spent the time just preceding his final departure for England "in Maryland and the lower country."

Living about 15 miles from Joseph West in Prince George's County was Stephen West, of Woodyard. The Frederick County descendants of Joseph West have always supposed they were related to Stephen West. This seems logical because of the fact that they were the only two families of the name in the county and lived fairly near, attending the same church for some years, until the parish was divided. The two families did not intermarry, however, nor were any of their family names the same, which seems unusual if they were related. There was, of course, a generation's difference in the ages of Joseph and Stephen which might explain the lack of intermarriages. Stephen West was reputed to have come from England about 1712, whereas Joseph West was either born in the Colonies or came over very young.

One other West appears temporarily in Prince George's County. In 1705 Peter West, according to the parish records, is given the contract for building a vestry house for St. Barnabas Church, newly established. This is the church to which Joseph West transferred his membership from the Herring Run church which was across the line in Anne Arundel County. This Peter, though termed a carpenter, was what one would call nowadays a contractor or builder. That he was an enterprising person, with present-day ideas, is readily gathered from the fact that while his contract called for the payment of only 3,000 pounds of tobacco in 1705, the vestrymen early in 1706 had agreed to give him an extra 1,500, and by the end of the year his bill had risen to 5,500.

Peter West's name never appears on the records as a parishioner, and the conclusion seems to be that he was a relative of Joseph, brought there to build the church. Only the merest clue connects him with Joseph. One parish record gives Joseph's name as "Joseph P. West." Could he have been a son or nephew of Peter and named for him? If so, why did not Joseph or his descendants name any of their children Peter? And yet this connection seems to the writer the strongest of any she has investigated. More about Peter later.

In a further survey of Maryland counties, Talbot seems to offer a fertile field. It contains a Simon West, a Peter, and a William—not to speak of John and others in the early records. The county lies directly across Chesapeake Bay from Baltimore and is an easy point for travel in all directions.

Among the early immigrants of Maryland was Simon West who arrived in 1674 in the ship Mary, captained by William Knott. Simon was one of ten servants, transported by Nicholas Goodridge who received 500 acres head rights for bringing them over. The other nine were Thomas Wine, Elisha Hall, John Parks, David Prince, Alexander Brown, James Beffin, William Williams, Peter Basil, and William Jones.

The term servant was used in the sense of apprentice rather than in the present-day usage, and there was no difficulty in getting men to register under that classification. They received their passage and "sufficient meat, drink, clothes, washing, lodging," until the expiration of their term of service. This might be for a few months, or four or five years, according to arrangements agreed upon by the person transported and the one paying for his passage. In addition, each servant on his freedom received 50 acres of land, while the one who transported the colonist, received 50 or 100 acres, varying in different years.

In a venture so profitable to both parties it was very easy to have a private understanding by which the term of service was considerably shortened. For a long time land in Maryland could not be bought; it could only be secured by colonizing. Influential men in England and captains of vessels made it their business to persuade as many as possible to come to the Colonies for the compensation they themselves received. And the youths were not loathe to come. Times were hard in England, not only for the poor but for the younger sons of the gentry and nobility, and they flocked to the New World in great numbers. (McCormac's "White Servitude in Maryland," Vol. 22, Johns Hopkins Studies.)

That Simon West was not a poor immigrant when he arrived we may readily infer from the fact that he purchased in 1683, 200 acres on the Tuckahoe from Stephen Tulley. This tract was called Stepney, and who named it we do not know, but the family of Benjamin West, artist, came from the parish of Wapping Stepney in England. There are great gaps in the records and one wishes more care had been taken to make wills. Simon does not appear again in Talbot County books nor do the parish registers contain his name, but both Queen Anne and Caroline Counties, nearby, carry the name in later records.

A Simeon West died in Queen Anne County in 1813, leaving children, Nancy, William, Emeline, and Simeon; and widow, Letitia, who married Mr. Clendening. In 1874 a Simeon West was an administrator of the estate of William West. The name Simeon also occurs often among the West families of Rhode Island and a connection prior to their immigration may have existed between the New England and Maryland families. The Kent County records contain a sale of property in 1784 by Mary West, widow, residing in Salem, Massachusetts, who had inherited the land from her brother Samuel Massy, of Queen Anne's, Maryland. She had a son, Samuel Massy West, a mariner, also of Salem, Massachusetts.

We have no documentary proof of connection between Joseph West of Prince George's and Simeon of Talbot County, but the circumstantial evidence seems strong. If John and Rachel Perry West did not name their son after a Simeon Perry, of Rhode Island, they must have known their West cousins (if so they were) in Talbot County and named him after Simeon there. Joseph was apparently not the son of the first Simon or one of his children would have borne that name.

Flitting like a will-o'-the-wisp from county to county, Peter West carried on his activities throughout the State of Maryland. He was transported in 1666 by Henry Hawkins, who immediately received his 50 acres head rights. In the same year Peter proved his freedom rights to 50 acres of land, so his period of working out his passage must have been short indeed.

In 1674 he appeared in Talbot County as a purchaser from one Hurlock, consideration not named, of land called Brampton, situated in what is now Queen Anne's. He sold it in 1676 and he was recorded in the deed as Peter West, of "Secill County." In the meantime in 1675 he had bought in Kent County a plantation called Castle Carey, from Thomas Erberry, and they had the patent for it recorded.

Now if we knew who named the place Castle Carey we could settle the origin of Peter West and probably that of the other West families in Talbot County. Castle Carey was the name of the old barony belonging to the Carey family in central-eastern Somerset, England, and it is recorded in the Doomesday Book. There is no longer a castle but there is a town called Castle Carey 12 miles southeast of Wells. In addition to the castle, the family possessed a manor house which is still standing today in Devonshire, in a parish bounded on one side by the River Tamar and on the other by the Carey (now spelled Cary).

The De La Warr Wests and the Careys were intermarried. If Peter West named his new plantation Castle Carey, he very likely was a native of Devonshire and lived near the castle or was related to the owners. Moreover, the name Erberry does not occur in the Devon records which makes it probable that he was not the one responsible for the name Castle Carey. Reference to the chapter on Early English Wests will show that the name Peter was a familiar one in County Devon where one Peter West bought Tiverton Castle before 1700.

At what period Castle Carey passed out of Peter's possession we do not know, but about 1710 it belonged to Raphael Cheffin (or Beffin) and the writer discovered that a very old brick house still stands on the plantation, about 13 miles from Chestertown, between Locust Grove and Shallcross Wharf. The last account found of Peter was in 1705 when one of his name built a vestry house in Prince George's County. We believe Peter West was a bachelor uncle of Joseph and probably a brother of Simon.

Some one has said that the Maryland Wests were descended from Sir William West of England, which is a bit indefinite, considering the number of William Wests since the year 1300. Still, family tradition furnishes a basis for research even if too much reliance cannot be placed upon it. There were several William Wests who entered Maryland about the same year. One who was transported in 1669 by John Tench of Talbot County, was probably related to Simon and Peter. That his name doesn't appear in the records of Talbot may indicate that he had either returned to England soon or had died, or gone to another county. It is significant that a William West appeared in Charles County (which included Prince George's County up to 1695), at intervals from 1686 to 1692. In 1691 he was spoken of in a transaction as "William West late of Charles County." His new place of residence was not given. It may be that this indicated he was dead. His last recorded act in Charles County was the sale of a plantation called "Saturday's Work," to William Hutchison. A curious incident is the fact that 100 years later this same plantation belonged to Stephen West of Prince George's County, but by purchase.

Very likely he was the father of Joseph, for the latter named his oldest son William. At the death of William, the son Joseph may have received as his inheritance the tobacco with which he purchased the plantation, Blackburn. No doubt investigation in England would definitely establish William West as head of the majority of the West lines of Maryland.

Concerning Joseph himself, we have much information gleaned from various records, but no family traditions whatever. When he arrived in Prince George's County he had evidently just been married, for the birth of his oldest son took place the same year he bought his plantation, Blackburn. This was situated on the Western Branch of the Patuxent near Bladensburg. The year 1695 was a very disastrous one for settlers, since an epidemic destroyed great numbers of cattle and hogs. Nevertheless, Joseph took the precaution to have registered in the county books, his mark for stray animals, the distinguishing feature being "a crop in the left ear."

The family name of his wife is unknown, but the will of Francis Vizen (Vizean, Veazean, Voizeen, Voyzeen, Joyzeen, Voicen), which was probated in Anne Arundel County in 1721, names Joseph West, his brother-in-law, as guardian of his children. This is doubtless our Joseph West, because there was no other Joseph West in either Anne Arundel or Prince George's Counties. Moreover, the two families attended the same Episcopal Church. Francis Vizen had married Mary Mears in 1699. He was probably a French Huguenot, the name being a corruption of Voisin. It doesn't occur again in the Anne Arundel records and must have been changed to an Anglicized form.

In 1696 a letter of congratulation was sent to the English Sovereign on his escape from assassination and Joseph West was among the civil officers and magistrates signing this. In 1705 he was one of the parishioners of the new church (near Leeland, Maryland). It isn't clear why the births of his other children are not on the books of Herring Run Parish, for all save Benjamin must have been born before the family began attending St. Barnabas, which was nearer the plantation. However, the records are very often incomplete.

Joseph was one of the church wardens of St. Barnabas in 1716, and in 1719 he and his sons, William and John, who were probably both married then, signed a petition for a new chapel in the upper part of the parish. The two sons were living west of the present city of Washington, so they were far from the home church, for the parish extended 90 miles in those days. William West probably lived on the land nearest Cabin John, for he continued his membership in the new church built at Rock Creek, after a chapel had been established one mile east of Rockville. The records of this Rockville chapel are no longer in existence and we have no birth records of the later generations of the West families. It is quite likely that through marriage, they joined other denominations and attended churches nearer home. Throughout Kentucky the West families were generally affiliated with the Christian Church, now known as the Church of the Disciples of Christ.

In 1718, Joseph West first appeared as a public seeker of land when he and his intimate friend, James Holmead, obtained a tract which they called the Joseph and James. Later they patented the Two Brothers and Constant Friendship. Joseph West then patented alone The Pines and The Joseph; and he bought Younger Brother from Thomas Offutt. All this land lay in what is now Montgomery County, and extended along the Potomac River from Captain (Cabin) John to Seneca.

James Holmead and Joseph West divided their holdings in 1725 and immediately Joseph and Rebecca gave plantations to their children. In 1726 they gave part of Two Brothers to William; in 1727 a portion of the same tract to John; and in 1729, The Younger Brother to Benjamin. All of them, except Benjamin, were living on the plantations given them. Mary West Kelly received the one where she dwelt when her father died. Whether she married Bryan or Joseph Kelly is not certain, but a Bryan Kelly died in 1745, leaving sons, Joseph, Benjamin and Thomas, to one of whom he left part of Two Brothers. The witnesses of his will were John and William West and James Lamar. Joseph West, of Frederick County, Benjamin's son, sold Younger Brother in 1765 to Thomas Kelly, who was probably a grandson of Joseph West.

Joseph West's name cannot be found in the lists of those who took part in the Colonial Wars, but he furnished supplies to the armies and recevied an order from the state in payment for these. His will, which was probated Nov. 23, 1731, in Prince George's, will be interesting to his descendants:

In the name of God, Amen, the 25th day August in year of our Lord God one thousand seven hundred thirty-one, I, Joseph West of Prince George's County in the Province of Maryland, planter, being weak in body but of sound and perfect memory (thanks be to God for the same) and calling to mind the uncertainties of this mortal life knowing it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last will and testament in manner and form following —That is to say principally and first, I recommend my soul to Almighty God that gave it and my body to the earth to be buried in a Christian-like manner with that decency the discretion of my executor or executors shall lead them to, hoping at the general resurrection to receive the same again through the mercy and mighty power of Almighty God. Now at touching my worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me, my will is that the same shall be disposed of in manner and form following (viz):

Imprimis: I give and bequeath to my eldest son William West three hundred acres of land being part of a tract of land called the Two Brothers, on which he is now seated, and to lie according as it hath already been laid out for him, it being upon Watts Branch near Captain John, to him and his heirs forever.

Item 2. I also give and bequeath unto him 100 acres of my tract called The Joseph, to be laid out on the northwest side of the Muddy Branch, to him and his heirs forever. I give and bequeath unto my son, John West, 200 acres of land being part of the aforesaid tract of land called the Two Brothers and laying on the north side of the said Watts Branch over against the said William West's land to him and his heirs forever. I also give and bequeath unto him 200 acres of my tract of land called The Joseph to be laid out on the south side of the Muddy Branch to him and his heirs forever.

Item 3. I give and bequeath to my daughter Mary Kelly 100 acres of land where she now lives, being part of a tract of land aforesaid called the Two Brothers, to her and her heirs forever.

Item 4. I give and bequeath unto my son, Benjamin West, after my wife's decease, my tract of land called Blackburn, lying upon the Western Branch of the Patuxent being the plantation whereon I now dwell, to him and his heirs forever.

Benjamin received also live stock on the plantation, barrels of nails, coopers and carpenters' tools, and two feather beds and furniture. To his wife, Rebecca, Joseph gave the right to live on any of the tracts of land, and all his personal estate.

In closing this chapter, the writer asserts her belief that a relationship existed between Joseph West and John West, the artist's father, as has been affirmed by other writers in a general way, but what that relationship was, cannot be definitely stated until better proof is obtained than has been so far submitted by any publication.

CHAPTER VII

WEST FAMILIES OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY, MARYLAND

JOSEPH WEST and his wife, Rebecca, of Prince George's County, Maryland, were the parents of several children, three of whom settled in Montgomery County along the Potomac River on land lying between Cabin John, as it is now known, and Seneca. These children were:

1. William West b. Sept. 25, 1695
2. Mary West b. about 1703
3. John West b. about 1705
4. Benjamin West b. about 1707

1. William West, the eldest son of Joseph and Rebecca, was born in Prince George's County, Maryland, Sept. 25, 1695. His birth is registered in the Parish book of St. James Church of Herring Run Parish in Anne Arundel County. The Episcopal Church of St. Barnabas at Leeland in Prince George's had not yet been built and Herring Run was the nearest church. In 1719, when the parishioners in Queen Anne's Parish of Prince George's petitioned for a new church to be established in the upper part of the parish, which would be where Rock Creek Church now is, the names of Joseph, William and John West appeared in the list. The old parish extended 90 miles at that time and reached as far as the Seneca River, so that if William and John were living along the Potomac at that time, they were a very great distance from any church. A chapel was established on the edge of what is now the National Capital, at Rock Creek, but the church was not built until 1726. William West appears as a vestryman at that date in this church. Curiously enough the names of none of his children appear in the parish books though some of them must have been born before Christ Church was established at Rockville, which would have been their church of attendance then. William married Esther ———, but the names of her children give no indication of her maiden name. A copy of his will follows:

In the name of God Amen, 28th day of August Anno Domini 1750, I William West of Frederick County in the province of Maryland in holder, being sick and weak but of perfect mind and memory thanks be given to God for this same, and being desirous to settle my affairs in due order, I hereby annul and make void all or any will or wills heretofore by me made. First I recommend my soul to Almighty God that gave it, firmly hoping for salvation through the merits of Jesus Christ my blessed Redeemer and my body to be buried in such decent manner as my executrix hereafter named shall deem meet, and as to my worldly goods, I will that they be disposed of in manner following:

Inprimis, I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Easter, the third part of the tract of land I now dwell in (being part of the Three Brothers and containing 300 acres) during her natural life and after her decease as follows: Item, I give and bequeath to my beloved son Benjamin the sum of 25 pounds sterling or 50 pounds current money to be paid by my 4 sons, Samuel, Joseph, William and John in consideration of the lands hereafter given to them.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my beloved sons Samuel Joseph and William, all my tract of land, part of the Three Brothers containing 300 acres, their Mother to have her third thereof during her natural life, and they to pay to their brother Benjamin when he shall arrive to the age of 21 years, the sum of 18 pounds, 15 shillings sterling, or thirty seven pounds in shillings currency, each to pay an equal part in consideration thereof I give them the said 300 acres to be equally divided amongst them share and share alike by any 3 persons shall choose, to them and their heirs forever.

Item. I give and bequeath to my beloved son John 100 acres of land, part of a tract called The Joseph lying in Frederick County, to him and his heirs forever he paying to his brother Benjamin when said Benjamin arrives at the age of 21 years, 6 pounds 5 shillings sterling, or 12 pounds 10 shillings currency. And lastly after my debts and funeral charges are paid, I give all my personal estate whatsoever and wheresoever to my beloved wife Easter West during her natural life and after her decease to my 3 daughters Ruth, Easter, and Mary to be equally divided amongst them share and share alike, and of this my last will and testament, I leave my said wife sole executrix.

William and Esther were the parents of eight known children:

5. John West b. about 1722
6. Joseph West
7. William West
8. Samuel West
9. Benjamin West b. about 1735
10. Ruth West
11. Esther West
12. Mary West

2. Mary West, the daughter of Joseph and Rebecca West, was born about 1703, probably in Prince George's County, Maryland. She must have been married in 1730, because there is recorded in the Land Office in Annapolis the marriage of Mary West, daughter of Joseph. of Prince George's County, to Joseph Kelly, in 1730. By the will of her father, Mary received part of the tract of land known as Two Brothers. She had at least one son, Joseph Kelly.

3. John West, known as John West, Sr., the son of Joseph and Rebecca West, was born about 1705 in Prince George's County, Maryland. In 1727 his mother and father gave him a part of Two Brothers, and this gift was restated in Joseph's will. By the terms of this will he also received two hundred acres of The Joseph on the south side of Muddy Branch. His portion of Two Brothers, two hundred acres, lay on the north side of Watt's Branch. John West, Sr., may have been twice married, though the only indication of that would be the fact that he left property to his wife, Frances, in conjunction with his four youngest sons, which allotment Frances promptly refused and elected to take her dower rights. However, Frances, in her will which was probated Mar. 18, 1769, mentions with affection her oldest son, John.

In 1755 the Court records of Frederick County, show that one John West gave land to his son, John, Jr., and on the same day he made a gift to his son, William West, of a part of The Joseph. It has not been possible to prove whether this was John, the son of Joseph, who made this gift; or John, the son of William, there being very little information to be obtained about this latter John West. Had the gifts above mentioned been made to John and Benjamin the two oldest sons of John West, Sr., planter, the matter would have been made clearer, but William was very young at this time, in fact, under age, and there seems no reason for him to have been singled out in this way. The name of Frances, the wife of John West, is not known, but the two youngest children bear the names of families who were old residents of Prince George's County, Basil and Osborne. John and Frances West lived on a plantation in what is now Montgomery County, but most of their descendants seem to have left there, either just before or just after the Revolution.

They were the parents of six children:

13. John West, Jr., b. about 1730
14. Benjamin West
15. Joseph West
16. William West, Jr.
17. Basil West
18. Osborne West

The name of John West appears among the petitioners of the church in Queen Anne's Parish in 1719 to establish a church where Rock Creek Church now stands, but his name does not appear in the Rock Creek Parish records, and it is possible that he affiliated with Christ Church, which was established near Rockville in 1726. The records of this church are no longer in existence. An excerpt from the will of John West, probated in Frederick County, Maryland, June 13, 1766, follows:

Imprimis, Item, I give and bequeath unto my well-beloved son, John West, all my part of a tract of land called The Joseph, lying on the east side *of a branch called commonly the Muddy Branch, which is 200 acres where his dwelling now is * * * Item, I give and bequeath unto my well-beloved son, Benjamin West, part of a tract called Discontent, Resurveyed, being 169 acres of land where his dwelling now is * * * Item, I give and bequeath unto my 4 youngest sons, namely, Joseph, William, Basil and Osborne West, part of a tract of land called the Two Brothers which is 200 acres, with 8 negroes * * , and to my well-beloved wife, I give an equal part with my 4 youngest sons above-mentioned in 3rd paragraph, that is to say an equal part of the 200 acres and 8 negroes during her life-time, and after her decease her part shall return to my 4 youngest sons with all my movable estate.

I appoint my two well-beloved sons, Joseph and William executors.

PRISCILLA ANDERSON
JOHN ANDERSON

In addition to the land which John, Sr., planter, had inherited from his father, Joseph, he bequeaths a plantation, Discontent, which he had purchased in what is now Montgomery County, in 1755.

4. Benjamin West, the son of Joseph West and Rebecca, was born about 1707, and married in 1728, Susanna Stockett, of Anne Arundel County. Their descendants are fully treated in the chapter entitled "Descendants of Joseph West of Frederick County, Maryland."

5. John West, Sr., farmer, was the son of William West and Esther, and was born about 1722 or earlier. He received, by the terms of his father's will, one hundred acres of The Joseph on the west side of Muddy Branch. His wife's name was Ruth, and on the same day in 1767, John West and Ruth sold two parcels of The Joseph. In one transfer, he is spoken of as "John West, farmer." In the same year, John, Sr., bought land called "Addition to Raystown. It has been impossible to learn any more about this John West but an old history mentions Raystown as lying north of Fort Frederick, and to the west of Fort Cumberland, which would bring it well toward what is now West Virginia, if not within the boundaries of that state.

6. Joseph West, the son of William West and Esther, was born in what is now Montgomery County, about 1725. He was married to Mary, whose name appears in land transactions with that of her husband. It is not known positively who their children were, but in the records in the Episcopal Cathedral in Washington, D. C., appear the births of two children, whose parents were Joseph and Mary West:

19. Edward Owen West b. March 26, 1760
20. Laurence Owen West b. Dec. 14, 1762

7. William West, the son of William West and Esther, was born about 1730 in what is now Montgomery County, and died there in 1778. He married Elizabeth ——— who, after his death, married Philip Casey, a widower, in 1780. Elizabeth died in 1782. She left two sons:

21. Thomas West b. October 19, 1762
22. Joseph Duvall West

After her death, much trouble arose over the division of property left by her first husband, William West, and inherited by his two sons. Philip Casey, their stepfather, claimed that he had paid money on the tract called Raceground, which William West had not yet entirely paid for. William's mother, Esther West, also entered into the controversy, and declared that her son, William, had told her before he died that he had enough provisions for two years and that his widow had told her that there was enough money in a chest to finish paying for the land. There was a struggle also for the guardianship and they passed from hand to hand, James Perry, Richard Wooten, Joseph Wilson and William O'Neale serving at various times. The two boys had inherited a goodly amount of land, among the pieces being part of Two Brothers, in which their grandmother still had a claim.

8. Samuel West, the son of William West and Esther, was born about 1733 and died in 1778, in Montgomery County the same year as his brother, William. He married Sarah and they were the parents of nine children, only four of whom were mentioned in his will. It is likely that the other five were daughters. The West families who still reside in Montgomery County, Maryland, are probably almost entirely descendants of Samuel and Sarah. Their four sons were as follows:

23. Richard West
24. Samuel West
25. William West
26. Norman West

9. Benjamin West, the son of William West and Esther, who was under age when his father's will was made, was probably born about 1735, in Montgomery County, Maryland. According to the terms of his father's will, his brothers were to pay him money and he did not receive any land. However, in 1762, one Benjamin West, planter, sold his part of The Joseph to John West, Jr. The name of his wife is not positively known but it is thought she was Vorlinda Hilleary. In the Cathedral records, the birth of one of these two children of Benjamin and Vorlinda West, is recorded:
(See page 151.)

27. Henry West b. 1760
28. Hilleary West b. Oct. 12, 1765

12. Mary West, the daughter of William West and Esther, was born in Montgomery County. A record in the Land Office in Annapolis states that Mary West, the sister of Benjamin West of Prince George's County, married Bryan Kelly in 1745. It should be understood that Montgomery County was included in Prince George's County until 1746 and was part of Frederick County until 1776. Therefore, when the name Montgomery County is used before the date of 1776, the term refers to what is now Montgomery County.

13. John West, Jr., the son of John West, Sr., planter, and his wife, perhaps Frances, was born in what is now Montgomery County, about 1730. He married Rachel, the daughter of James Perry, one of the seven men who were commissioned by the State of Maryland to lay out the town of Georgetown. They were the progenitors of such a large number of descendants, for whom this book was especially written, that they will be treated in a separate chapter, under the head of "The Descendants of John West and Rachel Perry, of Bourbon County, Kentucky."

14. Benjamin West, the son of John West, Sr., planter, was born in what is now Montgomery County, Maryland. He inherited from his father the plantation Discontent. The name of his wife is not known but he had one daughter, Anne West, who was mentioned in the will of her grandmother, Frances West. (Further information has been learned about this family and placed on page 151.)

15. Joseph West, the son of John West, Sr., planter, and Frances West, was named as executor in his father's will in conjunction with his brother, William, who decided not to act. The inventory of the estate and final sèttlement was made in June, 1778. In Dec., 1778, a Joseph West, Jr., planter, sells to William West, son of John, his part of Two Brothers. This was probably the same Joseph; and since it was in Aug., 1778, that Joseph West gave a note to John West (his brother, no doubt, who was a large land holder in Kentucky at this time), which note was signed by Benjamin, we may conclude that Joseph was preparing to leave Maryland and settle in some other state. He was a soldier in the Revolution in the Fifth Company, Middle Battalion of Montgomery County, and he is not found in any of the census lists of this county. It is more than likely that he moved to Kentucky.

16. William West, Jr., the son of John West and Frances was born in what is now Montgomery County, Maryland. The name of his wife is not known. He was a soldier in the Revolution and may be found mentioned in Vol. VI, p. 3, of the National Genealogical Society Quarterly. He was in the Fifth Company of the Middle Battalion in Montgomery County. No further information can be learned about him after he bought part of Two Brothers in 1778, until 1791, when he appears in a number of transactions. He may have gone to North Carolina, or to South Carolina, where his brothers reappear.

17. Basil West, the son of John West, Sr., planter, and Frances West, was born in what is now Montgomery County, Maryland. He was a private in the Revolutionary War and appears with his brothers in the Fifth Company of the Middle Battalion of Montgomery County. These lists are in the rooms of the Maryland Historical Society in Baltimore. His wife was Phebe and her name appears with his in land transfers. The last of these is in 1793, when they are given as residents of Wilkes County, Georgia, or Carolina, as the record has it in the Montgomery County Court House. There seemed to be some question in the mind of the clerk as to which state was meant, so he entered both. This writer has not been able to find Basil West in the census list of either Georgia or North Carolina in Wilkes County, but he did appear in 1792 in the tax lists of Kentucky and, there is in the possession of a descendant of his brother, John, a note given by Basil to his nephew, Simeon West, of Kentucky, dated 1791. It is likely, therefore, that his stay in Georgia or Carolina was not a permanent one. A Basil West is found in the 1820 Census of Rutherford County, Tennessee, and Basil and Stockett West are found living near each other in 1820 in Champaign County, Ohio. Apparently, Stockett West was named for Susanna Stockett, the wife of Basil's uncle, Benjamin West.

18. Osborne West, the son of John West, Sr., planter, and Frances West, was born in what is now Montgomery County, Maryland. He was probably the youngest of the family and born about 1752, which would have made him of age in 1773, the date at which the four young brothers made a partition of their parcel of land which their father had left them, together. Osborne West was a soldier in the Revolution in the same company with his brothers.

He married Dorcas Trail Nov. 19, 1778, this record being contained in Dr. Brumbaugh's Maryland Records, Vol. II, p. 521. Osborne West does not appear further in Montgomery County after 1789, when he sells his part of Two Brothers to William Fulks, but in the Census of 1790 in Spartanburg County, South Carolina, one Osborne West occurs. A William West is also found there and in 1800, a Joseph West, who is over forty-five years, also appears. The census of 1810, among other West families, records William, Joseph and Osborne, all over forty-five, and Simon West, twenty-six to forty-five. Simon is a family name of this branch of Wests. However, his birthplace is given as South Carolina in the census of 1850. There are other things to indicate that this Osborne of South Carolina is the one from Montgomery County, Maryland, one being the fact that the younger Osborne has in his family a son, Rezin West, which is the name of a nephew of Osborne, who moved to Kentucky.

19. Edward Owen West, the son of Joseph and Mary West, was born Mar. 26, 1760. He does not appear in the census lists of Montgomery County, but one Edward West was a soldier in the Revolution in the Fifth Company of the Middle Battalion of Montgomery County.

21. Thomas West, the son of William West and Elizabeth, was born in Montgomery County, Maryland, Oct. 19, 1762. He married in 1793 Eleanor O'Neale, the daughter of William O'Neale. His marriage is recorded in the Land Office at Annapolis. Thomas West not only inherited a good deal of land but he also acquired much property. His name occurs frequently in land transactions in the court records. His death occurred about 1811 and the sale of his personal effects, farm equipment, etc., exclusive of real estate, brought $4,500, a very large sum in those days. He left a young family, consisting of:

29. Erasmus West b. July 27, 1798
30. Sarah West
31. Anne West
32. Henry West b. March 29, 1801
33. Eliza Cassandra West b. April 14, 1803, d. 1844, unm.
34. Emily E. C. West b. Dec. 30, 1805, d. 1844, unm.
35. Julius West b. Oct. 24, 1808
36. Richard West

22. Joseph Duvall West, the son of William West and Elizabeth ———, was born in Montgomery County, Maryland, about 1764. He sold his part of Two Brothers to his brother, Thomas West, in 1802, and moved to the District of Columbia. He appears in many transactions in the District Court records up to the year 1830, after which, his name occurs no more. He had probably died about that time, unmarried.

23. Richard West, the son of Samuel West and Sarah, married Sarah O'Neale, the daughter of William and Sarah O'Neale. He was executor of the estate of Sarah O'Neale in 1814. He appears in a number of court records and died in 1833. The children of Richard and Sarah were:

37. Eleanor West
38. Anne West
39. William West

24. Samuel West, the son of Samuel West and Sarah, was born in Montgomery County, Maryland, and lived there until about 1815, when he moved to Scott County, Kentucky. He was Registrar of Wills in 1777. He married Eleanor Middleton of Virginia and they were the parents of seven children, among them:

40. Albert West b. 1810
41. Richard West b. Feb. 26, 1819
42. Rebecca West b. 1822

25. William West, the son of Samuel West and Sarah ———, was born in Montgomery County, Maryland. The various William Wests of this county are almost impossible to identify but one William West died in 1807 and Samuel West was administrator of the estate. Anne West was a witness. In the Cathedral records, William and Anne West are recorded as the parents of:

43. Roger Nelson West b. Nov. 2, 1799
44. Maria West b. Aug. 10, 1801

Samuel West was appointed guardian of these two Oct. 30, 1815, and his sureties were Norman West and William O. West. He made a report on the estate in 1815, and a distribution was made in November of that year to Roger and Maria West.

26. Norman West, the son of Samuel West and Sarah, was born in Montgomery County, Maryland. He married Elizabeth, and their descendants are still living in Montgomery County. The birth of one child, Garey Davis West, is recorded in Brumbaugh's Maryland Records, Vol. II. Information about the rest of the family has been kindly given by Mr. Joseph West, of Potomac, who appears to be the oldest one now living; and by Mr. Robert Lee West, of Washington, D. C., who has furnished a very complete list of later members of the family. The children of Norman and Elizabeth were:

45. Garey Davis West b. Sept. 25, 1798
46. Samuel West b. 1802
47. Tilghman West b. 1804
48. Upton West b. 1807

29. Erasmus West was the son of Thomas West and Eleanor O'Neale. His mother was a member of a very prominent family. They appear in Charles County in the early history of Maryland, and the writer was told, by one of the descendants, that they belonged to the family of Lord O'Neale of Ireland. It seems for a time that the name was shortened to Neale, but later generations replaced the "O" which had been dropped. They were intermarried with prominent families in Prince George's County, and also intermarried among themselves very frequently. Erasmus was born July 27, 1798, and married his cousin, Anne West, the daughter of Richard West and Sarah O'Neale. They were the parents of several children, among them:

49. Cassandra Eleanor West
50. Margaret Anne West d. y.

30. Sarah West, the daughter of Thomas West and Eleanor O'Neale, was born in Montgomery County, Maryland. She married Evan Jones and they were the parents of:

51. William Brook Jones
52. Mary Jones
53. Arabella Jones unm.
54. Martha Jones unm.
55. Harriet Jones
56. Sarah Eliza Jones
57. Richard Jones unm.
58. Nathan Jones unm.

31. Anne West, the daughter of Thomas West and Eleanor O'Neale, was born in Montgomery County. She married John Wade Jan. 3, 1810, and they moved to Tennessee.
32. Henry West, the son of Thomas West and Eleanor O'Neale, was born Mar. 29, 1801, and died in 1868. He married Eliza Higgins, who was born in 1805, and they were the parents of:

    59. Henry Montgomery West b. 1832
    60. James Thomas West b. 1833
    61. Eliza Cassandra West
    62. Ellen Marian West b. 1842

33. Eliza Cassandra West, the daughter of Thomas West and Eleanor O'Neale, was born April 14, 1803, in Montgomery County, Maryland, and died unmarried at Rockville in 1844.
34. Emily E. C. West, the daughter of Thomas West and Eleanor O'Neale, was born Dec. 30, 1805, in Montgomery County, Maryland. She died unmarried in 1844 at Rockville.
35. Julius West, the son of Thomas West and Eleanor O'Neale, was born Oct. 24, 1808, in Montgomery County, Maryland. He married Sarah Kidwell in 1844. Julius West died in 1860 and as he had no children, he left a large bequest for a school for poor children in the town of Rockville. He inherited the old West homestead on the edge of Rockville, and had acquired much property during his lifetime. His two unmarried sisters lived with him until their death.
36. Richard West, the son of Thomas West and Eleanor O'Neale, was born in Montgomery County, Maryland. He moved to Winchester, Clark County, Kentucky, long before the Civil War, and some of his descendants may still be in Kentucky. He was a physician and was the father of Richard, Charles, Julia, Thomas and:

63. Gilson West
64. Eleanor West

37. Eleanor West, the daughter of Richard West and Sarah O'Neale, was born in Montgomery County, Maryland. She appears several times in the court records and asks in 1839 that the administrator of her father's estate be Erasmus West, her brother-in-law, for her brother, William, who had been administrator, had died in 1838. She apparently died unmarried, in 1843.

38. Anne West, the daughter of Richard West and Sarah O'Neale, married Erasmus West, her cousin, Jan. 1, 1829. They were the parents of one daughter who grew up, Cassandra West, given under Number 29.

39. William West, the son of Richard West and Sarah O'Neale, was born in Montgomery County, Maryland. It has not been possible to clearly identify him, since there were a number of William Wests in the county at the same time, but it is thought that he was William C. West who died in 1838. In 1842, when a final account was given of the estate of Richard West, distribution was made to Eleanor, Anne, and to the representatives of William, deceased. Whether William was married and had heirs, or whether the heirs were his two sisters, Eleanor and Anne, is not known to this writer.

41. Richard West, who seems to be the descendant of Samuel West and Eleanor Middleton, was born in

Scott County, Kentucky, Feb. 26, 1819. Armstrong's Biographical Encyclopedia of Kentucky, p. 614, says he was one of seven children. He was graduated from Georgetown College in Kentucky, and became a fancier of choice stock. He was the owner of several widely known race horses. He was married twice, the first time to Edmonia Sammell, in 1851, and had two children by his first wife and one by his second. They were:

CHAPTER VIII

DESCENDANTS OF JOSEPH WEST OF FREDERICK COUNTY, MARYLAND

THROUGH the assistance of Miss Susan West, formerly of Bellevue Hospital of New York City; and of Dr. Levin West and his sister, Mrs. William Schnauffer, of Brunswick, Maryland, the writer has been able to obtain a splendid record of the descendants of Joseph West and Sarah Hilleary, of Frederick County, Maryland. Miss West has some very old records, and Mrs. Schnauffer has several old family Bibles.

The father of Joseph West was Benjamin West, of Prince George's County, and he was the youngest son of Joseph West and Rebecca. Benjamin West was born about 1707 and inherited the family plantation of Blackburn on the western branch of the Patuxent, probably near the present town of Bladensburg. He married May 16, 1728, Susanna Stockett, born Mar. 26, 1709, the daughter of Capt. Thomas Stockett and his wife, Damaris, of Anne Arundel County, and they resided on this ancestral plantation. They were the parents of Benjamin, who must have died in infancy, and:

1. Joseph West b. Nov. 28, 1731
2. Sarah West b. 1733

1. Joseph West, son of Benjamin West and Susanna Stockett, was born in Prince George's County, Maryland, Nov. 28, 1731, and died in Frederick County, near Petersville, Dec. 22, 1797. He married Sarah Hilleary, who was born Nov. 10, 1733, and who died Jan. 17, 1807. The Hilleary family was a large and distinguished one, with many branches, some living near Harper's Ferry, on the Maryland side, and others scattered from there to Prince George's County. They were descended from Chamberly Hilleary, Baronet of Dunbury, England, whose son, Thomas, came to America about 1661. ("Of Sceptered Race," by A. R. Watson, p. 271.) Joseph's uncles and aunts had migrated from Prince George's County and were living along the Potomac in what is now Montgomery County. He, himself, evidently felt that he should pioneer forth also, and either to gain more land or to be near his wife's relatives, he left Prince George's about 1760 and settled near Petersville in Frederick County, Maryland, which at that time was still a wilderness and inhabited by Indians.

Frederick Town was an army outpost which had been established for the protection of those sturdy colonists who were continually pushing farther West. Petersville was twelve miles southwest of Frederick, in the historic "Maryland Tract," and the early settlers of this district were either English immigrants or colonists from Maryland and Virginia. Among the first here were the Lees, Morrisons, Wests, Hillearys, Clagetts, Cramptons and Garretts. (See Scharf's Western Maryland, p. 619.)

Sarah West, the sister of Joseph, must have died about this time, leaving Blackburn to her brother, though no mention of it has been found in the court records; but in 1764 Joseph West, Sr., of Prince George's and Frederick Counties, sells four acres of the tract called St. Andrew's of which Blackburn was a part. In 1765 Joseph is spoken of in a transfer as Joseph West, Sr., of Frederick County.

It was at this time that he had the boundaries of Younger Brother settled by a commission. This same year he and his wife, Sarah, sold part of Re-Survey on Younger Brother to Thomas Kelly. Twice again the same year, he sold part of the same tract. In 1769 Blackburn was increased by land bought from Joshua Beale, which touched Three Sisters formerly laid out for Thomas Tilghman. The estate finally passes out of the hands of the family in July, 1796, when Blackburn, fully described, is sold to Tilghman Hilleary by Joseph West and his wife.

Long before this, however, Joseph and Sarah had established themselves permanently in Frederick County, for in 1760 a Joseph West had patented land there under the name of West's Chance, and this very likely is the place he selected for his home. This is still known as Locust Grove and lies about a mile from Petersville on a high plateau which surveys the surrounding country. Dr. Levin West says that the family tradition is that when Joseph West was ready to build, he had a negro climb a tree and choose what seemed to be the highest point. On that, he built his house. This is a substantial old-fashioned dwelling of well-balanced proportions. It is covered with stucco and its dignified beauty is enhanced by big stone chimneys at each end. A stone spring house and other out-buildings make a pleasing picture in the background. Joseph West brought to his new home a number of heirlooms belonging to his father, Benjamin West, and these are now in the possession of Dr. Levin West and his sister, the choicest one being a handsome grandfather's clock which was imported from England by Benjamin West. Joseph and Sarah were the parents of Benjamin and Arabella West, who died unmarried, and who long lived in the old home place, and of the following children:

3. Sarah West
4. Erasmus West b. 1760
5. Susanna West
6. Eleanor Hilleary West
7. Harriet West
8. Anne West b. 1766
9. Thomas Hilleary West b. 1767

2. Sarah West, daughter of Benjamin West and Susanna Stockett, was born about 1733. When she died we do not know, but she evidently died unmarried because her brother, Joseph, appears later as owner of the home plantation, Blackburn, which had been given to her by the will of her father, Benjamin West.

3. Sarah West, daughter of Joseph West and Sarah Hilleary, was probably born in Frederick County, Maryland. She married Mr. Crowe and they moved to one of the western states.

4. Erasmus West, son of Joseph West and Sarah Hilleary, was born in 1760 and married Mar. 19, 1790, Eleanor Belt, the daughter of Capt. Jeremiah Belt and his first wife, Mary Skinner. Capt. Jeremiah Belt's father, Joseph Belt, was the owner of the land on which was established Chevy Chase, a suburb of Washington, D. C. 16. Joseph Johnson

6. Eleanor Hilleary West, daughter of Joseph West and Sarah Hilleary, was born in Frederick County and married Patrick McGill of the same place. The McGills were of Scotch-Irish origin and descended from James McGill, created Viscount of Oxford and Lord McGill by King Charles in 1651.

   Eleanor and Patrick were the parents of a number of children, and one of their descendants, Eleanor McGill, married her cousin, Patrick West.

7. Harriet West, daughter of Joseph West and Sarah Hilleary, was born in Frederick County, Maryland, and married 1st, Tilghman Beale, of the same place, and 2nd, John Aldridge, of Loudoun County, Virginia.

8. Anne West, daughter of Joseph West and Sarah Hilleary, was born in 1766 in Frederick County, Maryland, and married Nov. 9, 1796, Capt. Jeremiah Belt, as his fourth wife. This made a complicated family relationship as his daughter by his first wife had married his fourth wife's brother.

9. Thomas Hilleary West, son of Joseph West and Sarah Hilleary, was born about 1767 and died May 18, 1803. He married Sarah McGill, the sister of Patrick McGill Jan. 17, 1787. She died Dec. 4, 1828. ## CHAPTER IX

JOHN WEST AND RACHEL PERRY, OF BOURBON COUNTY, KENTUCKY

JOHN WEST, of Bourbon County, Kentucky, was born about 1738 in Prince George's County, Maryland. He was the son of John West, and grandson of Joseph, the founder of the line. His mother was probably Frances. About 1758 he married Rachel Perry, daughter of James Perry, of Montgomery County, Maryland, who was one of the seven men commissioned by the State Legislature to lay out Georgetown, now in the District of Columbia. James Perry speaks in his will of his daughter, Rachel West; and her brother, James Owen Perry, leaves his sister, Rachel West, of Paris, Kentucky, an annuity.

The father of John West died in 1766. Even before his death John and Rachel had begun disposing of their land in Montgomery County, and in 1772 they sold part of The Joseph and also part of the tract called Resurvey on Arpos. The supposition is, that either they had moved away before this, or were on the point of doing so. On account of the very strong conviction among their descendants that they were Virginians there seems basis for believing that John and Rachel had gone to the western part of Virginia before their final removal to Kentucky.

They may have gone about the time of their first land sale in 1765. Moreover, the birth of their last child recorded in the parish church at Rock Creek was in 1765. Probably the other children were born in Virginia. The fact that Henry West in the 1880 census gave the birthplace of his father, Simeon, as Virginia

(though he was born in Maryland) is evidence that the family was there at some time.

John West and Rachel attended the parish church on the edge of the present city of Washington, now commonly known as Rock Creek Church. Their four oldest children were baptized there, and it was the registry of their births in the books of this church that forged the final link connecting the Kentucky branch with the parent tree. Their descendants, visiting Washington, should not fail to visit the quaint old church, as well as the new Episcopal Cathedral where the parish books are now kept. These are not accessible to the public, however, on account of their very dilapidated condition.

A record of Revolutionary service has not been discovered for John West, though two John Wests appear in the Maryland line. All his brothers were in the war and more than likely he was also, but probably in the Virginia line. He has not been identified among the many John Wests of that state. One John West of Augusta County, Virginia, received an allotment of land in Kentucky in 1772. A John West of Rockbridge County, Virginia, served with the First Dragoons, Company C, in the First Virginia Cavalry. These two counties were the great Mecca for settlers.

The wills of John West and Rachel are filed in the courthouse at Paris, Kentucky. Neither one mentions their four oldest children. Rachel speaks of her relative, Richard Wooten, of Montgomery County, Maryland, who was her brother-in-law. She died in Bourbon County in 1819, and John West died in 1791. They were the parents of:

1. Reason West b. May 31, 1760
2. Rebecca West b. Sept. 23, 1762

3. Simeon West b. Dec. 23, 1763
4. William West b. May 29, 1765
5. Sarah West
6. Margaret West
7. Martha West
8. John West
9. Roger P. West

1. Reason West, son of John West and Rachel Perry, was born in Montgomery County, Maryland, May 31, 1760. We have no further record of him, but the 1810 census of Franklin County, Kentucky, gives a Reason West over 45, which age would correspond with that of our subject. The list also contains a John West, 26 to 45 years old, who may be his younger brother. In the census of 1830 a Rezin West, 70 to 80 years old, is found. This spelling brings up a query as to the origin of the name. In Kent County, Maryland, lived the Rasin family who were connected with the Halls, and the Halls seem in some way related in early days to the Wests. The name Rasin is sometimes spelled Rezin.

2. Rebecca West, daughter of John West and Rachel Perry, was born in Montgomery County, Maryland, Sept. 23, 1762. There is no further record of her.

3. Simeon West, son of John West and Rachel Perry, was born in Montgomery County, Maryland, Dec. 23, 1763. The parish register gives the date as 1764, which must have been confused with his baptismal date. Even the date on his tombstone does not exactly coincide with that of the register. Simeon West was not mentioned in the will of his parents, but at one time he was very wealthy and he probably had more land than they had. His home was in Mason County, Kentucky, near Maysville, and the court records are full of his transactions from 1785 until his death. His first home in Kentucky was in Bourbon County.

There is a family tradition that when Simeon was very young he went with a party of immigrants from Virginia to Kentucky, and on his return to Virginia traveled alone. One night, while sleeping some distance from a cabin, he was awakened by a terrible outcry, and from his hiding place in the underbrush he was horrified to see a band of Indians attacking the cabin, burning it and slaying the occupants. This incident is related by his great-granddaughter, Martha West Hedrick, in a brochure entitled "A Sketch of My Life."

Simeon West married about 1788 Elizabeth Hopkins. She is said to have been born in South Carolina, but nothing has been found to substantiate this. This writer is inclined to believe that she was a member of one of the many Hopkins families of Maryland, possibly from one which migrated to South Carolina. She was the widow of Major Bedell, of the Revolutionary War, and the Bedells also are found in early Maryland records. There are numerous records of the intermarriage of Wests and Hopkins in this state. Simeon West died in 1835 and his will requested that he be buried beside his daughter, Maria, who died in childhood. His grave is in the Shannon Churchyard, about seven miles from Maysville, Kentucky. The tomb is walled up with stone, surmounted by a slab on which is this inscription:

CYNTHIA WEST EADES

In Memory of
Simeon West who departed this life
June 10-1835, aged 73 years
5 mos. and 15 days.
Farewell vain world for I am gone
From all thy cares to rest,
Into the bosom of my God
And be forever blessed.

In 1927, when the writer discovered this grave in an out-of-the-way corner of Kentucky, the tomb was in very good condition after a period of almost 100 years. The graveyard is in a sightly place at the top of a very steep hill, and is well-kept, though some of the country roads leading to it were almost impassable. The spot seems very much isolated today, but probably Simeon lived near there in his early married life. His wife, Elizabeth, died Jan. 17, 1847, aged 86, and is buried in the Eades family lot in the cemetery at Paris, Kentucky. Simeon West and Elizabeth Hopkins were the parents of:

10. Lysander West b. Mar. 4, 1792
11. Eliza West b. 1794
12. Cynthia West b. 1795
13. Thomas H. West b. 1796
14. Simeon West b. 1797
15. Elizabeth West b. 1799
16. Caroline West b. 1802
17. Henry West b. 1804
18. John F. West b. 1806

4. William West, son of John West and Rachel Perry, was born in Montgomery County, Maryland, May 29, 1765. We have no further record of him, but there was a William West in Franklin County, Kentucky, in 1810.

5. Sarah West, daughter of John West and Rachel Perry, married Robert Eades, of Bourbon County, Kentucky, who was the son of Robert and Mary Eades, of Montgomery County, Maryland. They were parishioners of Rock Creek Church and the births of their children were registered there. Since there were several intermarriages of the West and Eades families, it may not be out of place to give the names of the Eades children: 1. Rebecca, b. 1756; 2. Nathan Lodge, b. 1758; 3. Edward Jones, b. 1759; 4. Charles, b. 1760; 5 and 6. William and Robert, b. 1762; 7. Thomas, b. 1764. The old spelling of the name was Eads, and it is so spelled in the parish register. James Buchannan Eads, who built the Mississippi River bridge at St. Louis, was of a Maryland family, and probably related.

6. Margaret West, daughter of John West and Rachel Perry, was mentioned in their wills.

7. Martha West, daughter of John West and Rachel Perry, was also mentioned in her parents' wills.

8. John West, son of John West and Rachel Perry, according to the terms of his father's will, was given the land near Paris, Kentucky. We have no information about him but there was filed in Mason County, Kentucky, in 1859, the will of John A. West, Sr., who speaks of his wife, Margaret B., and his children: 1. William K; 2. Samuel M.; 3. Joseph S.; 4. John A., Jr.; 5. Frances Jane; 6. Robert. This may have been Simeon's younger brother.

9. Roger P. West, son of John West and Rachel Perry, is mentioned in the wills of both. He was identified as one of the heirs of his mother by his relatives, Asa and Thomas Eades. According to the Year Book of the S. A. R., 1913, one Roger West, of Kentucky, saw service in the War of 1812. Miss Susan West, of New York City, says that when she was a child, an old gentleman, Roger West, of Kentucky, visited in her home in Frederick County, Maryland. He seemed to be a distant relative. Probably this was the one.

10. Lysander West, son of Simeon West and Elizabeth Hopkins, was born in Bourbon County, Kentucky, Mar. 4, 1792. On Nov. 12, 1812, he was married to Lucy Kemper, who died Mar. 6, 1876. (See Kemper Family book.) They made their home in Garrard County, Kentucky, and were the parents of:

    19. Simeon West b. Oct. 8, 1811
    20. Elizabeth West b. Oct. 23, 1815
    21. Zerelda West b. Oct. 3, 1817
    22. Lysander West b. Nov. 9, 1819
    23. Artemisia West b. Oct. 27, 1821
    24. John Kemper West b. Sept. 15, 1823
    25. Lucy West b. Sept. 24, 1826

11. Eliza West, daughter of Simeon West and Elizabeth Hopkins, was born in Kentucky, probably Bourbon County, in 1794. She married Jackson or John Fielder, who was born about 1791. The family is found in the 1850 census of Pike County, Missouri. They are given as the parents of one child, Polly Fielder, who was fourteen at that time, and born in Missouri.

12. Cynthia West, daughter of Simeon West and Elizabeth Hopkins, was born in Kentucky, probably Bourbon County, in 1795. Her will was probated in 1867. She married Asa Eades, born about 1799, who was her first cousin, the son of Thomas Eades of Bourbon and Nicholas Counties, Kentucky. Cynthia and Asa Eades were the parents of:

26. Mary Eliot Eades
27. Asa Thomas Eades
28. Elizabeth Eades
29. Lucy Campbell Eades

Cynthia and Asa Eades are buried in the town cemetery of Paris, Kentucky.

13. Thomas H. West, son of Simeon West and Elizabeth Hopkins, was born in 1796, probably in Bourbon County, Kentucky. He married his first cousin, Martha West, and moved to St. Louis about 1820. He appears thereafter in the St. Louis Directory until the year 1879. His wife is recorded in the 1880 Directory; in the United States census list of 1880 her name is given as "Matilda," but she has always been known as "Martha" in the family records. Thomas H. West became a lumber merchant in St. Louis, owned a saw mill and built up an extensive business. There were three children in the family, of whom two are:

30. George Washington West b. 1830
31. Judith or Juliet West

14. Simeon West, son of Simeon West and Elizabeth Hopkins, was born in Bourbon County, Kentucky, in 1797, and died in Franklin County, Tennessee, Apr. 27, 1866. His home was in Garrard County, Kentucky, until about 1860. He married Louisa Johnson, who died Sept. 26, 1864. They were the parents of:

32. John West b. 1832
33. Simeon West, Jr. b. 1835
34. Cynthia West b. 1837

15. Elizabeth West, daughter of Simeon West and Elizabeth Hopkins, was born in 1799, probably in Bourbon County, Kentucky. She married her first cousin, Thomas Eades, the brother of Asa and the son of Thomas Eades, of Paris, Kentucky. She appears in the 1860 United States census as living in Paris, Kentucky, but according to the family records, she died in Kansas City, Missouri, at the home of her son. Her other son died in Kentucky.

16. Caroline West, daughter of Simeon West and Elizabeth Hopkins, was born in 1802 in Bourbon County, Kentucky. She married Thomas Stewart, who was born in 1798. They moved to Rush County, Indiana, and were the parents of:

    35. William L. Stewart b. 1824
    36. Simeon Stewart b. 1826
    37. James H. Stewart b. 1830
    38. Caroline Stewart b. 1833
    39. Emily M. Stewart b. 1836
    40. Harrison Stewart b. 1839
    41. Sarah E. Stewart b. 1842

17. Henry West, son of Simeon West and Elizabeth Hopkins, was born in Mason County, Kentucky, Feb. 15, 1804, and married before he was twenty, Mary Liter, who was born Feb. 12, 1804, in Bourbon County, Kentucky. Henry West had worked for Philip Ament in Bourbon County, who lived nearby the Liter family and was connected with them by the marriage of his daughter. The Liters were originally from Frederick County, Maryland, where other branches of the family still reside, though the name is variously spelled. Mary Liter was a very frail person, scarcely ever weighing over one hundred pounds. She had very dark hair, dark brown eyes, and olive skin.

After the marriage of Henry West and Mary Liter in 1823, they lived on a farm in Bourbon County, but in 1840, they bought a farm in Scott County, Kentucky, two miles from Georgetown and twelve miles north of Lexington. From here they moved to a farm one mile from Georgetown. On July 16, 1848, Mary Liter West died and two of their children died the same year. Henry West, stricken with grief, decided to leave Kentucky, and on Mar. 4, 1851, he left his old home for Illinois. That summer he stayed with his married daughter, Mary, who was living near LeRoy, McLean County, Illinois, and the following winter he spent in St. Louis. In the fall of 1853, he moved from Kentucky to a farm which he had bought, twenty miles east of Bloomington, Illinois. This is in West Township, which was named for him.

There were only six families in the township at that time and Henry West was supervisor for ten years. He was a man of sound judgment, good business ability and a genial disposition. He did much for the township, preventing sale of school lands for $3.50 an acre. In politics he was a Whig and on the dissolution of that party, he became a Democrat. These facts are taken from the reminiscences of Martha Hedrick West. She further says: "Judge David Davis and Abraham Lincoln stayed all night at our house one night, and Mr. Lincoln told his friends that he had never met any one who could tell a story with more wit, point and character than my father." After this visit Mr. Lincoln sent a note of thanks to his hostess, Miss West, and this letter was treasured for many years, but unfortunately, someone else saw the value of the note and to the great grief of its possessor, it disappeared, no one knows by what means.

In 1868 Henry West married Mrs. Addie Davis and they resided in Bloomington, Illinois, until his death, Sept. 10, 1885. He was buried in the Bloomington Cemetery. His first wife, Mary Liter West, was buried in Kentucky on the home farm one mile east of Georgetown. A stone wall enclosed the family lot. All the descendants of Mary Liter are qualified for membership in the D. A. R. through her grandfather, Christopher Boyer. Henry West and Mary Liter were the parents of Lucinda, John and William, who died without descendants, and of:

42. Mary Anne West b. Nov. 12, 1824
43. Simeon Henry West b. Jan. 30, 1827
44. Catherine Elizabeth West b. Jan. 28, 1829

46. Martha West b. July 1, 1834

18. John F. West, son of Simeon West and Elizabeth Hopkins, was born in 1806 in Mason County, Kentucky. The writer has no further record of him and he may or may not be the John F. West, wagonmaker, who appears in the 1850 census of Grant County, Kentucky. The name of his wife is Sophronia, and their children are: 1. Oliver P. West; 2. John W. West; 3. Elizabeth West; 4. Nancy West; 5. Sarah West; 6. George W. West; 7. Amanda West; 8. Melissa West; 9. Lucinda West; 10. Jasper West.

94. Carrie Campbell Knapp
95. Edwin K. Knapp

30. George Washington West, son of Thomas H. West and Martha West, was born in 1830 in St. Louis, Missouri. He was unmarried and lived in St. Louis until his death which occurred about 1900. According to Heitman, Vol. II, a George W. West of St. Louis was in the Mexican War. This note coincides with other records of Washington West, as he was known in the family, for he does not appear in the St. Louis Directory from 1850 until 1871. During that period also, he went with his cousin, Simeon H. West, of Scott County, Kentucky, to California during the gold rush, and after the Mexican War. In 1871 he was a practicing physician in St. Louis. He had one sister, Judith or Juliet.

32. John West, son of Simeon West and Louisa Johnson, was born in Garrard County, Kentucky, about 1832. He moved with his parents to Franklin County, Tennessee, where he married Lucy ———. Of these, two lived in Salem, Tennessee, while the descendants of most of the others moved to Texas.

96. Simeon C. West b. 1866

33. Simeon West, Jr., son of Simeon West and Louisa Johnson, was born in Garrard County, Kentucky, about 1835, and was living with his parents in 1860, in Franklin County, Tennessee.

42. Mary Anne West, daughter of Henry West and Mary Liter, was born in Bourbon County, Kentucky, Nov. 12, 1824, and died in McLean County, Illinois, Nov. 3, 1861. She was married July 8, 1841, to Montgomery Crumbaugh, who was born June 4, 1813, in Scott County, Kentucky. His parents lived near Georgetown and his father, Solomon Crumbaugh, was born in Frederick County, Maryland, the son of Conrad Crumbaugh of the same place. Solomon Crumbaugh married Mary Winters and they lived on a large farm two or three miles from Georgetown, where they had a saw and grist mill, a cheese factory, all of which were cared for by many slaves. The present writer visited the old homestead in 1925 and saw what remained of the farmhouse. It was of ample dimensions, two stories high, with dormer windows, a central staircase and two enormous stone chimneys at the ends of the house. These stones had been cut by hand from rock cliffs on the farm and were so perfect that no cement was used in the building of the foundation of a new house for which these chimneys were torn down.

Montgomery Crumbaugh was very large and very "dressy," as his sister-in-law, Martha Hedrick, said, and was called "Uncle Bucky" by his young relatives. He was an old bachelor when he was married to Mary Anne West, who was just sixteen. He had been brought up in a household of amplitude where even the drinking cups were of solid silver and these cups, a silver tea service and many dozens of silver spoons of various sizes are in the possession of relatives today. However, due to an ill will between Montgomery and his father, all he ever received from his parents was a feather bed, which his mother secretly slipped out of a window to him.

After Montgomery and Mary had been married three months, they moved to Illinois in a two-horse wagon. They settled three and a half miles south of LeRoy in McLean County. So little did he think of the value of farm land in that day that at one time, when land was about fifteen dollars an acre, Mr. Crumbaugh kept fifteen hundred dollars in the bank rather than lose it by investment in cheap land. Seventy-five years later that same land sold for $300 an acre. The farm house which Montgomery Crumbaugh built is still standing. The farm, in the family for eighty-five years, is now in the possession of Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Brock, the latter a daughter of Mr. Crumbaugh. On July 15, 1880, Montgomery Crumbaugh died and was buried beside his wife in a little country graveyard, about two miles from the farm. They were the parents of the following children:

43. Simeon Henry West, son of Henry West and Mary Liter, was born in Bourbon County, Kentucky, Jan. 30, 1827, and died in LeRoy, Illinois, Apr. 2, 1920, at the age of 93. He married June 21, 1863, Martha O'Neale, who was born Oct. 2, 1848, in Ross County, Ohio, and died Dec. 16, 1920, in LeRoy, Illinois.

She was the daughter of Eleazar O'Neale, born in 1825, and Margaret Jones, born in 1829. Eleazar O'Neale was the son of Samuel O'Neale, born in Virginia in 1798, and Martha Cowgill, born in Ohio 1799. The parents of Martha Cowgill were Eleazar Cowgill, born in 1777, and Jane ———, born in New Hampshire in 1780.

Simeon H. West spent a long life of thrilling adventure and varied experiences. He made two trips to California during the gold excitement, making the first one with his cousin, Washington West, of St. Louis. He was at that time twenty-five years old. After this trip, he came back to Illinois and improved a 200-acre farm, which his father gave him, by breaking the prairie land with oxen. Becoming restless, he again went to California and stayed two years this time. Returning by the way of Vera Cruz and New Orleans, his ship sank in Lake Nicaragua and the drowning passengers were rescued by natives.

This was only the beginning of many trips which he made as transportation improved, and he crossed the continent in every way from stage coach and horseback to luxurious Pullman. After his marriage, he continued to invest in land in McLean County, Illinois, until he had about 1,000 acres. He served in the Illinois Legislature and took an active interest in politics. Had he not been a Democrat in a Republican state, he would doubtless have achieved great prominence politically. He was the author of a book entitled "Simeon West and His Times," which has been of great assistance in working out this genealogy. In 1902, he built a beautiful home in LeRoy, where he resided until his death.

He was the donor of a park outside the town of LeRoy which is one of the few pieces of woods of old trees remaining in the county. The West Association comprised of the descendants of Henry West and Mary Liter meets in this park annually. Simeon West and Martha O'Neale were the parents of Charles West, who died in youth, and:

44. Catherine Elizabeth West, daughter of Henry West and Mary Liter, was born in Bourbon County, Kentucky, Jan. 28, 1829, and died in Arrowsmith, Illinois, Sept. 21, 1917. She married Oct. 5, 1848, Moses H. Cawby, who was born in Scott County, Kentucky, June 11, 1823, and died in Arrowsmith, Illinois, Aug. 1, 1909. Mr. Cawby was a cabinet maker when a young man and Mrs. Eliza Pemberton of Lexington, Kentucky, has a beautiful mahogany workbox that was made for her by Mr. Cawby when she was a child. He was later in the furniture business in Georgetown, but moved with his wife to Illinois in the fall of 1853. Mr. Cawby also invested in prairie lands and acquired about 1,000 acres. He and his family were devout members of the Christian Church which was the affiliation of most of the children of Henry West and Mary Liter. Mrs. Cawby was very plump and jolly, interested in politics, and had the mental keenness of the West family. She it was who gave the writer her earliest information about the family, saying that the traditions contained the names "Perry" and "Snow." The name "Perry" has been placed, but it remains for some other genealogist of the family to identify the "Snow." Mr. and Mrs. Cawby were the parents of:

112. Henry M. Cawby b. Jan. 17, 1850
113. Elizabeth C. Cawby b. July 29, 1852

45. Louisa West, daughter of Henry West and Mary Liter, was born in Bourbon County, Kentucky, in 1831, and died July 4, 1908, at LeRoy, Illinois, while on a visit. She was buried in Kentucky. In 1851 she was married to Dr. H. Jackman and they lived at Lancaster, Harrodsburg and Louisville, Kentucky, at different times. During the Civil War, she performed a very courageous act, crossing a river on a raft and riding thirty miles on horseback at night to carry a piece of important news to an army camp. The details of the story are given in the records of McLean County Historical Society. Her son, Mr. C. D. Jackman, writes that his mother committed to memory the entire New Testament in six weeks and recited it before a contest committee. She and Dr. Jackman were the parents of:

120. Mary Jackman b. 1856
121. Edwin Jackman

46. Martha West, daughter of Henry West and Mary Liter, was born in Bourbon County Kentucky, July 1, 1834, and died in LeRoy, Illinois, Apr. 12, 1921.

She married, Sept. 20, 1864, George W. Hedrick, who was born Oct. 6, 1836, near LeRoy, Illinois. He was the son of Elijah Hedrick, born in Fleming County, Kentucky, and the grandson of Jacob Hedrick, whose father was ——— Hedrick, a wagoner in the Revolutionary Army. The mother of Mr. Hedrick was Susanna Lake, born in Fauquier County, Virginia, the daughter of Thomas Lake and Elizabeth Welch. Elizabeth Welch was born in 1784 in Essex County, Virginia, the daughter of Capt. Michael Welch, the settlement of whose estate is recorded in that county. Family tradition says he commanded a vessel during the Revolution.

Martha West was educated in Georgetown, Kentucky, at a female seminary under the auspices of the Christian Church. One of the teachers was Miss Harriet Stanwood, who later married James G. Blaine, then teaching in a military school in Georgetown. In her book Mrs. Hedrick tells of her first journey to Illinois. She made the trip by stage to Frankfort, by boat to Louisville, and then by another boat down the Ohio River to St. Louis. This was on the first trip of a new boat called the Lexington and on board were P. T. Barnum and Jenny Lind. The Swedish Nightingale received a royal welcome in St. Louis and fabulous prices were paid to hear her sing. From St. Louis our travelers went to Pekin, Illinois, by water and then by stage to LeRoy, Illinois. Martha West returned to Kentucky but finally moved to Illinois with Mr. and Mrs. Cawby in 1853, and went to live on the farm where her father had built a house. She records that it was a great change from their life in Georgetown, where everyone had nice homes, fine carriages with drivers and footmen, and many servants; and the pioneers felt the change keenly at first. Ague was prevalent and the winters were cold, with no trees to break the sweep of wind across the prairies. Deer often came to the farm houses seeking food and shelter. Neighbors were far apart and the roads impassable much of the time. However, the land was rich and cost little more than a dollar an acre at first and that encouraged the settlers to remain. In eleven years Martha West's father had bought and improved three thousand acres.

The usual farm work of those pioneer days included cradling wheat by hand, cutting fence rails from the timber, sawing logs for the mill, killing from twenty to forty hogs a year, making great jars of lard, barrels of soft soap, vinegar, sausage, smoking meat, and drying and grinding red pepper. The housewives, in addition, did a vast amount of knitting, weaving and sewing. Martha West and George Hedrick were the parents of:

Mrs. Murray has in her possession an old note dated 1791, given by Basil West to Simeon West. It is this note more than anything else that furnished the clue which finally solved the secret of the ancestry of Simeon West. The writer long tried to discover John West, the father of Simeon, in the State of Virginia, where he probably did live for a time, but "Basil" is clearly not a Virginia name. It is just as unmistakably a Maryland name, though nowhere in the family traditions was the State of Maryland ever mentioned. Mrs. Murray graciously looked over her old papers many times while the effort was being made to ferret out the origin and identity of John West.

126. May Hedrick, daughter of Martha West and George W. Hedrick, was born Nov. 22, 1874, in McLean County, Illinois. The writer wishes to acknowledge her gratitude to Mrs. Riddle for her keen interest and helpfulness in the research work connected with this genealogy. She also has an old note dated Aug. 20, 1778, given to John West by Joseph West. It is witnessed by Benjamin West. These names, with those on Mrs. Murray's note, finally identified the particular West family in Maryland that was the parent stem of so many branches in Kentucky. That such valuable papers have been carefully guarded for 150 years is a source of gratification to all of us.

Mr. and Mrs. Riddle live in LeRoy, Illinois, and are the parents of:

In the midst of his busy school days, when he was working in the day time and studying at night, he still had time to organize Bible classes for young men. In 1908 he married Helen Margretta Beale, a member of the old and well-known Beale family of Prince George's County, Maryland. Her ancestry is found in McKenzie's Colonial Families, Vol. II, p. 310. ## CHAPTER X

WOODYARD WESTS OF PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY, MARYLAND

Sir Stephen West, the first ancestor of this line in America, is recorded in "The Founders of Anne Arundel and Howard Counties" as the son of Sir John West of "Houghton," England (a De La Warr). The county of this Houghton is not named and as there are villages called Houghton in counties Norfolk, York, Essex, Northampton, Sussex and Bedford, England, it has not been possible to determine from which of these counties he came. Some one of his descendants may have more exact information in his possession, but this should be noted: the Calverts (Lord Baltimore family) came from Yorkshire and what more natural than that some of the Yorkshire Wests should have come also? A significant fact is, that the West family of Hunself, Yorkshire, contained a Stephen West, not the son of, but the grandson of a John West.

Sir Stephen West, the immigrant, settled in Anne Arundel County in the early part of 1700. He married Elizabeth ——— Aug. 21, 1712, and this is recorded in the records of St. James Church on Herring Creek. Elizabeth died in December, 1725. Robert Wood in his will which was probated in 1729 makes a bequest to Priscilla, Elizabeth and Elinor West and mentions his cousin, Stephen West, as his executor. Whether he was related to Stephen, or to Elizabeth, is not known. After a five months' period of widowerhood Stephen married Martha Hall in another parish Apr. 28, 1726. Stephen West already had five children by his first marriage and by his second he had eight more.

In 1733 he bought a lot in Londontown near Annapolis, on the South River, where he lived until his death Jan. 5, 1752, when he was over 70 years of age. He was said by the Maryland Gazette to be the oldest inhabitant of the town. In his will he made a bequest to his cousin, Anne Caton, and mentioned his children by name. Their names have a decided New England tinge and a study of the family of Matthew West of Rhode Island, whose descendants came to Monmouth County, New Jersey, in the middle of the Seventeenth Century, reveals the name Stephen and especially the name Robert, which was the name of Stephen's oldest son. Stephen's children were:

1. Mary West b. May 30, 1714
2. Priscilla West b. Apr. 12, 1716
3. Robert West b. Sept. 1719
4. Elizabeth West b. Apr. 15, 1721
5. Elinor West b. May 22, 1723
6. Stephen West b. July 23, 1727
7. Mary West b. July 6, 1729
8. Mary Magdalene West b. Sept. 19, 1731
9. John Henry West b. Sept. 2, 1733
10. Rebecca Anne West b. Feb. 10, 1735/6
11. Martha West b. Dec. 13, 1738
12. Anne West b. Aug. 19, 1741
13. John West b. Feb. 17, ——

Stephen West and his wife, Martha, who died Apr. 8, 1752, were buried in the All Hallows' Churchyard in Anne Arundel County. The parish records contain the births of all of Stephen's children.

2. Priscilla West, daughter of Stephen West and Elizabeth, was born Apr. 12, 1716. She married Richard Smith and they were the parents of:

14. Priscilla Smith

4. A daughter of Stephen West, of Anne Arundel County, married Mr. Austin, and they were the parents of:

    15. Elinor Austin
    16. Henry Austin

5. Elinor West, daughter of Sir Stephen West, was married to a Mr. Lyles, and they were the parents of:

    17. Priscilla Lyles
    18. Martha Lyles
    19. Barbara Lyles
    20. William Lyles

6. Stephen West, Jr., son of Stephen West, was born in Maryland. He married Mar. 5, 1753, Hannah Williams, the daughter of Capt. William Williams of Wales, who had settled in Prince George's County. Hannah inherited "Woodyard," an estate once owned by Henry Darnell, brother-in-law of Lord Baltimore, and situated near Marlboro. The Wests lived here for many years, and in fact it was the family home up to the time of the Revolution or afterward, but the manor house was later burned, and the site is now occupied by a farm house built fifty or sixty years ago. Stephen West was a merchant prince for many years and especially during the Revolution, and he was permitted to make his own money. He was a member of the South River Club, socially prominent, and was one of the signers of Maryland's Declaration of Independence in 1775. (Richardson's Maryland History.) The Maryland records are full of items referring to supplies furnished by Stephen West to the soldiers during the Revolution. He died in 1790, but his wife, Hannah, was still living in 1798. Their children were:

21. Martha West
22. Stephen West
23. John West
24. William West
25. Rachel Sophia West
26. Richard Williams West
27. Elizabeth West

8. Mary Magdalene West, daughter of Stephen West and Martha Hall, was born Sept. 19, 1731, in Anne Arundel County, Maryland. She was married Mar. 29, 1752, at All Hallows Church to Richard Moore, of Welsh descent. His ancestry is found in MacKenzie's Colonial Families of the United States and in Browning's Americans of Royal Descent. He died Dec. 4, 1760, leaving the following children:

28. Hannah Moore
29. Richard Moore
30. Stephen West Moore

21. Martha West, daughter of Stephen West, Jr., and Hannah Williams, was born in Prince George's County. She married John Dorsey Lawrence, who was born in 1743. Their descendants are fully given in the Talbot Family Book, p. 57.

22. Stephen West, son of Stephen West, Jr., and Hannah Williams, was probably born in Prince George's County, at Woodyard. It is not certain who his wife was but the following records in the Land Office at Annapolis might well be inserted here to show the difficulty of identification:
1766 a Stephen West married Hannah Gordon.
1770 a Stephen West married Hannah Hall.

1784 a Stephen West (son of Stephen and Martha) married Hannah ———.
1788 a Stephen West married Anne Pue.
1798 a Stephen West married Nancy Pue.
The children of Stephen West were:

32. Harriet West
33. Arthur Pue West
34. Charles H. S. West

25. Rachel Sophia West, daughter of Stephen West and Hannah Williams, was probably born at Woodyard in Prince George's County, Maryland. She married, Jan. 25, 1790, Benjamin Oden.

26. Richard Williams West, son of Stephen West and Hannah Williams, was probably born at Woodyard in Prince George's County, Maryland. He married Maria Lloyd, who was born Mar. 11, 1782, and died Jan. 15, 1868. She belonged to the well-known Lloyd family of Philadelphia and Maryland, whose history can be found in various geneaiogical books. They were the parents of:

35. Lieut. Richard West
36. Capt. Edward Lloyd West b. 1807

27. Elizabeth West, daughter of Stephen West and Hannah Williams, was born about 1753, probably at Woodyard in Prince George's County, Maryland. She married James Stone in 1783.

31. Samuel Preston Moore, son of Mary Magdalene West and Richard Moore, was born in Anne Arundel County, Sept. 14, 1756. He died at Salem, Virginia, May 2, 1822. He was married Mar. 11, 1780, to Susanna Pearson, of Philadelphia, and they were the parents of the following children:

37. Stephen Moore
38. Charles Moore, U. S. N.
39. Martha Moore
40. Major Thomas Preston Moore
41. Richard West Moore
42. Hannah Moore
43. Sarah Moore
44. Mary Anne Moore
45. Lamar Moore
46. Pearson Moore

32. Harriet West, daughter of Stephen West and Anne Pue, was born in Maryland about 1790. She married Benjamin Oden Aug. 21, 1813. Her name appears often with those of her brothers in settling up the affairs of their father, Stephen West, in the District of Columbia and in Prince George's.

33. Arthur Pue West, the son of Stephen West and Anne Pue, was born in Anne Arundel County, probably in 1798. He married, May 29, 1821, Ellen Oden, who was born in 1802. They were the parents of:

47. Arthur J. West b. 1824
48. Benjamin Oden West b. 1826
49. Thomas L. West b. 1830
50. Maria Lloyd West b. 1832
51. V. O. West b. 1833
52. Bedell L. West b. 1836
53. Dodridge P. West b. 1840

34. Charles H. S. West, the son of Stephen West and Anne Pue, was probably born in Anne Arundel County. He was married Oct. 24, 1827, to Eliza J. Wakefield, and he did not long survive his marriage, because his will was probated in 1831.

41. Richard West Moore, the son of Samuel Preston Moore and Susanna Pearson, was the father of Jasper Yeats Moore, whose son was Clarence

Moore, who was lost in the Titanic disaster. A full account of his life is given on p. 342 of MacKenzie's Colonial Families.

45. Lamar Moore, the son of Samuel Preston Moore and Susanna Pearson, of Philadelphia, was probably born in Maryland. He is chiefly of interest to us on account of his name, since we have no record of his descendants, if he had any. One of the sons of Benjamin West, artist, was named Lamar. This was the name of a family prominent in Colonial times, and since Benjamin West married a Philadelphia lady, the name Lamar may have been in her family. The thought has occurred to the writer that some of the claims of West families of relationship with Benjamin West, artist, may have arisen through connection on the Pearson side of the house. We have record of several intermarriages of Wests and Pearson families.

47. Arthur J. West, the son of Arthur Pue West and Ellen Oden, was born in Maryland in 1824. He married Margaret ———, who was born in the District of Columbia in 1839. They were the parents of:

54. Mary R. West b. 1857
55. Ellen M. West b. 1859

48. Benjamin Oden West, son of Arthur Pue West and Ellen Oden, was born in 1826. He married Helen M. ———, and they resided in the District of Columbia. His will, which was probated Jan. 6, 1857, left his estate in a trust fund for his wife, children, sisters and brothers, but did not mention them by name. He was the father of:

56. Benjamin O. West
57. Helen O. West

CHAPTER XI

DESCENDANTS OF IGNATIUS WEST OF NORTH CAROLINA

THE material on which this chapter is based is in the hands of Mrs. Edgar West, of Spencer, Indiana, who kindly lent it to a relative of the writer. Some additions have been made, and new data which seems to belong to this family has been placed under the state grouping.

The ancestry of Ignatius West has not been discovered but it seems likely from the peculiarity of some of the names prevailing in the family, that this branch must have emigrated from Maryland or have sprung from the same root from which the Maryland Wests were derived. An Ignatius West was born in Montgomery County, Maryland, about 1775, and an Ignatius West died in Fauquier County, Virginia, in 1793. What connection, if any, exists between these different ones has not been determined. The name, Keren-Happuch, which is carried through the families descended from Ignatius West, of North Carolina, is also found in Prince George's County, Maryland, and in Fairfax County, Virginia.

Ignatius West, the head of this branch, was born Dec. 13, 1750, in Chatham County, North Carolina. He married on July 17, 1777, Elizabeth Meacham, who was born June 20, 1758, and died in 1829. Two of their daughters married Richardsons and their descendants live mostly in Illinois. Ignatius and Elizabeth were the parents of nine children:

1. Lucy West
2. Elizabeth West
3. William West
4. Jemima West
5. Jane West
6. Kezia West
7. Isaac West b. Oct. 11, 1794
8. Keren-Happuch West b. Mar., 1797
9. Dicea Hastings West b. July 18, 1801

3. William West, son of Ignatius West and Elizabeth Meacham, was born in 1784 in Chatham County, North Carolina, and died in Kentucky Sept. 10, 1813. In 1803 he married 1st, Elizabeth Cook. They were the parents of one child:

10. Abram West b. Sept. 11, 1806

After the death of Elizabeth, William married 2nd, Susan Lacey. They were the parents of twins:

11. William West b. Jan. 9, 1813
12. Harmon West b. Jan. 9, 1813

10. Abram West, son of William West and Elizabeth Cook was born in Chatham County, North Carolina, Sept. 11, 1806. He died in Hendricks County, Indiana, May 31, 1857. He was married Nov. 27, 1825, to Sina Hadley, the daughter of Jacob Hadley. She was born in Chatham County, North Carolina, Feb. 10, 1806, and died Feb. 22, 1863, near Pecksburg, Indiana. After the death of his mother, Abram lived with his grandparents Cook, but married at the age of nineteen. After the birth of two babies, Abram and Sina migrated to Indiana in 1829 through the influence of a relative who had gone before.

Abram's possessions consisted of three horses and six hundred dollars. He entered 320 acres and built a cabin on the bluff south of where Solomon Cloud was living some years ago. They did not like this location and in a year built another cabin one-half mile south, where the residence of Sylvanus Makes now is. The new house was on the road under construction from Stilesville to Danville, Indiana, and before the doors were hung, Abram was called to work on the road, returning each night to his cabin.

Wolves were numerous and on the night before the road was finished, Abram could not come home to guard his family in the house still without doors. His wife, in terror of the wolves, took her children back to the old cabin for the night.

Some time after this, Abram took two horses to Kentucky, visited his step-mother and relatives there, sold the horses, made the journey home on foot and invested the money in Indiana land. As was usual with pioneer families, everything they had was made at home. Abram had a large tanning trough and made shoes for the family. By 1833, he had accumulated a herd of cattle and other stock which ran in the woods. One night a fierce hurricane blew the roof off the cabin and brought down great trees all about it. Abram expected to lose all his stock, but morning found the cattle huddled safely among the ruins of the forest.

A grist mill at Pecksburg and a saw mill at Springtown were later interests of Abram West. He and his wife were charter members of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Pecksburg, now abandoned, and their cabin was headquarters for all preachers who passed that way. The subject of our sketch was a heavy set man, strong and of great endurance. He was even-tempered, good-natured and a fluent talker. He and Sina were the parents of:

CHAPTER XII

DESCENDANTS OF WILLIAM WEST OF CHATHAM COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

THE data in this chapter has been furnished through the courtesy of Mrs. Otto C. Preuss, of Kansas City, a descendant of William West. Mrs. Preuss has very generously turned over, not only this material, but also other information, gathered for her own publication. There has existed in her family the tradition of relationship to Benjamin West, the artist, although records are lacking to support this family belief. However, this writer is inclined to think that many of the older West families found in Virginia and Maryland, including those along the Potomac, can be traced to the Quaker Wests of Chester County, Pennsylvania, and Wilmington, Delaware, (of which Benjamin West's family was a part); or to the Anthony West line of the Eastern Shore of Virginia.

William West, the ancestor of a large number of descendants who settled in Simpson County, Kentucky, and from there migrated into both western and southern states, was born in 1752. It has been the family tradition that he was born in England, but investigation leads one to believe that he was a native of this country, probably of Virginia; and he may have been of the second or third generation born here. He was one of eleven brothers who at some time lived along the Potomac River, but records show that as early as 1770 he was in North Carolina.

William West enlisted in Chatham County, North Carolina, in April, 1781, and served as a private during the rest of the Revolutionary War. The various officers under whom he served were Captains Nash, William Douglas, William Gibson, Abram Allen, William Jones; and Colonels John Literall, and John Malone. He fought in the battle of Lindley's Mill. On Aug. 16, 1832, he made application for a pension and this was granted, the papers of which are on file in the Pension Bureau in Washington, D. C. At this time he was living with James Milliken in Simpson County, Kentucky; in which county he died in 1842. William West married Miss Clendennen, whose name is thought to be Angeline. They were the parents of:

1. Ibby West
2. John West
3. Leonard West
4. James West b. Aug. 27, 1772

1. Ibby West, daughter of William West and Angeline Clendennen, was born in Simpson County, Kentucky. She married a Mr. Holcolm.

4. James West, the son of William West and Angeline Clendennen, was born in Simpson County, Kentucky. He married Oct. 1, 1807, Mary Mourning Howard, who was born July 14, 1784, and died in 1869 in Simpson County, Kentucky. It has been a family tradition that the mother of Mary Mourning Howard was Amelia Putnam, a direct descendant of Israel Putnam of Revolutionary War fame. The names Putnam and Amelia have been retained as the generations have passed and appear in different branches of the family.

James West and a companion purchased materials for brick houses and James West constructed the first one in the State of Kentucky. It stands today in Simpson County, in a splendid state of preservation, and the farm is still called the "West Farm." That he was a man of thrift, and able to accumulate wealth, is clearly indicated by his land holdings and slaves. His wife, Mary Mourning Howard, was a woman of redoubtable courage as proven by the following incident. Left alone one day with her negro servant, she was the victim of a surprise attack by Indians. The negro woman was killed, but Mrs. West fought the Indians off until help came and she was rescued. James and Mary Howard West are buried in Simpson County, Kentucky, the date of Mr. West's death being 1844. They were the parents of:

5. Preston Milton West b. Aug. 28, 1808
6. Tilman Howard West b. May 8, 1810

6. Tilman Howard West, son of James West and Mary Mourning Howard, was born May 8, 1810, in Simpson County, Kentucky, and died Oct. 3, 1884, in Kansas City. He married Elizabeth James, daughter of John and Mary Poor James. She was born Nov. 25, 1816, in Logan County, Kentucky, and died Nov. 2, 1904, at Mountain Grove, Missouri. She and her husband are buried in Union Cemetery, Kansas City, Missouri, a memorial cemetery maintained by the city where many of the earliest citizens of Kansas City rest.

In 1844 Tilman and Elizabeth West went from Russellville, Kentucky, to Pleasant Hill, Missouri. This town was a good business point, and was settled in the early days by an excellent class of people from Kentucky, Virginia and Tennessee. Mr. West was postmaster there in 1847. They then moved to Randolph, Clay County, where he bought land and farmed. From there they moved to the growing town of Harlem in the same county on the north bank of the Missouri River. Opposite, on the south bank was Westport Landing, which later became Kansas City.

Mr. West established and operated a hotel at Harlem which was one of the largest towns on the river, and at the same time continued buying land from the Government in Clay and Jackson Counties. He later crossed the river and became one of Kansas City's earliest settlers. Out of the rocky hillside he hewed a place large enough for a store building and conducted a general merchandise business on the levee. He enlarged his business enterprises to include a clothing store, and in 1854, owned and operated a grist mill at Blue Springs, Missouri. At the outbreak of the Civil War all business was discontinued, and at its close, Mr. West and his two sons, Richard and William, established the largest men's clothing store in Kansas City. Tilman West remained in Kansas City the rest of his life with the exception of the years 1778-81 spent in Pleasant Hill, Missouri. He and his wife helped organize and were charter members of the Methodist Episcopal Church South in their home city. At the time of her death, Elizabeth West was the oldest member in point of years of membership in the church.

Tilman Howard West was a man of piety, business integrity, and kindly, unassuming manner. He was held in the highest esteem by his fellow citizens and his name on a legal paper needed no further guarantee. It was this honesty that crippled him financially when he became security for a relative to the amount of $60,000. Tilman Howard West and Elizabeth James West were the parents of Luther Virgil West, Mary Mourning West and Henry Clay West, who died young, and:

19. Oscar Dunreath West b. about 1840
20. Richard James West b. June 22, 1843
21. William Newton West b. Sept. 1, 1847

5. Maleta West, daughter of James West and Mary Mourning Howard, was born in Simpson County, Kentucky, Mar. 26, 1812, and died Sept. 28, 1880.

She married Sept. 6, 1831, Nathaniel Ector Harrelson, born Jan. 10, 1807, in Caswell County, North Carolina. He was the son of Jeremiah and Martha Bracken Harrelson. Maleta West and her husband both died in Cass County, Missouri, and they are buried in the family lot at Pleasant Hill. They came from Simpson County, Kentucky, to Missouri, in 1831. Nathaniel Harrelson bought hundreds of acres of land from the U. S. Government at 25 cents an acre and later sold it for hundreds of dollars an acre. ## CHAPTER XIII

MASSACHUSETTS WESTS IN MANY OTHER STATES

AN ENTIRE volume could be devoted to the Wests of New England alone. These are largely descended from one man, Francis West, of Duxbury, Massachusetts, who was the head of a brilliant and distinguished line. In this book, however, we have confined ourselves to the early members of the family, deeming them sufficient to establish a relationship with those descendants now living in the South and West.

From a dozen different sources material for this chapter has been gathered, for no other line has received more attention than this one. The Massachusetts family of Wests was among the first to send its roots deep into the soil of America, and a host of descendants, within a century, settled in adjoining states.

Years ago discussion raged over the English ancestry of this Francis, and an endeavor was made to prove that he was a descendant of Capt. Francis West, one of the three early De La Warr Wests who came to this country. Banks says that the claim has no basis in fact. Regardless of this controversy, however, the subject of our sketch was the ancestor of some very famous American professional men, and their attainments could well lead one to believe that there was exceptional blood in the family.

There came to light a few years ago a tombstone in New Bedford, Massachusetts, the inscription on which was printed in Tyler's Quarterly Magazine, Vol. 6, p. 119:

Front

Was born at Yarmouth, C. C., March 3, 1729/30 O. S., ordained in this place June 3, 1761.

Relinquished his pastoral charge in June, 1803. Died in Tiverton, R. I., Sept. 24, 1807.

Back

Sackville West was son of Thomas West, physician, the son of ——— West, the son of Capt. Francis West, brother of the third Lord De La Warr, Governor of Virginia. Capt. West came from England to Virginia in 1608.

The publication of this did not settle the question but instead brought up two or three other points that were open to argument. The marriage between the Sackville and De La Warr families was too late to have been responsible for the naming of Dr. Sackville West, in 1729, and moreover, this physician had always been known as "Sackfield" West. This writer has only one word to add: there were Sackvilles in Wiltshire in 1600. (Wiltshire Collections by Aubrey and Jackson, p. 351.)

The native home of Francis West of Duxbury seems to have been in Salisbury, Wiltshire, England. He was born about 1626 and came to America as a carpenter. He married Margery Reeves, Feb. 27, 1639, also of Duxbury, but they spent part of their lives in Plymouth, Massachusetts. Francis West died Jan. 2, 1692, leaving the following children:

1. Mary West b. 1640

3. Samuel West b. 1643
4. Dr. Thomas West b. 1646

2. Ruth West, daughter of Francis West and Margery Reeves, was born in Duxbury, Massachusetts, in 1641. She married Nathaniel Skiff, who died in in 1741, aged 90.

3. Samuel West, son of Francis West and Margery Reeves, was born in Duxbury, Massachusetts, in 1643, and died there May 8, 1689. He married Sept. 26, 1668, Triphosa Partridge, daughter of George and Sarah Tracy Partridge of Duxbury. Their descendants remained mostly in Connecticut. They had the following children:

6. Francis West b. Nov. 13, 1669
7. Juen West d. y.
8. Samuel West b. Dec. 23, 1672
9. Peletiah West b. Mar. 8, 1674
10. Hon. Ebenezer West b. July 22, 1676

13. Bathsheba West

4. Dr. Thomas West, son of Francis West and Margery Reeves, was born in Duxbury or Plymouth, Massachusetts, in 1646. He married Elizabeth ———, and moved to Tisbury in 1673. Dr. West was a man of skill and superior ability, and the first known physician on Martha's Vineyard. He also seems to have been a lawyer of rank, because he was King's attorney and solicitor at various times. He later joined the Chase family, near Homes Hole, where he bought thirty acres from Ponit, the Indian Sachem, and later acquired several hundred acres on the west side of the lagoon. In 1700, the households of Thomas West, Isaac Chase and Edward Cottle, comprised the town and numbered 27 persons; by 1750 the Wests alone numbered 30 persons. Dr. West and his wife had become members of the Seventh Day Baptist Church of Newport, Rhode Island, prior to 1692, but in 1702 he was excommunicated for not keeping the tenets of the church. His family, however, continued in good standing. At least six of the descendants of Dr. West and his wife were graduates of Harvard before 1800, and were distinguished clergymen of New England. Dr. West died in 1706, and his wife, who was born in 1653/4, died in 1728. Both were buried in West Tisbury. They were the parents of ten children who, for the most part, resided in Connecticut:

He was married three times: 1st, to Mary Howes, Apr. 7, 1716; 2nd, to Ruth Jenkins, May 7, 1729; and 3rd, to Hannah Bacon. He had three or more children, two of whom, Rev. 23. Judah West, son of Dr. Thomas West and Elizabeth, was born in Tisbury in 1696. He married Bethiah Keen of Pembroke, Massachusetts, Sept. 3, 1718. His grandson was Philander Bailey West, who had a son, George Mortimer West of Panama City, Florida. He wrote an excellent sketch of their ancestor, who was once lieutenant-governor of Rhode Island.

In Revolutionary days there was a large settlement of Wests in Rhode Island. Familiar names among them were Timothy, Henry, John and Simeon, and records of their marriages occur as early as 1750. Arnold's Vital Statistics and Austin's Genealogical Dictionary and Charts contain a great amount of material relevant to this line. It seems to be an offshoot of the Massachusetts line.

ANCESTRAL LINE OF BENJAMIN WEST, ARTIST

MAJOR Thomas West, the earliest known forbear of this line, was a member of Cromwell's Army at the same time that Col. Thomas Gilpin, of Warborough, was a member of the Parliamentary Forces, and both took part in the battle of Worcester, Sept. 3, 1651. Major West married Colonel Gilpin's sister, Anne, of Mill Hill. The early Gilpins were from Cumberland County, England, and owned Scaleby Castle near Carlisle. This was in possession of the family in a female line up to recent times. In spite of their previous allegiance to Cromwell and their army records, both families are said to have joined the Society of Friends and to have built a meeting house at Dorchester, England, where Major West and Colonel Gilpin died.

Major West is said to have been born at Long Crandon, Buckinghamshire, where his ancestors had settled in the time of Richard II, 1327-77. These ancestors were reputed to be of the De La Warr line of Wests. One sister of Anne Gilpin married Moses West but his relationship to Major Thomas West is unknown.

Colonel Gilpin's son, Joseph Gilpin, born 1664, came to Chester County, Pennsylvania, in 1696, but it is supposed that his West cousins came a few years later, as they were considerably younger. In fact, there seems one generation missing in the records available to the writer.

Major Thomas West and Anne Gilpin were the parents of three known children who emigrated to America and perhaps of one daughter who remained in England:

1. William West b. about 1685
2. Thomas West b. about 1689
3. John West b. about 1690

1. William West, the son of Major Thomas West and Anne Gilpin, was born in England about 1685. He was a member of the Society of Friends and came to America before 1709, for at that time he was married to Deborah Coppock. They settled in Concord Township, but later moved to Springfield Township, Chester County (Now Delaware County), Pennsylvania. A family of Coppocks appears later in Talbot County, Maryland. William West died about 1720 without issue.

2. Thomas West, the son of Major Thomas West and Anne Gilpin, was born about 1689 in the Parish of Wapping Stepney, County Middlesex, England. He was a cooper and is recorded as the son of Thomas West, a glazier of Crandon, County Bucks, England. He was married to Mary Dean of Shoreditch in 1709, at Devonshire House, London. The original certificate of this marriage was in the possession of a descendant, Mrs. Mary Downing of Wilmington, in 1885. It bore the names of the following Wests who were among the subscribing witnesses to the marriage ceremony: Mary West, Rebecca West, John West, John West, Jr., William West, John West, Jr., Berhiah West. On arriving in America about 1712, Thomas West bought a small piece of land in Concord Township, Chester County, Pennsylvania. He and Mary Dean were the parents of seven children, most of whom moved to Wilmington, Delaware, about 1736. The children of Thomas West and Mary Dean were:

4. Thomas West b. Dec. 14, 1714/15
5. William West b. Feb. 26, 1717
6. Mary West b. Feb. 28, 1719
7. Eleanor West b. Mch. 29, 1721
8. Rachel West b. Mch. 29, 1721
9. Elizabeth West b. Apr. 8, 1722
10. Joseph West b. Apr. 11, 1728

Some books give two more children, Samuel and Jane West.

3. John West, the son of Major Thomas West and Anne Gilpin, was born at Long Crandon, Buckinghamshire, about 1690. He was the father of the artist, Benjamin West. He did not come to America until about 1713, a few years later than his brothers. He had already married in England and of this marriage there was a son, Thomas, who lived at Reading, England. Apparently his wife died soon after he emigrated, for about 1715, he married, as his second wife, Sarah Pearson, the daughter of Thomas Pearson, of Chester County, Pennsylvania. She was born Aug. 2, 1697, and had a brother, Simon Pearson.

It is probable that John West followed the seas for some years. In 1722 he was a resident of Upper Providence, and the owner of a small tract of land in that township. In 1733 he received a license to conduct a public house of entertainment in Chester, Pennsylvania. His wife died in 1756 and he seems to have joined the Society of Friends in 1759, with whom he appears not to have affiliated in England though the rest of his family were members. From 1763-4, John West apparently resided "in Maryland and the lower country," according to one historian. After this, he returned to England, either to live with his son, Thomas, or with his sister at Marlborough, County Oxford, where he died Oct. 5, 1776. In addition to Thomas, the son of the first wife, John West was the father of nine or ten children whose names are not definitely known:

11. William West b. 1724
12. Samuel West ?
13. Hannah West ?
14. Mary West ?
15. Rachel West
16. Joseph West ?
17. John West
18. Benjamin West b. Oct. 10, 1738

4. Thomas West, the son of Thomas West and Mary Dean, was born Dec. 14, 1714/15, and died before 1748. He married Susanna Powell March 21, 1736. After his death, his widow married Samuel Talkington. Thomas West was a farmer and lived near Concord, Pennsylvania. He and Susanna were the parents of:

19. Thomas West
20. Joseph West
21. Sarah West

5. William West, the son of Thomas West and Mary Dean, was born Feb. 26, 1717, and died in 1778. He followed the trade of shoemaker and lived in Concord, Pennsylvania. He married Mary Wilson in 1744. They later moved to Christiana Hundred, Newcastle County, Delaware, seven miles north of Wilmington, at the north end of Kennett Turnpike.

Scharf, in his History of Delaware, p. 635, says William's father was a relative of Lord De La Warr. William West and Mary Wilson were the parents of:

22. Mary West b. Sept. 27. 1746
23. Sarah West b. Dec. 26, 1748

6. Mary West, the daughter of Thomas West and Mary Dean, was born in Concord Township, Pennsylvania, Feb. 28, 1719. We have no further data on her.

7. Eleanor West, the daughter of Thomas West and Mary Dean, was born in Concord Township, Pennsylvania, March 29, 1721, and died in 1790. She was married by the Friends' ceremony May 22, 1742, to James Robison, who was born in 1718 and died in 1790, at Wilmington, Delaware. They were the parents of:

24. Mary Robison b. 1743
25. Frances Robison b. 1746
26. Rachel Robison b. 1754
27. James Robison b. 1757
28. Thomas Robison b. 1759

8. Rachel West, the daughter of Thomas West and Mary Dean, was born in Concord Township, Pennsylvania, Mar. 29, 1721, and died in 1783, at Wilmington, Delaware. She married in 1743, John Stapler, of Wilmington, who died in 1793. His second wife was Jemima Robison. Rachel West and John Stapler were the parents of:

29. Sarah Stapler

9. Elizabeth West, the daughter of Thomas West and Mary Dean, was born April 8, 1722, and married

Benjamin Hough June 9, 1748. He married 2nd, Sarah Janney, of Cecil County, Maryland. (See p. 372 of McKenzie's Colonial Families of the United States.)

10. Joseph West, the son of Thomas West and Mary Dean, was born April 11, 1728, in Concord Township, Pennsylvania, and died in Wilmington, Delaware, 1790, where he moved in 1736. He married Hannah ——— in 1806, and they apparently had no children.

11. William West, the oldest son of John West and Sarah Pearson, was born in 1724 in Upper Providence, Pennsylvania, and died Dec. 6, 1808, at the age of 84. He was a cooper and followed his trade in Philadelphia, where he married his first wife, Sarah ———, who died about 1765. It is said that they were the parents of Joan, James, William and Rebecca West. He married 2nd, Hannah Shaw in 1767 at Upper Darby, Chester County, Pennsylvania, and moved to a farm. In one of the reference books, the children of this marriage are named as Sarah, Samuel, Rebecca, William. We shall follow, however, the list given on p. 102, of Keith's Councillors of Pennsylvania:

30. Sallie West
31. Hannah West
32. Passmore West
33. Samuel West b. Feb. 13, 1771
34. Joseph West

12. Samuel West is sometimes given as the son of John West and Sarah Pearson. The writer has nothing to prove the authenticity of this.

13. Hannah West. There is no data concerning this child, sometimes named among the children of John West and Sarah Pearson. However, Benjamin West had a sister who married ——— Thomson and their son was Peter Thomson (wife Hannah) of Philadelphia.

14. Mary West. Mrs. Rachel Pusey West Lays of Chester, Pennsylvania, a great-granddaughter of William West, is quoted as of the belief that William had a sister Mary and brother Samuel, as well as a brother John, who moved to Virginia. She had always understood that William West was the oldest and Benjamin West, the artist, the youngest of the family.

15. Rachel West, the daughter of John West and Sarah Pearson, married a Mr. Clarkson, of Philadelphia.

16. Joseph West. There is no definite data about a son, Joseph, but Clarkson's Memoirs mention a Joseph West who died in Philadelphia July 14, 1758, the husband of Elizabeth Hazard. There is nothing to prove that he was the son of John and Sarah (Pearson) West.

17. John West, the son of John West and Sarah Pearson, who is said to have moved to Virginia, cannot be identified by this writer among the many John Wests of that time. By many genealogists, he was confused with Col. John West of Fairfax County, and Alexandria, Virginia, the son of Major John West of Stafford County, Virginia.

18. Benjamin West, the son of John West and Sarah Pearson, was born in Chester County, Pennsylvania, Oct. 10, 1738. As one of the most famous painters of his time, his biography has been written in many encyclopedias and no attempt will be made here to give a sketch of his life. He spent his later years in London, where he died Mar. 11, 1820. He was given a funeral of almost royal pretensions and was buried in St. Paul's Cathedral. His wife was Miss Shewell, of Philadelphia, and they were the parents of four children. The names of two are known: Raphael Lamar West and Benjamin West, of whose later history very little is known in this country. At the time of the death of the artist, he had also one grandson, Benjamin West, Jr.

So many lines of Wests have claimed relationship with the artist, Benjamin West, that it may not be out of place to give a few of these traditions at this time:

a. The Critic of Feb. 17, 1889, says: "The Fairfax Wests were descended from an uncle of Benjamin West, the artist, who came from Pennsylvania and settled in Virginia." The writer would be inclined to suggest that if a relative of Benjamin West settled in Fairfax County, he would more likely have been a great-uncle, as there were Wests in Fairfax County many years before Benjamin West's uncles came to America.

b. History of Adams County, Ohio, p. 413: "John, Benjamin and Joseph West, related to the painter, Benjamin West, came from Pennsylvania about 1802 to this county."

c. Hayden's Virginia Genealogies, p. 354: It is noted here that John West of Loudoun County, Virginia, in applying for a pension in 1833, had as his identifying witness a brother, James West, of Chester County, Pennsylvania, who said they were nephews of Benjamin West, artist. This might easily be, because there were said to be ten children in the family of the artist and there must be many descendants of his brothers who are unrecorded in any book. This John West, of Loudoun County, according to his pension application, was born Nov. 7, 1753, in Delaware County, Pennsylvania. He enlisted in the Revolutionary Army near Philadelphia. After the war, he married Hannah ——, Oct. 24, 1791, in Loudoun County, Virginia. They were the parents of: Lydia West, born Aug. 24, 1792, who married Josiah Walrovan Sept. 28, 1809; Vanilia West, born Mar. 27, 1795; Maria West, born July 18, 1797; Edith West, born Apr. 19, 1800; Hannah West, born July 9, 1801; Sarah West, born May 21, 1803; Benjamin Franklin West and Harry West, twins, born Mar. 7, 1807; John West, born June 26, 1808. The father, John West, died Dec. 17, 1835. Hannah, his wife, died in 1853. One of her sons-in-law was Mr. Orrisan.

d. The Montgomery County, Maryland, Wests who were descended from one Joseph West, born about 1670, have preserved in four widely separated lines the tradition that the family was related to Benjamin West, the artist. If that is true, the connection must, of necessity, be some generations prior to that of the artist.

19. Thomas West, the son of Thomas West and Susanna Powell, was born in Concord, Pennsylvania and married 1st, Esther Newlin, of Concord.

There was no issue. He moved to Philadelphia and married 2nd, Sarah Yarnall, of Ridley. They were the parents of:

35. Esther West
36. Thomas West
37. Joel West
38. Rebecca West

20. Joseph West, the son of Thomas West and Susanna Powell, was born in Concord, Pennsylvania. He lived for some time at Kennett, Pennsylvania, and moved from there to Centre, Delaware, where he married Susanna Wiley Apr. 26, 1769. They were the parents of:

39. Jesse West
40. Rachel West
41. Mary West
42. Hannah West
43. Joseph West b. March 15, 1778
44. William West
45. Susanna West

21. Sarah West, the daughter of Thomas West and Susanna Powell, was born at Concord, Pennsylvania, and married a Mr. Harlan.

22. Mary West, the daughter of William West and Mary Wilson, was born Sept. 27, 1746, probably in Concord, Pennsylvania, and married Jacob Craig.

23. Sarah West, the daughter of William West and Mary Wilson, was born Dec. 26, 1748, probably in Concord, Pennsylvania, and married George Sterne. A full table of their descendants is given in the McFarlane-Sterne book and also in the Sterne-Pierce book. One line only will be given here. A daughter of Sarah West and George Sterne, Rachel Sterne, married Isaac Pearson; their daugh-

27. James Robison, the son of Eleanor West and James Robison, was born in 1757, in Wilmington, Delaware. He married Betty Wilson and they were the parents of one son only, Jacob Robison, born about 1758.

28. Thomas Robison, the son of Eleanor West and James Robison, was born in 1759, in Wilmington, Delaware. He married Mary Wilson and they were the parents of eight children.

32. Passmore West, the son of William West and Hannah Shaw, was born in Chester County, Pennsylvania.

33. Samuel West, the son of William West and Hannah Shaw, was born Feb. 13, 1771, in Chester County, Pennsylvania, and spent his life on a farm near Chester. He died Feb. 13, 1853. His wife was Mary Pusey, who was born in 1792 and died in 1832. They were the parents of:

- 46. Mary West
- 47. Hannah West b. 1796
- 48. Anne West
- 49. Sarah Anne West
- 50. Joshua West
- 51. William West b. 1798

34. Joseph West, the son of William West and Hannah Shaw, was born in Chester County, Pennsylvania, and died in Philadelphia, Dec. 5, 1879. He married Maria Carpenter Firth, whose ancestry may be found in Keith's Councillors. She died in 1858. They were the parents of a daughter, who lived near Alexandria, Virginia, and of:

- 52. Clement Lawrence West
- 53. Preston C. F. West

47. Hannah West, the daughter of Samuel West and Mary Pusey, was born in 1796, in Chester County, Pennsylvania. She married in 1819, Dr. Robert M. Huston, and they were the parents of:

- 54. Samuel Huston
- 55. Charles Huston
- 56. Elizabeth Huston
- 57. Mary Huston
- 58. Hannah Huston
- 59. William Huston
- 60. Henry Huston

51. William West, the son of Samuel West and Mary Pusey, was born in Chester County, Pennsylvania, in 1798. He was the father of:

61. William Pusey West b. in 1840
62. Elias H. West b. in 1842

52. Clement Lawrence West, the son of Joseph West, of Philadelphia, and Maria Carpenter Firth, was born Apr. 5, 1832, in Philadelphia, and died in 1866 in the District of Columbia. He married Sarah C. Addison, Dec. 11, 1860, in Christ Church, Baltimore, and they were the parents of:

63. Mollie A. West b. Sept. 11, 1861

53. Preston C. F. West, the son of Joseph West, of Philadelphia, and Maria Carpenter Firth, was born Aug. 19, 1835, in Philadelphia. He married Olivia Sears, Oct. 25, 1866. Preston West was employed in the Geodetic Survey in Washington, D. C., and he and Olivia Sears were the parents of:

64. Elise A. West b. July 22, 1867
65. Montgomery S. West b. May 14, 1869

54. Samuel Huston, the son of Hannah West and Dr. Robert Huston, was the father of nine children.

55. Charles Huston, the son of Hannah West and Dr. Robert Huston, was the father of seven children.

59. William Huston, the son of Hannah West and Dr. Robert Huston, was the father of nine children.

61. William Pusey West, of Philadelphia, the son of William West, was born in 1840. Of this line probably was Mrs. Rachel Pusey West Lays, of Chester, Pennsylvania.

Material for this chapter has been gleaned from "Memoirs of the Gilpin Family," published by Rev. William Gilpin in 1791; from a Gilpin Family book published in 1870 by J. Painter; from the History of Chester County, Pennsylvania, by Futhey & Cope, p. 761; from the McFarlane-Sterne Genealogy of Pennsylvania and Delaware, p. 79; from the Memoirs of Chester and Delaware Counties by Cope and Ashmead; and from Keith's Councillors, p. 102.

A statement in Watson's "Annals of Philadelphia," vol. 1, p. 136, brings up an interesting question in regard to what ancestors of the artist came to America. Watson says that Benjamin West, in a painting, depicted his grandfather as one of the Friends gathered with Penn in 1682, when he made a treaty of friendship with the Indians under a spreading elm tree. Did he come over alone, or perhaps with brothers and sons? Since there was a lapse of approximately 40 years between his appearance in the Battle of Worcester and the birth of his son, John, in 1690, it is likely that he had children many years older than this son. Charles West, a shipbuilder, who came over with Penn and settled in Philadelphia, may have belonged to this family.

In "Americans of Gentle Birth" it is stated that Benjamin's grandfather, Major Thomas West, was the grandson of William Lord De La Warr, the first earl of the new creation.

CHAPTER XVI

WEST FAMILIES OF FAIRFAX COUNTY, VIRGINIA

THE West families of this region include not only those of the section we now know as Fairfax County, but also those of Prince William County and Alexandria City. There seems to be some confusion about the origin and relationship of this family, partly on account of inter-marriages with the Pearson family. The family of which Benjamin West, the artist, was a member, also inter-married with a Pearson family, and since he had a brother who was reputed to have moved from Chester County, Pennsylvania, to Virginia, still more confusion has been added to an already complicated situation. It has seemed best to keep the two entirely separate in the treatment here.

The earliest known ancestor of the Fairfax County Wests seems to have been one John West, who died before 1698. He had received land from Richard Cocke, of Northumberland County, and after his death, his widow, Susanna West, received a grant. Her eldest son, John, was also the recipient of some land. A John West was transported to this country by Richard Cocke in 1637, and this may have been the one mentioned above, although the immigrant of 1636 is sometimes confused with Capt. John West, brother of Lord De La Warr. Northumberland County originally included land now divided into Stafford, Fairfax, Prince William and Fauquier Counties.

In 1703, one John West, of Stafford County, received a grant of land, and in 1706, a John West received another grant in conjunction with William Harrison, Thomas Pearson and Thomas Harrison. It was about this time, in 1704, that John West wrote the following letter, mentioning his son, Pearson West, who was grown at that time:

"Hon. Sir,—I thought to come to court but my son Pearson seeing great signs of Indians and the inhabitants in so great fear of them that I cannot come. If I come I leave but one man at home, therefore would desire that the Court will be pleased to let my business by until the next court."

For the sake of distinction, we shall continue to call this John West, Major John West of Stafford County, He married Susanna Pearson. In 1686, he bought land near Accotink of William Green, and in his will, dated Nov. 16, 1716, he willed this land to Hugh West, his son. Hugh West conveyed it to Thomas Pearson, who, on his death, willed it back to Hugh. It was then sold in 1753. Of the other children of Major John West of Stafford, we have positive record of only one, Colonel John West, of Alexandria and Fairfax.

Hugh West, son of Major John West of Stafford, and Susanna Pearson, appears in many land transactions from 1734-54. In 1734 he was administrator for the estate of Charles Broadwater of Prince William County. In 1739 he bought land from George Gordon in Prince William County, and in 1745 he bought land lying on Four Mile Run, part of a tract of land owned by Evan Thomas, of Prince William. The same year, he leased land lying on the south side of the south run of the Pohick, for which a patent had lately been granted to Barnet West. When Alexandria was organized in 1749, he was a member of the first board of trustees. His will, which was recorded in Fairfax County, Nov. 21, 1754, left his entire estate to his wife, Sybil Harrison West, but arranged for a future distribution among his children. His wife's will was recorded June 18, 1787. Their children were as follows:

1. Sybil West
2. George West
3. Hugh West
4. Capt. John West Jr.
5. Rev. William West

1. Sybil West, daughter of Hugh West and Sybil Harrison, received some land and also some lots in Alexandria City. She died unmarried.

2. George West, son of Hugh West and Sybil Harrison, received land near Goose Creek, Loudoun County. His will was recorded Apr. 18, 1786. Of his two marriages, 1st, with Anne Fowke Dade; and 2nd, with Penelope Payne, he had no issue, and he left his property to his relatives. To George West, the son of his brother, Rev. William West, he left one-half of his land in Loudoun County, which was inherited from his father, Hugh West.

3. Hugh West, son of Hugh West and Sybil Harrison, married Elizabeth Minor. He inherited from his father, land lying near Wolf Trap Run. In his will, recorded June 10, 1767, he mentions his children:

6. Sybil West
7. Jemima West
8. Sarah West

4. Capt. John West, Jr., of Fairfax County, the son of Hugh West and Sybil Harrison, married before 1755, Catherine Colville. He inherited the home plantation. He had already inherited much property from his mother's brother, George Harrison, in 1748. He also took out grants for a large amount of land in Ohio, which probably at that time was part of Kentucky, but had not received deeds to it before his death. His will was recorded Feb. 18, 1777, and in it he mentions the following children:

    9. Thomas West
    10. John West
    11. Hugh West
    12. Catherine West
    13. Frances West
    14. Sarah West

5. Rev. William West was born in Fairfax County, near Mount Vernon, the son of Hugh West and Sybil Harrison. He became an Episcopalian rector and died while in charge of Saint Paul's in Baltimore, in 1791. He was married to Susan Walker. In the census of 1790, he is given with three boys and three girls in his household, but he speaks of three children only, in his will. Kentucky histories speak of his sons, Edward and William, though William may be the George William mentioned in his will, and Edward took to Kentucky with him, Lynn West, the young son of his brother, James, who likewise is not mentioned in Rev. William West's will. Rev. West inherited from his father, Hugh West, land near the Catoctin Mountains (Loudoun County). The children of whom we have record are:

    15. George William West
    16. Margaret West

17. Sybil West
18. Edward West
19. James West

6. Sybil West, daughter of Hugh West and Elizabeth Minor, was born in Fairfax County, Virginia. She married Mr. DeNeale and they had a daughter:

20. Elizabeth DeNeale

7. Jemima West, daughter of Hugh West and Elizabeth Minor, was born in Fairfax County, Virginia. She married Mr. Adams, and they were the parents of:

21. Elizabeth Adams

8. Sarah West, daughter of Hugh West and Elizabeth Minor, was born in Fairfax County, Virginia. She married Mr. Peyton about 1786, and they were the parents of:

22. Thomas West Peyton

9. Thomas West, son of Capt. John West, Jr., of Fairfax County, and Catherine Colville, was born in Fairfax County, Va. His grandfather, Thomas Colville, came from Newcastle-upon-Tyne in England and settled in Cecil County, Maryland. From there he came to Fairfax County, Va. He had relatives named Stott, Wills and Richardson in Durham, England. Thomas West inherited from his father land on which his grandmother, Sybil West, was still living; also one-half of the land bought of Terrett. In his will which was probated Nov. 27, 1805, he speaks of his land in Washington, Kentucky. This, he gave to his brother John and to his son, Thomas. He calls his Ohio land "Kentucky land" which was the tract for which his father had never received the deed. Thomas gave his share of this to his brothers, John and Hugh, and to his own son, Thomas. His wife is generally supposed to have been Elizabeth Hamilton, and they were the parents of three children:

23. Thomas West
24. Mary Anne West
25. John West

10. John West, son of Capt. John West, Jr., and Catherine Colville, inherited from his father, one-half of the Terrett land and one-half the land bought of Burr Harrison. He also received from his brother Thomas, Ohio and Kentucky land. John West's will was probated July 21, 1806, and a request is made in it that his Kentucky land be sold; and likewise his land in Kanawha County, Virginia, on Poketattico Creek. He married Elizabeth, and they were the parents of:

26. George W. West
27. Mary West
28. Catherine A. West
29. Marion P. West
30. Matilda Anne B. West

11. Hugh West, son of Capt. John West, Jr., of Fairfax County, and Catherine Colville, married Anne ———. He inherited from his father, John, one thousand more acres of the Ohio land than the other brothers. He also inherited some Fairfax County land and the land which his brother, Thomas, left him. He died about 1807. His wife was appointed administratrix May 20, 1807. One son only is named in his will but there may be others not mentioned. This is:

31. John H. West

12. Catherine West, daughter of Capt. John West, Jr., of Fairfax County, and Catherine Colville, was born in Fairfax County, Virginia. She married Baldwin Dade. They were the parents of:

    32. Elizabeth Dade
    33. Catherine Dade

13. Frances West, daughter of Capt. John West, Jr., of Fairfax County, was also known as Francina. She was named after her grandmother, Francina Colville. She married Charles Turner, Sr., Sept. 11, 1795, and probably lived in Alexandria, Virginia, for he was married there the second time in 1798. (Old Northwest Quarterly, Vol. 1-2, page 198.)

15. George William West, son of Rev. William West and Susan Walker, was born Jan. 22, 1770, in St. Mary's County, Maryland, where his father, an Episcopal rector was stationed. A Kentucky history says that William West, son of Rev. William West of St. Paul's, Baltimore, studied art in London under Benjamin West, painter. It was the understanding among the Kentucky descendants of this line that they were related to the famous artist. The fact that one of the family was a pupil of Benjamin West may have given rise to this tradition. George William was a painter and spent most of his life abroad. When in this country, he made his home in Anne Arundel County, Maryland. He had received Loudoun County land in Virginia from his uncle, George West, and his father had left him Virginia land, provided he gave to his sisters all the Maryland land descending to him through his father or mother. On his death in 1796 he left all his possessions to his two sisters since he was unmarried.

16. Margaret West, daughter of Rev. William West and Susan Walker, was still under age when her father died in 1791, and guardians were appointed for her and her sister Sybil. Her name occurs in many Baltimore County records. She married in Baltimore City, John Beale Howard, a member of a prominent family of the same place. They were the ancestors of a large number of descendants who are well known today in and about Baltimore.

17. Sybil West, daughter of Rev. William West and Susan Walker, was under age when her father died in 1791. She married Francis Hall of Baltimore, a name familiar in the early annals of Maryland. He was born in 1756.

18. Edward West, son of Rev. William West and ———, is evidently a great deal older than the three mentioned above, and since he had been in Kentucky for several years before his father died, and was possessed of a good deal of land, he is not mentioned in his father's will. Though there is no data on it, it is possible that he was the son of a first marriage and had inherited from his mother. At any rate, he is given in the Kentucky histories as the son of Rev. William West of Baltimore. He was an inventor and was well known in the early history of his adopted state. (Wisconsin Historical Society, Kentucky Papers of 1816.) Edward West was the father of two or more children:

34. William Edward West
35. John B. West

19. James West, probably the son of Rev. William West, died before July 17, 1780. We find him mentioned nowhere in connection with Rev. William West, but James' son, Capt. Lynn West, as a child of nine was taken by his uncle Edward West, to Kentucky after the death of his father. According to a history of Bourbon County of Kentucky, Page 182, Capt. Lynn West was born in 1775, and died in 1836. The records of Prince William County, Virginia, state that Capt. Lynn West of Scott County, Kentucky, settled the estate of his father, James West, in 1796. He probably had the one child only:

    36. Capt. Lynn West

23. Thomas West, son of Thomas West and Elizabeth, received land in Washington County, Kentucky, as well as Ohio land and part of the Pearson Tract in Fairfax County, Virginia. In the history of Clermont and Brown Counties, Ohio, page 283, there is the statement that a Thomas West came from forty miles south of Alexandria and settled in Brown County, Ohio, southwest of Bethel in 1801. He had five sons and two daughters. This may be the Thomas West of Fairfax County, because he does not appear further in the records of Fairfax.

24. Mary Anne West, daughter of Thomas West and Elizabeth, was known as Nancy West. She lived in Fairfax County, and married Mr. Martin.

25. Catherine, daughter of Thomas West and Elizabeth, was born in Fairfax County, Virginia. She was known as Kitty West, and married Mr. Turner.

26. George W. West, son of John West and Elizabeth, remained in Fairfax County where he died in 1871. He mentioned the following children in his will:

    37. Arthur West
    38. Mary West
    39. Eliza West
    40. James W. West
    41. Jane West

31. John H. West, son of Hugh West and Anne, does not appear in the Fairfax records. Since his father had received a great body of Ohio land, it is reasonable to suppose that his son John may have migrated there. A John West is spoken of on page 495 of the history of Clermont and Brown Counties, Ohio. He was born in 1758 and went from Fairfax, Virginia, to Washington, Mason County, Kentucky. A further record of him will be given at the end of this chapter.

34. William Edward West, son of Edward West of Lexington, Kentucky, was born in 1787. We have no further record of him except that he was called one of the notable painters of the state.

35. John B. West, son of Edward West, was born in Kentucky, about 1788. How long he lived there we do not know, but he is found in the 1810 census list of Davidson County, Tennessee. In the 1850 census he is listed as a merchant in Nashville and of a family of four children, only one was living with him at that time:

    42. William C. West b. 1823

36. Capt. Lynn West, son of James West of Prince William County, Virginia, was born there in 1775 and died in Scott County, Kentucky, in 1836. In 1797 he married Susan Jackson of Prince William County, Virginia, who was born in 1774, and died in 1860 in Scott County, Kentucky. Capt. West took part in the War of 1812. In the census list of 1810 he is given with a family of eight children, and near him lives James West who may be a cousin. This James West had ten children in 1820, but he does not appear again in the Scott County census list; however, in the 1830 census of Madison County, Kentucky, is recorded a James West with children of an age agreeing exactly with those of James West, formerly of Scott County, Kentucky. Of the children of Capt. Lynn West and Susan Jackson, we have the names of these only:

43. Capt. Lewis West b. 1800
44. Elizabeth West
45. Susan West
46. Preston West b. 1801
47. Clinton West b. 1805

40. James W. West, son of George W. West, was born in Fairfax County, Virginia. He had at least one son:

48. Charles Broadwater West

41. Jane West, daughter of George W. West, was born in Fairfax County, Virginia. She married Mr. Horseman, and they were the parents of:

49. George Henry Horseman

43. Capt. Lewis West, son of Capt. Lynn West and Susan Jackson, was born in Scott County, Kentucky, in 1800. He resided in Georgetown, Kentucky, and followed the business of gunsmith. In 1823 he married Sarah Mahoney. The following children were taken from the census list of 1850:

50. H. West b. 1832
51. Charles H. West b. 1834
52. J. West b. 1837
53. George West b. 1839
54. Joseph E. West b. 1843
55. Lynn West b. 1845

44. Elizabeth West, daughter of Capt. Lynn West and Susan Walker, was born in Scott County, Kentucky, and married Mortimer Price.

46. Preston West, son of Capt. Lynn West and Susan Walker, was born in Scott County, Kentucky, in 1801, and died there in 1894. He married three times, the first two wives being sisters, probably named Crawford. Of the first marriage, there were three children:

56. Orville West b. 1826
57. Betty West
58. Eliza West

Of the second marriage there were two children:

59. Milus West
60. Preston C. West

Of the third marriage there were:

61. Emmett West
62. Edward West
63. Nettie West
64. Julia West

47. Clinton West, son of Capt. Lynn West and Susan Jackson, was born in Scott County, Kentucky, in 1805. He was living in Scott County in 1850, and his children were:

59. Milus West, son of Preston West, was killed in the Confederate Army at the battle of Shiloh.

60. Preston C. West, son of Preston West, was born in 1841 in Scott County, Kentucky, at Georgetown. On the death of his mother he went to Hannibal, Missouri, to live with an aunt. He received his education at Westminster in Fulton, Missouri, and served in the Confederate Army during the Civil War. After the war he attended a medical school in Louisville, Kentucky, where he met his future wife, Winifred Todd Wilcox, who was born in Rodney, Mississippi. They were married in Feb. 1866, and later moved to Arkansas. Henry West, a cousin of Preston West, was with the Arkansas Gazette at Little Rock many years ago. Mrs. John B. Parrent, of Memphis, Tennessee, was also a member of this line. Dr. Preston C. West and Winifred Todd Wilcox were the parents of two children only:

70. Preston C. West b. Aug. 19, 1868
71. Gustavus W. West b. April 29, 1870

64. Julia West, daughter of Preston West, was born in Scott County, Kentucky. She married Mr. Frisbee, and moved to Louisville, Kentucky.

68. Preston C. West, son of Clinton West, was born in Scott County, Kentucky, 1845. He moved to Texas.

70. Preston C. West, Jr., son of Dr. Preston C. West and Winifred T. Wilcox, was born at Rodney, Mississippi, Aug. 19, 1868. He married Bessie Douglas Shelby, Oct. 20, 1897. Her ancestors appear prominently in Elizabeth Ellis' "Pioneer Women of the West." They are also mentioned in "Historic Sumner County," by Mr. Cisco of Nashville. Mr. West is the senior member of a large law firm of Tulsa, Oklahoma, where they make their home. Mr. and Mrs. West are the parents of:

72. Gustavus W. West b. Mar. 14, 1902
73. Winifred West b. Feb. 12, 1907

71. Gustavus W. West, son of Dr. Preston C. West and Winifred E. Wilcox, was born in Rodney, Mississippi, Apr. 29, 1870. He married Maude Gray, Apr. 14, 1892, and they reside at Muskogee, Oklahoma. They have no children.

72. Gustavus W. West, son of Preston C. West and Bessie D. Shelby, was born in Tulsa, Oklahoma, Mar. 14, 1902. Lieut. West was graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point, June 12, 1925, and is now with the 4th Cavalry, U. S. A.

73. Winifred West, daughter of Preston C. West and Bessie D. Shelby, was born in Tulsa, Oklahoma, 1907. She was graduated from Sweet Briar College, Virginia, with the A.B. degree, June 5, 1928.

In drawing this chapter to a conclusion, the writer feels that there were many families of Wests in Scott, Fayette, and Madison Counties, Kentucky, before the Civil War who were closely related to those already mentioned. They appear in the census lists, but it has not been possible to identify them. One family, however, formerly in Mason County, Kentucky, and later of Brown County, Ohio, will be treated here.

John West, a private in the Virginia line during the Revolution, was born in 1758 in Fairfax County, Virginia. According to the history of Clermont and Brown Counties, Ohio, page 495, he married Eleanor Laws Edwards, and moved, in 1798, to Kenton Station, Kentucky, and thence to Brown County, Byrd Township. Ohio. He died in 1808 on a farm between Decatur and Russellville Ohio,—a farm later owned by Rufus West. Among the children of John West and Eleanor Laws Edwards were:

1. William West, Sr. b. 1781
2. Elizabeth West
3. John West b. Jan. 1, 1797

1. William West, son of John West and Eleanor Laws Edwards, was probably born in Fairfax County, Virginia, in 1781, though he may have been born in Pennsylvania. In 1804 he married Mary White who was born in 1785. She died in 1862 and William West died in 1870. They were the parents of:

   4. Jane West b. 1813
   5. William West Jr. b. 1820
   6. Caroline West b. 1825
   7. James West b. 1827

2. Elizabeth West, daughter of John West and Eleanor Laws Edwards, married John Middleton. They were the parents of:

   8. John Middleton, Jr.

3. John West, son of John West and Eleanor Laws Edwards, was born Jan. 1, 1797, according to one authority. There seems some question as to where he was born, Pennsylvania or Kentucky. His age, too, was a matter of discussion, a Philadelphia History saying that he died in Brown County, Ohio, in 1878, aged about 90. This would put his birth at 1788, approximately. He married Lovina ———, who was born in Ohio in 1794, and they were the parents of:

9. Rev. Joseph West b. Dec. 7, 1825
10. John M. West b. 1832
11. Caroline West b. 1838

4. Jane West, daughter of William West and Mary White, was born in Brown County, Ohio, in 1813 where she died in 1899. In 1836 she married Nathaniel Harrison Beasley, who was born in 1812 and died in 1899. They were the parents of Angelica Beasley, a member of the D. A. R. through John West of the Virginia Line. She married Thaddeus Binford and they lived in Decatur, Ohio.

8. John Middleton, Jr., son of Elizabeth West and John Middleton, was born in Brown County, Ohio. He married Mary McCumber and they were the parents of Evan P. Middleton. The latter married Zeppa Rippetoe, and their daughter, Lucy Middleton, of Northville, Ohio, married Alexander J. Miller.

9. Rev. Joseph West, son of John West and Lovina ———, was born Dec. 7, 1825, in Brown County, Ohio, and died in 1892. He was a prominent minister, and preached for 37 years in Adams, Brown, and Clermont Counties, Ohio. He married Susanna Dixon, who was born Apr. 28, 1803, and died in 1897. They were the parents of:

15. James H. West, son of Rev. Joseph West and Susanna Dixon, was born in Ohio, and made his home at Norwood.

16. William Ninon West, son of Rev. Joseph West and Susanna Dixon, was born in Union Township, Brown County, Ohio, May 17, 1863. He married Lou Esther Kearns, who died Apr. 19, 1900. They were the parents of:

24. Florence West
25. William Earl West
26. Joseph W. West
27. Archie S. West
28. Alonzo K. West

17. Dr. John Wilson West, son of Rev. Joseph West and Susanna Dixon, was born Oct. 10, 1860, in Brown County, Ohio. He studied medicine in Philadelphia, where he remained to practice his profession. He married Anna N. Sniffen at Ripley, Ohio, June 6, 1889. A good sketch of Dr. West is given in Oberholtzer's History, page 263. Dr. and Mrs. West were the parents of:

29. Louise K. West
30. Helen M. West
31. Anna M. West
32. John W. West
33. Elizabeth E. West

18. Mary Lovina West, daughter of Rev. Joseph West and Susanna Dixon, married William Smith and moved to Mt. Hope, Kansas.

19. Rev. Thomas A. West, son of Rev. Joseph West and Susanna Dixon, became a minister of the Christian church and preached near Wichita, Kansas.

20. Joseph S. West, son of Rev. Joseph West and Susanna Dxion, made his home at Russellville, Ohio.

21. Oscar A. West, son of Rev. Joseph West and Susanna Dixon, lived on the home farm in Byrd Township, Brown County, Ohio.

23. Elizabeth West, daughter of Rev. Joseph West and Susanna Dixon, married Archibald Leggett of Jefferson Township, Brown County, Ohio.

Colonel John West of Alexandria and Fairfax is treated here separately, partly due to the fact that there has been some discussion about his relationship and some confusion as to whether he was the brother of Benjamin West, the artist. As to the last fact, there seems no proof available to the present writer, but in regard to the former, he is a brother of Hugh West of Fairfax County. In his will, Colonel John West calls John West, Jr., whom we know as Capt. John West, Jr., his kinsman, and he says that this John West, Jr., is now holding land, which his father, Hugh, seized from Colonel John West by a judgment. The colonel had twice tried to recover this land, without success. What relation exists between the two is not recorded, but from various statements, we may conclude that Capt. John West, Jr., is a nephew of Colonel John West.

Colonel John West, in land transactions, speaks of his father, Major John West, so that we can state definitely that he was the son of Major John West of Stafford County and his wife, who was probably Susanna Pearson. Col. John West was twice married. His first wife, Mary, is spoken of in Prince William records, when he gives her power of attorney, Feb. 26, 1738. In 1739, he leased land near Little Hunting Creek, Truro Parish, Prince William County. In 1745, in a transfer of land, his wife, Mary, relinquished her dower rights. Again, in 1745, John West of Truro Parish leased for one year to Benjamin Grayson, of Prince William County, land in Fairfax County on Black Lick Run and Indian Branch—part of four thousand acres, originally taken up by Major John West, his father, the two Harrisons and Thomas Pearson.

In 1750, Col. John West bought from John and Jemima Minor, land purchased by John West of Stafford. This Major John West willed it to his grandson, John (evidently the son of Col. John West of Alexandria and Fairfax), but he, dying before his grandfather, the land descended to Col. John West, who sold it in 1735, and then bought it back in 1750.

In 1748, Col. John West was made Assistant Surveyor of Fairfax County. On August 6, 1748, he assigned to John Carlisle, land in Prince William County, Truro Parish, on the main run of Great Hunting Creek. We do not know when his first wife, Mary, died, but he was married some time after 1750 to Margaret Pearson, his first cousin, who was born in 1720, the daughter of Simon Pearson. At her marriage, she was the widow of Mr. Terrett, and had five children, whom she mentions in her will, which was recorded Jan. 16, 1798. These children were William Henry Terrett, Nathaniel Terrett, Constant Washington, Margaret Weems, and Susanna Terrett.

Col. John West was a great friend of George Washington, and in his will, asked that Washington should be guardian of the education of his minor son, Roger. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge where Gen. Washington was made an honorary member in 1784. Col. John West was the father of John West, deceased before 1716, and:

1. Anne West
2. Mary West
3. Hannah West
4. Anna West
5. Col. Roger West

1. Anne West, the daughter of Col. John West, of Alexandria and Fairfax County, and his first wife, Mary, married Daniel Talbot. According to the terms of the father's will, they received the land where they were living. They were the parents of John Talbot.

2. Mary West, the daughter of Col. John West, of Alexandria and Fairfax County, and his first wife, Mary, married Richard Conway.

3. Hannah West, the daughter of Col. John West, of Alexandria and Fairfax County and his first wife, Mary, was born in 1749 and died 1827. She married John Ashton and they were the parents of:

6. West Ashton

4. Anna West, daughter of Col. John West, of Alexandria and Fairfax County and his second wife, Margaret Terrett, married Robert Powell.

5. Col. Roger West, the son of Col. John West, of Alexandria and Fairfax County, and his second wife, Margaret Terrett, was a child when his father died. Being the only son, he received a great part of the estate. He was given the home plantation, much more land and many slaves. The management of his possessions was left to Col. West's three sons-in-law. His legal guardians were Robert Powell and Margaret West, and George Washington was to have charge of his education. Col. Roger West resided at West Groves, on Great Hunting Creek in Fairfax County. He married 1st, Nancy McCrae, and 2nd, Marianne Craik. His will was recorded Feb. 17, 1801, and in November of the same year, guardians were appointed for John, Roger, James, Mary and Nancy West. Col. Roger West of West Grove was the father of:

    7. John West
    8. Mary West
    9. Margaret Anne (Nancy) West
    10. James C. West
    11. Roger West

    12. Emily Douglas Simms

9. Margaret Anne West, who was known as Nancy, was born in Fairfax County, Virginia, in 1794, and died in 1819. She married Alexander Moore who was born 1786, and died 1843. They had a daughter:

13. Jane Jackson Moore

10. James C. West, son of Col. Roger West, was born in Fairfax County, Virginia, and died there about 1815. He married Eliza Payne, daughter of Col. William Payne of Alexandria. They were the parents of:

14. Mary West
15. James W. West
16. Ann Virginia West

12. Emily Douglas Simms, daughter of Mary West and John Douglas Simms, married Commodore French Forrest and they were the parents of:

17. Rev. Douglas F. Forrest

13. Jane Jackson Moore, daughter of Margaret Anne West and Alexander Moore, married Randolph Coyle and they were the parents of:

18. John Coyle
19. Andrew Coyle
20. Randolph Coyle
21. Jeanie Coyle

15. James West, son of James West and Eliza Payne, moved to the District of Columbia where he died leaving:

22. Margaret West b. 1851
23. Martha West b. 1853
24. Charles West b. 1857

21. Jeanie Coyle, daughter of Jane J. Moore and Randolph, married John Dunhurst Patten of Washington, D. C. Their son Conrad Magruder Patten was a graduate of Harvard in 1899; and their daughter Juliet Craik Patten was graduated from Smith College in 1902.

CHAPTER XVII

WILLIAM WEST, OF SLIGO, IRELAND, AND HIS DESCENDANTS

THE historical sketches of the early members of this family are fragmentary and, as often happens, vary in a number of details. Most of this material is taken from Egle's Pennsylvania Genealogies, pp. 17-18, and from J. G. Leach's Book on the Frazier-West Families. One of these gives the early ancestor of this branch of Wests as Francis of Sligo and the other gives the progenitor as William of Sligo. Without the means to prove the accuracy of the one or the other, we shall assume that William was the forebear. His ancestral home in England was "Westover."

William West, of Urlar, near Sligo, Ireland, married Anne Osborne. They were the parents of William West who, with his brother, Francis West, and sister, Anne West, migrated to Pennsylvania about 1750. This branch of Wests used the armorial bearings now best known, and it was a tradition in the family to quite a late period that they were descended from the De La Warrs. From this it would seem that these Wests were among those colonists from England who settled in northern Ireland as officials, or as holders of bounty lands granted for services.

1. Francis West, the oldest son, was born about 1720, in Sligo, Ireland, and died at his home in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania. He served as Judge in Cumberland County from 1757 to 1763. Before the Revolution, he was living at Carlisle, Pennsylvania, and was one of the founders of St. John's Episcopal Church there. His death took place Dec. 28, 1783, at Clover Hill (named after his father's seat in Ireland). He married Dorothea Wynne, who preceded her husband in death, and they were the parents of:

4. William West
5. Anne West
6. Dorothy West
7. Mary West
8. Edward West

2. Anne West, the daughter of William West and Anne Osborne, was born at Sligo, Ireland, and came to this country about 1750. She married, 1st, Hermanus Alricks, of Cumberland County, Pennsylvania, who was born about 1730 and died Dec. 14, 1772. She married 2nd, Col. Alexander Lowry, and was the mother of:

9. Anne Alricks b. Oct. 7, 1760

3. William West, the son of William West and Anne Osborne, was born June 1, 1724, in Sligo, Ireland. and died in Whitemarsh Township, Montgomery County, Pnnsylvania, Oct. 28, 1782. He was a merchant in Philadelphia and carried on a profitable business with Indian traders on the frontiers of Pennsylvania and traveled extensively along the Ohio. He was a member of the Assembly in 1756 and 1757, and was placed on important committees. In 1776 he purchased "Hope Farm," the Morris Plantation, on the east side of the great road leading from North Wales to Philadelphia. His property was protected by an order from George Washington when the Continental Army was in camp at Whitemarsh. It was here that he died and his demise was the occasion for such eulogies as are seldom read. The Philadelphia papers freely gave him the most brilliant tributes as a gentleman. business man, and Christian. William West married on Aug. 18, 1757, Mary Hodge, born Nov. 7, 1737, the daughter of William Hodge and Mary McCullough. They were the parents of:

10. Mary West b. Nov. 13, 1758
11. Francis West b. Sept. 14, 1761
12. John West b. Nov. 26, 1762
13. William Hodge West b. Dec. 24, 1766
14. James West b. Nov. 22, 1768
15. Anne West b. Nov. 19, 1769
16. Benjamin Fuller West b. Aug. 29, 1772
17. Helen West b. April 4, 1777

4. William West, the son of Francis West and Dorothea Wynne, was born in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania, and moved to Philadelphia, where he was in business with his uncle, William West. He was a major in the Revolutionary War, and died unmarried about 1795. The latter years of his life he was a merchant in Baltimore and his will was filed there. He names, among other members of his family, a niece, who was the wife of William Miller, of Carlisle, Pennsylvania.

5. Anne West, the daughter of Francis West and Dorothea Wynne, was born in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania. She married about 1792, Col. George Gibson of the Revolutionary Army. He died Dec. 11, 1791, at Fort Jefferson, Ohio. They were the parents of some distinguished sons, all of whom are mentioned in J. G. Leach's Frazier-West Families. They are as follows:

18. Francis Gibson
19. George Gibson
20. John Barrister Gibson
21. William Gibson

6. Dorothy West, the daughter of Francis West and Dorothea Wynne, was born in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania. She married Thomas Hinslow (or Kinslow).

7. Mary, the daughter of Francis West and Dorothea Wynne, married Gen. David Mitchell, a Revolutionary officer. She died July 23, 1840, about one hundred years of age. They were the parents of Mary West Mitchell.

8. Edward West, the son of Francis West and Dorothea Wynne, was born in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania, and died about 1816 at Landisburg, Perry County, Pennsylvania. (See History of Susquehanna and Juanita Valleys, Perry County, Pennsylvania, p. 1154.) He was married twice and was the father of Armstrong West and the following:

22. William West b. about 1784
23. Edward West
24. Henry West
25. George West

CHAPTER XIX

WEST FAMILIES IN GARRARD COUNTY, KENTUCKY

THE first family of this name recorded in Garrard County, Kentucky, is that of Joseph West, found in the census list of 1810. He was over 45 and had nine boys and one girl. Since it has not been possible to examine the records of this county his origin is not definitely known, nor his relationship to the other families in the county appearing in the census list of 1820 and 1830. However, it seems reasonable to conclude that a number of the heads of families of 1820 were his children.

A descendant of Walker West states that their family was not related to the Lysander and John West found here in 1820 who were the sons of John and Rachel Perry West, of Bourbon County, Kentucky. The name Perry, however, does occur in the Walker family which may be a mere coincidence. John West of Bourbon County had a brother, Joseph, who left Montgomery County, Maryland, before 1800, and he may have gone to Kentucky by way of Virginia. Walker West was born in Virginia.

However, the balance of evidence indicates that the founder was Joseph West of Sussex County, Delaware, who fought in the Revolution from Greenbriar County, Virginia, and then went to Kentucky. He is said to have left Madison County, Kentucky, in 1807, for Wayne County, but early dates were not always correctly remembered and it is possible that he may have been in Garrard County instead, until after 1810. Many of the Garrard County Wests moved to Madison County.

The placing of this family is a little difficult because the 1820 census contains names reminiscent of several of the older lines of Wests. There is a Peyton West in Garrard County in 1820, and this name belongs to the Fairfax, Virginia, line of Wests; there is a Benoni West, a name which occurs only in the Accomac County, Virginia, line so far as this writer has discovered. There is an Alexander West, also, a name which occurs in the Accomac, Virginia, and Montgomery County, Maryland, lines. Other names are Richard and Bluford West.

CHAPTER XX

WESTS OF PRINCESS ANNE AND NORFOLK COUNTIES, VIRGINIA

THE WESTS of Princess Anne County, as well as Norfolk, claim descent from Capt. Nathaniel West, brother of Lord De La Warr. That they were well connected is not to be denied. They early intermarried with the family of Woodhouse, whose ancestor was the same as that of Anne Knollys, mother of Lord De La Warr and his three distinguished West brothers. The name Nathaniel is found at intervals in the Princess Anne family, one having died in 1822.

William West, the first mentioned in Norfolk records filed at Portsmouth, died about 1685. He did not leave a will but there were doubtless several heirs, for the name West continued without interruption in the county. There was a Willoughby West who died before 1774 and a John West who appeared in frequent court actions in the latter part of 1700.

In a history of Norfolk County, by Col. William Stewart, is given the lineage of John West, of Norfolk, a descendant of William West, who fought in the Revolution. John West was born in 1814 and married Sarah Hodges, who died in 1850. They were the parents of: 1. John T.; 2. Amanda; 3. Mary; 4. William A.; 5. Leroy; 6. Josephine; 7. Luther; 8. E. Jordan; 9. Annie.

In Princess Anne County a William West carried on the line. He leased land in 1718, and he and his wife, Frances, sold land to his brother-in-law, William Brown, in 1720. In 1730 he made gifts to his relatives, Mary and Amy Dawley, probably step-daughters. He died in 1764, leaving a wife, Amy, who died in 1771. He did not name a son, William, in his will but nevertheless the records indicate that there was such a one among his children:

1. William West
2. Thomas West
3. Lemuel West
4. Willoughby West
5. Mary West
6. Lydia West

1. William West, son of William and Frances West, died in 1790. In the tax list of 1783 he is given with a family of six children, four of whom are known:

8. Willoughby West, Jr., son of William West, Sr., died in 1823. One Willoughby had married Frances Fentress in 1800, and since a Franky West is mentioned as the orphan of Willoughby, she was probably a daughter of this marriage. He left, however, a wife, Nancy, and the following children:

    18. Dennis West
    19. Mary Anne West
    20. Thomas West
    21. William West

27. A daughter of Thomas West, Jr., married Mr. Flakin, and had a daughter, Elizabeth.

28. A daughter of Thomas West, Jr., married Mr. Strahan, and was the mother of William, Thomas, and Amy Strahan.

29. A daughter of Thomas West, Jr., married Mr. Woodhouse, and they had five children: Elizabeth, Philip, Rachel, Mary, and Frances Woodhouse.

30. Nancy West, daughter of Thomas West, Jr., married a Mr. West and had a son, Thomas West.

31. Amy West, daughter of Thomas West, Jr., married Daniel Kays and had two daughters, Nellie and Polly Kays.

32. Godfrey West, son of Lemuel West and Margaret Woodhouse, married 1st, Patsy Land Nov. 7, 1826, and 2nd his second cousin, Elizabeth, daughter of William and Anne Capps, on May 14, 1835. He was born in 1800 and died in 1857, leaving these children:

CHAPTER XXI

STATE GROUPING OF WESTS UNMENTIONED ELSEWHERE

THERE has come into the hands of the writer through correspondence and research much material which may be related to the main lines here developed, but which due to missing links, has not been connected with any of them. This material has been assembled under state heads with the hope that in due time someone, by a searching examination of the county records, will provide the necessary data.

GEORGIA

William West, of Virginia, married Alice Egmond Lawrence. Their son, William Lawrence West, born in Virginia, in 1801, died in Morgan County, Georgia, in 1874. He married Sarah Parthena Skidmore, born in Virginia in 1808. She died in Georgia in 1884. Their daughter, Nancy Maria West, was born in Virginia in 1827, and died in Georgia in 1901. She married, in 1844, Plen Brawner, born in Virginia in 1812, who died in Georgia in 1853. Their daughter, Mary Jane Brawner, born in Georgia in 1844, married, in 1860, Dr. Augustine Shi, who was born in 1834 and died in 1900. Mary Elizabeth Shi, born in 1876, in Virginia, married in 1896, William Haisten, who was born in 1872 and died in 1901. Their daughter, Ida Mae Haisten, born in 1898, married Ewing Snoddy. They make their home in Tulsa, Oklahoma, and have three children, Elizabeth, Ewing, Jr., and Mary Lee Snoddy. Mr. Snoddy, through his mother, is descended from many of the first families of Virginia, and Mrs. Snoddy's ancestor, William West, according to family tradition, is the son of William West (a De La Warr) and Letitia Martin.

They lived near Pawnee, Illinois, and had two children, Nellie E. West and Charles F. West; 2. Martha West, born in 1846, died in 1873. HON. ROY OWEN WEST

Cook County

Roy Owen West, born in 1868 in Georgetown, Illinois, was the son of Pleasant West and his wife, Helen. Mr. West has been a prominent lawyer of Chicago for many years and was appointed Secretary of the Interior by President Coolidge in 1928. The family originally came from Wales to Georgia, thence to Virginia and Pennsylvania and across the line into Southern Ohio, and then to Illinois. Roy O. West's grandfather, Owen West, was a Quaker and went from Ohio to Illinois about the time Illinois was made a state. He settled at Georgetown, Vermilion County, and surveyed all of eastern Illinois, setting the section corner stones. He was a large man, six feet in height and weighing at times 300 pounds. He donated the land for the first schoolhouse ever erected in Vermilion County and taught the school in that house about 1827. The same land is still used for school purposes. Owen West died about 1855 and is buried in a Quaker cemetery two miles east of Georgetown. The father of Hon. Roy O. West, Pleasant West, was born in Georgetown in 1844, and was buried there in 1917. He was a Civil War veteran, having volunteered in Company A, 25th Illinois.

A very complete record of this branch was read several years ago by Mary Jane Young at a West Reunion in Ohio. Mary West Madden, of Chicago, received a copy of this sketch and through the kindness of a niece, Mrs. C. D. Johnson, it is given here. The earliest known ancestor of the line was one Joseph West who married Jane Owen. According to an article on Welsh Settlements of Pennsylvania, in the Pennsylvania Magazine, Vol. 13, p. 179, a Joseph West of Merion Township, Chester County, married Jane Owen about 1740. The date and names not only indicate that these were the same persons, but it is more than likely that Joseph West was a brother of Benjamin West, the artist. Joseph West and Jane Owen had among other children:

1. Owen West

1. Owen West, son of Joseph West and Jane Owen, married Elizabeth Martin, daughter of James and Nancy (Oglesbee) Martin, of Georgia. Owen West was wealthy and the owner of many slaves whom he set free some 50 years before the Civil War, sending many of them to Ohio. He settled in Pittsylvania County, Virginia, and later moved from there to Highland County, Ohio, in 1810. ## KENTUCKY

Christian County

There were a number of West families in this county in the early part of the nineteenth century. They had come from North Carolina, and from the family names, seem to have been related to the Wests in Chatham County, though not descended from Ignatius West as others in Christian County were.

Philip E. West was born in North Carolina in 1811, and came to Kentucky early, where he married Eliza A. Johnson. They were the parents of: 1. Benjamin, b. 1848; 2. Henry, b. 1839; 3. Cornelia, b. 1845; 4. Sidney; 5. Margaret.

Charles H. West, in the same precinct, was born in North or South Carolina. He had three boys and four girls according to the census of 1820. One of his sons was probably William E. West, who was born in N. Carolina in 1805. He married Narcissa Stroud, and they had: 1. James, b. 1829; m. Perlina; 2. Charles C., b. 1830; 3. Thomas, b. 1834; 4. William, b. 1837, m. Croft; 5. Mary, b. 1840; 6. George, b. 1842; 7. Orrin, b. 1844; 8. Nancy, b. 1846; 9. Benjamin, b. 1848; 10. Eliza; 11. Narcissa.

Jesse West, son of Charles West, was born in 1798. He married Martha Prewitt, who was born in 1803. They were members of the Christian Church, and had the following children: 1. Henson; 2. John; 3. Amos; 4. William; 5. Susan; 6. Sally, m. Cooper; 7. Charles, b. 1828; 8. Eliza Sophronia, b. 1829; 9. Francis, b. 1827; 10. James, b. 1827; 11. Jesse, b. 1836; 12. Harmon, b. 1839; 13. Henry, b. 1842.

Mason County

Members of the West families now residing in Maysville, Kentucky, are representatives of a line which formerly lived in Lewis County, Kentucky, some of whom moved to Adams County, Ohio. John West, who was born about 1805, and died before 1850, married Mary ———, who was born in 1805, in Maryland. They were the parents of: 1. Samuel C. West, born in 1823, in Kentucky married Emily Cochran, Nov. 20, 1862; 2. Townsend West, born Oct. 28, 1831 married, July 24, 1866, Mary Himes, born Feb. 25, 1837. They had three children Alva, Charles S., and Mary L., who married Mr. Dunbar; 3. Mary B. West, born 1837; 4. Frances West, born 1842; 5. Vienna West, born 1843.

Nicholas County

Isaac West, born in Delaware about 1770, married Nancy Heney in Nicholas County. They had two children: 1. Adam West, born in Kentucky in 1791 married Mary Wills, born in Pennsylvania in 1799, and was the father of Milton West, born in 1820; Margaret, b. 1827; Mary Jane, b. 1829; James, b. 1835; Martha, b. 1840; 2. Elizabeth A. West, married E. M. Bunton of Carlisle, Kentucky, as his second wife.

Philip West, born in Delaware in 1787, was also a resident of Nicholas County. Perhaps he was a brother of Isaac.

Elijah West, born near Carlisle, Kentucky, July 30, 1786, married Elizabeth Henderson. They moved to Sangamon County, Illinois, in 1833, and had nine children: 1. Jesse B. West, married Eliza J. Peebles, and moved to Iowa. 2. Mahala West married Davidson Smith, and moved to Wisconsin. 3. Elijah A. West married Atha Organ, and had four children. 4. Nathan A. West married Mary Peebles, and moved to Iowa. 5. Sarah A. West married John Allsbury, and lived in Piatt County, Illinois. 6. William West married Hannah Landers. 7. Elizabeth West lived in Piatt County.

Amos West, who was possibly the brother of Elijah, was born in North Carolina. He moved to Maryland where he married Elizabeth Robbins; and they went to Nicholas County, Kentucky. He had at least nine children, the names of two of whom are known: 1. Mary West married Enoch Conyers, and moved to Quincy, Illinois, leaving several children. 2. Elijah West, born in 1804 in Nicholas County, Kentucky, died June 3, 1877. He was county judge for several years and married 1st, Maria B. Smoot, who died in 1863, and 2nd, Mrs. Rosanna Hughes. Mr. West had 13 children, of whom eight died childless. The others were: 1. Sarah A. West married Col. R. A. Stewart, and moved to Orange Lake, Florida. 2. William H. West remained on the home place. 3. Mary G. West married John W. Parker, and moved to Vermilion County, Illinois. 4. Lizzie A. West married Rev. H. W. Abbott, and moved to Monmouth, Kansas. 5. George B. West moved to Wichita, Kansas.

Scott County

James West, born in Virginia, had a son, James N. West, who was born Oct. 24, 1795, in Shelby County, Kentucky. He married Lucy Stribling, Jan. 4, 1821, and they had a son, Edward West, who was born in Scott County, Kentucky, Jan. 9, 1824. His parents moved to Missouri in 1833 and settled on a farm near Independence. Edward West had a daughter, Mamie West, who married Sydney

Gordon, of Kansas City, where they were living in 1928.

Simpson County

Leonard West, who was born in Chatham County, North Carolina, Aug. 12, 1760, seems to be a brother or near relative of William, who was born in the same county. Leonard fought in the Revolution in the North Carolina line. He married 1st, Phoebe Morgan, who died in 1827, and 2nd, Tabitha ———, beside whom he is buried in Franklin, Kentucky. He moved first to Simpson County, Kentucky, but applied for his pension in Calloway County, and at one time it was paid to him in Fayette County. Among his children was Amos S. West (1801-1881), who married, in 1819, Elizabeth Washburn (1800-1872). Their daughter, Eliza J. West, born in 1831, married in 1858, Joseph P. Johnston (1817-1887). A daughter, Edith Johnston, born in Lynville, Illinois, married John Marshall Miller, of Jacksonville, Illinois.

MARYLAND

Baltimore County

This was one of the earliest counties and included several which were later separated from it. Robert West, one of the first settlers, took out many grants of land which now lie in Harford County. One of his descendants was doubtless Thomas, a planter, who died in 1768, leaving a wife, Mary, and children: 1. John (incompetent), 2. Jonathan, 3. Nathaniel, 4. Thomas, 5. Susanna, m. Dean; 6. Mary, m. Loveall; 7, Johanna, m. Sing; 8. Martha, m. Dean.

Capt. John West, who married Elizabeth MacCubin in 1747, lived in Baltimore County and was probably another descendant of Robert.

Joseph West, a Revolutionary pensioner of Rhode Island, was a prominent citizen. He married Violetta Howard, of Frederick County, and they were buried in Garrison Forest churchyard (St. Thomas'). They made their home in Baltimore City for years, their two children having died there.

Isaac West, whose will was probated in 1847, left: 1. Samuel I. W. West; 2. Mary Anne, m. James Carlisle. Isaac West seems to have been a member of the Harford County Wests.

John T. West, born about 1820 in Northampton County, Virginia, migrated here. He was a descendant of Charles West of the Accomac line, and one of his children was George F. West, born about 1840, who married Mary Williams. They had nine children, among them Herbert J. West of Anne Arundel County.

Dorchester County

Solomon West appears here as early as 1708 (Maryland Calendar of Wills, Vol. 3). In 1763 one Solomon West recorded Sandwick, a tract of land patented to Edward West who was probably his father. Edward came over as a freeman in 1658. The name Solomon occurs as late as 1776 (Brumbaugh's Maryland Records, Vol. 2), and Lotan West is also found in this list.

Frederick County

Charles West, born near Newmarket, removed to Hagerstown, where he died. This Charles is perhaps No. 49 in the Frederick County line of Wests. He had five children: 1. John J. West, born in Hagerstown, Oct. 15, 1815, died there in 1857. He married Apr. 13, 1844, Savilla Creager, and they had three children: Charles, Margaret, and Samuel. 2. William West died in Hagerstown, Maryland. 3. Charles West was a farmer in Waynesboro, Pennsylvania. 4. Thomas West, a farmer, died in Missouri. 5. Ara West married Samuel Garling.

Harford County

Robert West, the immigrant, appears in 1677. He patented considerable land in Baltimore County, now Harford, among the tracts being, Poor Man's Beginning (1704), Westwood and Maiden's Mount. If he is the one who died in 1748 he lived to be very old. He married Hannah ———, and they were the parents of several children to whom they made gifts of land on the following dates: 1. Constant Barnes, in 1722. 2. John, in 1726. 3. Jonathan, in 1726. 4. Robert, Jr., in 1728. 5. Enoch, in 1742. 6. Sarah Cook. Dr. Brumbaugh's excellent new volume of Maryland Records gives many West families in Harford County in the census of 1776, and probably most of them are descendants of the early Robert West.

Montgomery County

Two members of the Montgomery line of Wests, whose parents have not been determined, are Ignatius

West, born Mar. 10, 1768, and Charles West, born Feb. 11, 1772. Thomas West was the guardian of Ignatius in 1786, but in 1782 the boys had been bound out to Frederick and Michael Coakendaffer. The later history of the boys is not known though in 1805 and 1807 Ignatius sold his negroes and all his household goods.

Somerset County

One of the early settlers was John West whose will was recorded June 9, 1716. He was married by Col. Claiborne to Catherine Revell, who died in 1723. Their children, born at Back Creek, near Manokin, were: 1. John, Jr., b. May 8, 1686. 2. Thomas, b. Feb. 2, 1690. 3. Randall, b. Aug. 11, 1693. 4. Anthony. 5. William, b. May 2, 1696. 6. Elizabeth, b. May 13, 1687. 7. Mary. 8. Catherine. Randall died in 1731, leaving two children, Anne and Catherine. He inherited Brothers United from his father. The only other family in the county at that time was that of Thomas West, who may have been John West's brother. John was evidently related to the Accomac, Virginia, line.

Thomas West died in 1708 in this county, leaving a wife, Elizabeth, and children: 1. Robert. 2. George. 3. Samuel. 4. Thomas. 5. John. 6. William. The first three inherited from their father, West's Recovery, which he had patented in 1696.

The following notes were taken from various Somerset County records:

James West married Abigail Thompson in 1753.

James West married Sarah Harris in 1755.

Elizabeth West, sister of John Dashiel, was mentioned in his will of 1736.

Mary West, daughter of Andrew Thompson, was mentioned in his will of 1735.

Talbot County

An early immigrant was John West of Talbot, Cecil and Baltimore Counties, who must have come over about 1655. He had the second earliest land patent recorded in the state, on a tract called Dunstable, which lay in Kent County. He and his wife, Anne, sold part of this land in 1674 and the patent was recorded in 1675. Polecat Neck, on Gunpowder Creek, in Baltimore County, was also sold in 1730 by John and Anne, who may have been the same couple. John appeared as a testator in Queen Anne's County in 1708. Another early settler of Talbot County was Lotan West, born about 1687. He married Hannah ———, in Talbot County, and the births of their children are recorded in the register of St. Peter's Episcopal Church: 1. George, b. Dec. 4, 1708. 2. Henry, b. July 30, 1710. 3. Lotan, b. Jan. 28, 1713, d. y. 4. Jane, b. May 5, 1716. 6. Sarah b. Feb. 3, 1718. 7. John, b. Oct. 12, 1721. George West, born in 1708, married Sarah Laws, Feb. 14, 1727/8, and probably married 2nd, Sarah Hurlock Sept. 15, 1740. His children were Lotan, b. May 29, 1729; John, b. Aug. 4, 1731; George, b. Dec. 4, 1733; Mary, b. May 22, 1736. Lotan, born in 1713, may have moved to Dorchester County. Henry West, son of the first Lotan, married Elizabeth Hurlock, Dec. 9, 1736, and they had a child, Jane, born Aug. 10, 1737.

Worcester County

George West, who died in 1760 left land in Dorchester County as well as Worcester, while one of the tracts which he devised to his children lay in Sussex County, Delaware. This was Longacre, which he had patented in 1732, while Sussex County was still a part of Maryland. It is the writer's belief that this is the same George West who was said to have been born in England about 1700, according to Munsell's American Ancestry. He was more likely descended from one of the Somerset Wests and was probably born in Maryland. He names nine children in his will and devises Long Acre and Good Success to George and Levi. He mentions his wife, Betty, but had probably been married before to Sarah. He was the father of:

1. George West
2. Levi West b. Mar. 13, 1726
3. Mary West m. Daniel Godwin
4. Jemima West
5. Comfort West m. John Dusey

2. Levi West, son of George and Sarah West, was born in Maryland Mar. 13, 1726, and married about 1748, Mary Williams, daughter of Andrew and Prudence Williams. They were the parents of:

10. George West b. Aug. 27, 1749
11. Andrew West b. 1753

10. George West, son of Levi West and Mary Williams, lived in Baltimore County, where he moved with his parents. In Dobbs County, North Carolina, July 1, 1773, he married Mary Anne Dellahaunty, who was born July 3, 1758. George West fought in the Revolution and his pension papers are filed in the Pension Bureau in Washington. He died in Rutherford County, Tennessee, but had previously lived in Washington County, Virginia. He left these children:

22. Anna West b. May 12, 1776

NEW JERSEY

Monmouth County

A drift of migration from Rhode Island to Long Island, and thence to Monmouth County, New Jersey, carried in its wake Bartholomew and Robert West, Sr., in 1670. In 1681, William, Stephen, and Robert West received land in Monmouth County, and according to

NEW YORK

Washington County

Samuel West, born in 1750 in Salem, New York, married Peaceable Hubbell, born in 1757/8. They were the parents of one son. Samuel served in the Revolution in the New York line, and moved to New Milford, Connecticut, after his marriage. He and his wife are buried in Milton, Litchfield County. Their descendants returned to New York before 1830, and migrated from there to Wisconsin, Illinois, and other Western States. The son, Hubbell West, born in Amenia, New York, had ten daughters. One of his descendants is Mrs. Lucy Woodward Vauthier, of Millersville, Maryland, who is a member of the D. A. R. Hubbell West also had one son, Samuel Chamberlain West, born in Colebrook, Connecticut, June 26, 1818. A descendant, Gordon R. West, is reclamation engineer for the Missouri Pacific Lines. He makes his home in St. Louis. His father was Henry Titus West, and his grandfather Henry T. West was the son of Samuel Chamberlain West. This branch of the West family originated in Connecticut and is no doubt connected with the early New England line.

A sketch of these brothers is given in Vol. II of the History of Upper Ohio Valleys and in the History of Belmont and Jefferson Counties, but their descendants are not named. The names Simeon and Henry suggest relationship to the Wests of Kentucky.

Logan County

According to the Biographical Cyclopedia and Portrait Gallery of Ohio, Vol. III, Judge William West, of Bellefontaine, Ohio, was descended from ancestors who came over with William Penn and settled near Philadelphia. They were related to the line of Benjamin West, artist. The father of Judge West was Samuel West, born in Washington County, Pennsylvania, in 1785, where his father, Jonathan, had come about the beginning of the Revolution. Later Jonathan removed to Jefferson County, Ohio, but Samuel returned to Millsborough, Pennsylvania, where Judge West was born Feb. 9, 1824. In 1830 the family moved to Knox County, Ohio.

SOUTH CAROLINA

Greenville County

Among the early settlers in this county was Isaac West, who came from Virginia about 1800. It has always been the family tradition that he was born in Princess Anne County. The West Association of this branch, of which Mr. Broadus C. West, of Spartanburgh, is chairman, intends to obtain the proof of this in the near future. The father of Isaac West is thought to be William.

About 1820 Isaac died, and soon after his death his widow moved to Franklin County, Alabama, with her sons, Jonathan, William, and Thomas. The others remained in South Carolina. There were twelve children:

1790 of Halifax District contains the names of Dempsey, William, Arthur, and Nathaniel West. Henry West was born about 1775, and moved to Scott County, Kentucky, after his marriage to Nancy Lyle, who was born in North Carolina. His stay here was short, and he soon moved to Decatur County, Tennessee. His son, John, was born there in 1813. The children of Henry West and Nancy Lyle were:

At his death in 1926, Mr. West left the following children: John Terry, Allen, Thomas H., Florence (Mrs. Howard Eltinge), Walter H., Carroll (Mrs. Hugh McKittrick Jones), Frances H. West. A grandson, Allen West, Jr., is studying for the Foreign Service in Washington, D. C.

6. Helen West married George A. Pearce and they were the parents of John West Pearce, who makes his home in Louisville, Kentucky, where he is pastor of one of the churches.

7. Lulu West married Edwin M. Gardiner, an artist, and they have made their home in Nashville. The writer is indebted to Mrs. Gardiner for some of the data given here. She believes that the father of Capt. Henry West was William West.

VIRGINIA

Chesterfield County

In 1798 there occurred the death of George West, who had a wife, Mary, grandson, Luke West, and children: 1. John Thomas. 2. Littlebury. 3. Mary, m. Belcher. 4. Phoebe, m. Smith. The son, Littlebury, died in 1832, and left these children: Littlebury West and Nancy West, who married Mr. Mosley. The records also contain the names of Samuel West and John S. West.

Some time earlier than this, however, other members of the West family had moved to Amherst County. As early as 1762 Thomas West is found there and others recorded between 1780 and 1800 include: John, James H., William, Francis, and Jesse. James West died in 1798. Bransford, Francis and John were members of the first rifle company of Amherst in the Revolution. When Nelson County was created from Amherst most of these families fell within the boundaries of the new county.

Nicholas, John, Francis and Bransford were probably brothers and the latter was born in Chesterfield County, Aug. 26, 1754. He married Nancy Joplin in Amherst

County, the date of the marriage bond being Mar. 3, 1792. Marriage bonds were issued to other members of the family as follows:

Mary West, daughter of Jesse, and Mr. Hansbrugh, Jan. 7, 1790.

Francis West and Ruth Bachnall, Jan. 7, 1790.

Nicholas West and Betsy Tinsey, Nov. 18, 1793.

Bransford West died in Nelson County in Feb. 1843, leaving these children:

1. Jane West m. Ferguson
2. Nicholas B. West
3. Francis B. West
4. Elizabeth West m. Harding

2. Nicholas B. West, son of Bransford West and Nancy Joplin, was born about 1794 in Nelson County. He had these children:

5. Wilson J. West
6. James West
7. Cynthia West
8. Elizabeth West

3. Francis B. West, son of Bransford West and Nancy Joplin, was born in Nelson County, and had the following children: 1. William. 2. Anne. 3. Maria. 4. Virginia. 5. Cornelia. 6. Septimius. 7. Eliza.

5. Wilson J. West, son of Nicholas B. West, was born in Nelson County in 1828. He had 12 children: 1. Elizabeth. 2. Harriet. 3. Eldridge. 4. Nancy Jane. 5. Sarah. 6. Charles. 7. Elijah. 8. Mary. 9. Martha. 10. Minta. 11. John B. 12. William.

John B. West, son of Wilson J. West, lives in Amelia, Virginia, and is the Monticello district supervisor of the Game and Fisheries Commission.

William S. West, son of Wilson J. West, was born in 1862 in Patrick County, Virginia, where his father had moved before the Civil War. He married Miss Hylton, and they are the parents of Dr. W. Clyde West, who was born in 1893 in Patrick County. Doctor West is a practicing physician and the city health officer in Alexandria, Virginia.

Henrico County

In 1791 there died in Henrico County, Drury West, leaving a wife, Jane, and two sons: Whitlow West, who married Elizabeth Beall in 1789; and Claiborn West, who married Martha Clark in 1794. If there were other children their names were unknown. These family names recur, however, in Christian County, Kentucky, in 1850, when we find listed in the census a Claiborn, born in 1813, in Virginia. His children, with their ages, were: 1. Martha E., 14; 2. William B., 13; 3. Drury H., 10; 4. James C., 6. All were born in Kentucky.

A Betty Claiborn West, of Hopkinsville, Christian County, married Patrick Henry in 1842. She and Claiborn were probably the children of Claiborn West and Martha Clark, of Henrico County, Virginia, who moved to Kentucky.

Another Claiborne West occurs in a Virginia family, data about whom is in possession of Charles Ross West, of Newcastle, Alabama. According to tradition this family contained four boys and no girls. The boys were: John, Thomas, Claiborne and William.

William West married Mary Shelton and moved to Alabama. They had 12 children: Hardin, who died in infancy; four, Chatham, William, David, and John, who died unmarried, and:

1. Robert West
2. Benjamin West
3. Thomas West
4. Joseph West, killed in Nashville
5. Claiborne West, lost trace of in Texas
6. Nancy Jane West m. George Spears of Memphis
7. Elizabeth Tennon West m. Clark of Nashville

All these died before 1882 except Elizabeth.

1. Robert West, son of William West and Mary Shelton, was born in Alabama, but moved to Barren County. He died before 1850, leaving a wife, Nancy. The following, given in the 1850 census, are presumably his children: 1. Edward, 31; 2. Isaiah, 30; 3. William, 26; 4. Thomas, 23; 5. Claiborne, 22; 6. Robert, 21; 7. Nancy, 14.

2. Benjamin West, son of William West and Mary Shelton, was born in Virginia, Sept. 30, 1794, and died in Alexandria, Louisiana, July 23, 1838. He had started for Texas to visit his brother, Claiborne, and expired on the way. His wife was Emily French whom he married in Limestone County, Alabama, Feb. 12, 1818. They lived on Panther Creek, seven miles east of Athens, Alabama, and had these children: 1. James K.; 2. Harriet W.; 3. William G.; 4. Jesse R.; 5. Nathan D.; 6. Andrew P.; 7. Tinsley D.; 8. Louisiana M.; 9. Emily F. Tinsley D. West was born in 1831 and was the father of Charles Ross West, of Newcastle, Alabama.

3. Thomas West, son of William West and Mary Shelton, married Frances French, sister of his brother's wife. They moved to Kentucky about 1830, where both died. They were buried on Robert West's farm in Barren County, Kentucky. Their children were: 1. Anne Sophronia, b. Alabama, 1827;

2. Mary, b. 1829; 3. William T., b. 1832; 4. Elizabeth, b. 1834.

Loudoun County

William West, Sr., died in Loudoun County in 1679, leaving a wife, Mary, and five children. Just how he was related to the Fairfax County Wests isn't clear. The West name was an old one in the county and there still stands an old tavern known as West's Ordinary, which was often patronized by George Washington when he used that highway. The family consisted of:

1. Charles West
2. John West
3. Thomas West
4. William West, Jr.
5. Anne West

1. Charles West inherited from his father much land and he was to pay John ten pounds a year. He married Anne ———, and died in 1787, leaving two daughters, Anna and Elizabeth.

3. Thomas West died in 1777, unmarried, and left his estate to his sister, Anne.

4. William West died in 1763, leaving two sons, Cato and Charles West.

5. Anne West married Mr. Peyton, and had: 1. Margaret; 2. William; 3. Valentine; 4. Craven; 5. Francis. The name Peyton was a familiar one in Kentucky after the Revolution. Valentine Peyton went to Jefferson County, Kentucky, and when he died he requested that his daughter should live with the family of West Aldricks.

Another early resident of this county was Joseph West who moved to Harrison County, Virginia. He married Miss Battson and they had: 1. James; 2. Benjamin; 3. Samuel; 4. Joseph; 5. Thomas; 6. William; 7. Elizabeth; 8. Jane.

Surrey and Sussex Counties

The West families in these counties are among the older inhabitants of Virginia, but have not traced their line back to one of the main branches. Roland West, a sheriff of Surrey County, was twice married, the name of one of his wives being Caroline. He was the father of:

1. Samuel West b. 1839
2. Othello West b. 1842, d. Civil War
3. Josephus Washington West b. about 1845
4. Kate West m. Hunnicutt

3. Josephus W. West, married Miss Newcombe and lived near Petersburg, Virginia. They had several children, among them:

5. Wilton M. West
6. Charles N. West, of Washington, D. C.

5. Wilton M. West was born about 1865 in Virginia, and married 1st, Betty Cornwell, and 2nd, Mary Lewis. He lives in Suitland, Maryland, near his two sons:

7. Raymond West b. Feb. 5, 1894
8. Harry W. West b. June 19, 1896

7. Raymond N. West, son of Wilton M. West and Betty Cornwell, married Ora Turbiville, Apr. 29, 1923, and they have one child, Ora Evelina West, born Aug. 2, 1927.

8. Harry W. West, son of Wilton M. West and Betty Cornwell, married Elizabeth C. Keir, Nov. 3, 1917. They are the parents of Caroline Jean West, b. May 10, 1920; Betty West, b. Apr. 15, 1922; and Jessie May West, b. Sept. 25, 1926.

Two families occur in the early census list of Sussex County, who seem related to this family and connected with each other. The name Othello occurs in this county also. T. T. West, who was born in 1806, married Anne ———, who was born in 1808. Their children were:

1. Thomas West b. 1833
2. James W. West b. 1831
3. Sarah West b. 1836
4. Martha West b. 1844

2. James W. West married Margaret ———, who was born in 1832. They were the parents of: 1. Mary E., b. 1854; 2. Millard F., b. 1857; 3. Martha, b. 1864; 4. Othello, b. 1869.

The second Sussex family was descended from William West, of Southampton County, Virginia, which was formed in 1749 from Nansemond and Isle of Wight Counties. As far back as 1637, Robert, William and Humphrey West are found in Isle of Wight. One of these was no doubt the ancestor of William West of Southampton County. One William West purchased land in Isle of Wight in 1732 and a William West also had a grant in Nansemond in 1752. Of this Sussex branch, the Hon. Junius E. West, present lieutenant-governor of Virginia, is a member.

William West, of Southampton County, married Lucy Thorpe, a widow, born June 22, 1740. They were the parents of:

1. Mary West b. July 10, 1767, d. May 3, 1835
2. Sallie West b. Dec. 16, 1768, d. Oct. 9, 1855
3. William West, Jr., b. Oct. 21, 1769
4. Martha West b. Oct. 21, 1772
5. John J. West b. Feb. 2, 1775
6. Robert West b. Mar. 2, 1777
7. James West b. Mar. 2, 1780

5. John J. West, son of William West and Lucy Thorpe, was born in Southampton County, Virginia. The name of one son is known:

8. James C. West b. Apr. 4, 1802

8. James C. West, son of John J. West, was born in Southampton County, Virginia, and died in Sussex County July 9, 1847. He married Martha Darden who was born in Northampton County, North Carolina, June 19, 1808, and died in Sussex County, Virginia, May 24, 1878. They were the parents of:

9. Richard C. West
10. Henry T. West b. 1833
11. Jesse West
12. Frank West
13. William B. West
14. James West
15. Betty West

10. Henry Thomas West, son of James C. West and Martha Darden, was born in Sussex County, Virginia, in 1833. He married Susan Cox who was born in 1839, and they were the parents of:

16. James Robert Thomas West b. 1858
17. Willis W. West d. in infancy
18. Jesse Felix West b. 1862
19. John W. West b. 1864
20. Junius E. West b. 1866
21. Jasper H. West b. 1868
22. Mary Sue West b. 1873, d. 1927
23. Caleb D. West b. 1876

WEST VIRGINIA

Greenbrier County

The following marriage records which have just appeared in the July Number of William and Mary Magazine seem to settle definitely the line to which the Wests of Garrard County, Kentucky, belong:

Littleton West m. Elinor Gallaway, Feb. 6, 1781.
Joseph West m. Agnes Carpenter, Feb. 17, 1781.
Luke West m. Rosa Acers, Nov. 9, 1784.
Penelope West m. Mitchell Porter, Jan. 25, 1788.
Mary West m. Solomon Turpin, Mar. 18, 1788.
Tabitha West m. William Kindir, Oct. 24, 1791.

Joseph West lived in Greenbrier County until about 1795 when he moved to Kentucky. The name Turpin is a family name in the Garrard branch.

Littleton West, who was born in Sussex County, Delaware, Nov. 25, 1755, enlisted in Greenbrier County. He later moved to Madison County, Kentucky, and from there moved to Ray County, Missouri.

CHAPTER XXII

VIRGINIA AND MARYLAND IMMIGRANTS BEFORE THE YEAR 1700

HERE are presented some of the most valuable records that are used in this genealogy. They furnish the starting point in this country for research of a host of West lines. In many instances the county of the one who transported them became the home of the newly arrived settler.

That great numbers came in such close succession indicates that very many of them were related. Doubtless the glowing reports sent back to England by relatives caused the great influx during the decades from 1640 to 1680. Persecutions and hard times in England and Ireland played their part in minimizing the hardships awaiting the Colonists.

CHAPTER XXIII

LAND RECORDS IN RICHMOND AND ANNAPOLIS

THE land offices in Richmond and Annapolis furnish many interesting records of government land acquired by early West settlers in Virginia and Maryland. The peculiar names given to some of the tracts reveal the feelings of the owners on the probable value of their new possessions.

Such names as "West's Folly" and "Good Luck Enlarged" stand at the opposite poles of pessimism and optimism. Another indicative name was "Dear Bought and Nothing Now Got." "The End of The Troubles" signified better times ahead.

The records include the size of the tracts and an accurate description of boundary lines, marking them off by such details as white oak trees, large stones and creeks.

CHAPTER XXIV

EARLY UNITED STATES CENSUS LISTS

CENSUS LISTS have a definite value in that they place the stamp of authority on many records which otherwise might be of a more or less traditional character. Even the family Bible sometimes needs the support of other evidence, for its birth records.

So many citizens of Virginia, Maryland, North and South Carolina went to Kentucky just before the Revolution, or immediately afterward, that in tracing them a list of the early residents of Kentucky is essential. Therefore, included here is a list of West heads of families in 1810 which is the earliest census for that state.

In Virginia the tax lists take the place of the census of 1790 in other states. There must have been a great many more Wests in Virginia than are named since so many of the county lists are missing.

CHAPTER XXV

WEST ROSTER OF SOLDIERS IN THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

THE West Revolutionary roster shows a list of gratifying length. Especially in Maryland is the number (24) large, in comparison with that (44) of the heads of families in 1790. Practically every man of fighting age took part in the struggle.

In Virginia, in spite of the fact that some allowance must be made for those who remained loyal to their sovereign, the number (20) compares favorably with that (77) of the heads of families in 1782-5. It must not be forgotten that in a family line so largely Cavalier there must have been some Tories.

The published records are far from complete and new data is being discovered continually. Many individuals have indisputable proof of the Revolutionary service of their ancestors. Some of this evidence has never been approved by the Government in connection with pension applications, while other claims have never even been presented.

Doubtless the West roster will continue to grow with the years. In Richmond, for example, the State Archives are full of uncatalogued material relative to the Revolution and there must be additional lists of soldiers hidden away in this mass of invaluable records. Neither Delaware nor New Jersey has the published material that its age justifies and much matter is awaiting the efforts of interested persons. New England Revolutionary records are amazingly full and are easy of access in scores of libraries. Only the Maryland and Virginia rosters are given here, on account of their close connection with the West lines chiefly treated in the book.

VIRGINIA

CHAPTER XXVI

WESTS OF TODAY PROMINENT IN PUBLIC AND PROFESSIONAL LIFE

AFTER devoting so much time and space to Wests who served their day and generation in the dim and distant past, it seems only fair that at least one chapter should be focussed on those of the present and very recent generations. Just as many people take little or no interest in antiques, so there exists a legion of folk who care more about what present-day members of their families are doing than what their ancestors did eight or ten generations ago. For such this chapter is written.

It has been humorously stated that originally all the people in the world were named Smith. This custom prevailed until one of the Smiths committed a crime and was forced by the others to change his name. Be that as it may, and regardless of who the outlawed Smith was, a glance at the directory of any city in the country reveals fewer Wests than Smiths. But there are a host of Wests who are carrying on their full share of the world's work.

While thousands are worthy of mention because of their signal accomplishments along many lines of endeavor, it is obvious that only a limited few can be named here. Their achievements will stand to the everlasting credit of the entire West family. Many of them appear in "Who's Who in America." When known, the place of birth is given, this information usually being sufficient to connect them with one of the early lines.

Albert Slater West, who was born in 1846, was the author of several English grammars used in the public schools all over the country.

CHAPTER XXVII

CONCLUSION

THE author cannot bring this book to a close without giving some idea of the amount of time required to present even a partial picture of the West family relationships. At the age of 18 she received her first brief data from the lips of a great aunt who cautioned her that it was better "to rely on oneself than to depend on the achievements of one's ancestors." Nevertheless, the listener recorded that information, meagre as it was, in a little notebook and at intervals worked on it when in touch with libraries affording genealogical facilities.

Later on, other relatives contributed to the family history, important data in printed form, which marked the real starting point of the research which has resulted in this volume. The best part of four years, and all of the last two, have been devoted to the collection and compilation of material. While the writer originally had no intention of publishing a book, the amount of new material discovered, coupled with urgent requests from a host of correspondents, made it seem imperative that the information should be shared with all the Wests in the United States.

Two trips to Kentucky yielded valuable clues in certain lines. Visits followed to 31 counties in Virginia and 12 in Maryland. County records in several other states were searched. Much discouragement was encountered in tracing persons who had migrated from one state to another. To add to the difficulties many old records had been destroyed by fire or neglect, and many of those still in existence, especially the parish records, were in a tattered condition. Perhaps the biggest surprise was the discovery of how few people know the names of their great-grandparents, many not even knowing the names of their grandfathers and grandmothers.

It is hoped that the matter published here will make it comparatively easy for the majority of Wests all over the country to connect themselves with the early lines in America. It is the writer's keenest desire that some member of the family with ample means, or a group of state associations, will take up the burden and carry on the work until all the descendants of those 518 heads of families in 1790 have been accounted for. North Carolina and Kentucky will be the most fertile fields in which to undertake further research.

While such work is in progress the associations may also wish to turn their attention to better preservation of some of the graves which have been far too long neglected. No doubt the descendants of Anthony West will be distressed to know that the tombstone of Maj. Charles West in Accomac County, Virginia, one of the very early members of the family, is now being used as a step for a stable erected on the site of the old burying ground.

The first move in making the record of the West family more permanent would seem to be the formation of additional state associations. At present one in South Carolina, another in Ohio, and a thriving association in McLean County, Illinois, are the only organizations in existence.

Any further information the writer of this book may receive, will at all times be available for the future efforts of those interested in seeking to entrench the West family more securely in the Hall of Fame.

Page 59—Philpot's Visitation of Buckinghamshire names: Anthony, Robert, Thomas, Nicholas, Elizabeth and Matthew, all living in 1566, as children of Thomas West of Marsworth. Later descendants were: William, Edmund, Hester, Sybil, Eliseus, Francis and Bridget. These names indicate that Anthony West of Accomac was a native of County Bucks, England, and apparently a De La Warr.
